THE NEW YORK STOCK MARKET CLOSES STRONG.

Local Stocks Quiet and Rather Easier—Open Market Discount Rate Higher—Buyers and Sellers Apart on Toronto Grain Market—Eggs Firmer—Beerbohm's Report—Miscellaneous.

SATURDAY EVENING, April 18.

Wheat and corn is ½d, flour 6d and peasid dearer in Liverpool.

There were 444 shares sold on local stock market to-day compared with 698 yesterday.

The weekly statement of the Bank of England shows a decrease in bullion of £610,000 and in reserve of £357,000.

Henry Allen & Co., New York correspondents for J. J. Dixon & Co., advise caution in buying stocks at present prices.

Bank of Commerce stock sold here to-day at 129 to 129¾, an advance of ¼ to ¾ on previous day's transactions.

Twenty-five shares of Canadian Pacific stock changed hands here to-day at 80. There were sales at the close in Montreal at 79¾.

Counseiman & Day of Chicago think higher prices in wheat rather doubtful unless as the result of pure muscle on the part of bulls with fresh accessions to their ranks from the outside.

The weekly statement of New York associated banks is again unsatisfactory. Variations are: Reserve, decrease $1,398,100; loans, decrease $1,689,700; specie, decrease $2,582,000; legals, increase $986,300; deposits, decrease $1,210,000; circulation, decrease $1500.

"Next time our city authorities," remarks The Montreal Trade Bulletin, "want to pay or sell exchange in London they will probably ask for tenders from the banks and exchange brokers here, judging from their late experience in connection with the civic loan."

J. J. Dixon & Co. received the following from Chicago over their private wire at the close of business: Our wheat market has passed through another day of excitement, with wild fluctuations and a considerably higher range of values being established, though not entirely sustained. Foreign advices were strong, but the principal advance, largest portion of which was in the May futures, proceeded from heavy covering by local bears. After this demand was satisfied market gradually receded and closed quieter. A feature possibly of considerable influence in its ultimate effect on the deal was the heavy long realizing, quite a good deal of which was attributed to foreign holders, which was rather significant, as it serves to indicate that consumptive demand from that quarter is likely to be checked by the rapidity of our late advance under the circumstances. With bulk of short interest liquidated we think higher prices rather doubtful, unless as a result of pure muscle on the part of bulls, with fresh accessions to their ranks from the outside. Corn was stronger early on moderate receipts and advanced sharply when wheat bulged, but the hard spot found free selling and market gradually eased off. The weather being clear and warm probably influenced some selling, though Prince's reports describe the season as late and no preparations for planting under way except in Nebraska. Provisions were rather quiet, trade being chiefly local.

Drummond & Brown received the following today over their private wire from W. G. McCormack & Co. of Chicago: Another wild and excited wheat market has wound up the trading for the week. Cables noted a higher market in London, with considerable excitement. Liverpool was a penny higher and Berlin 1½ marks higher for spot wheat. The opening of the market was very erratic, everybody seeming desirous of buying at once. Several of our most prominent and aggressive bears have covered their lines of shorts, and we only know of one prominent local operator who has failed to cover. In spite of the strength abroad there has been a notable amount of selling for foreign account, presumably by longs. A number of our local bulls have taken advantage of to-day's advance to close out their lines. With the principal shorts covered we incline to the belief that the market has advanced far enough for the present, but it is so wild that predictions as to its course are valueless. Corn opened easier, but the tone quickly changed on heavy purchases for a prominent local short. The bulge, however, met free selling from longs and the market closes heavy. Cash demand continues brisk, and daily receipts are readily taken. Oats opened higher, but closed weak under free realizing. Provisions have been fairly steady in price, in spite of free selling by commission houses having outside trade. The demand for May stuff from packers continues good, and to-day's market developed quite a little short interest for that month among outside speculators. While a break in corn would weaken provisions somewhat we see no reason to expect any considerable decline and still advise purchases on all soft spots.

The followinz was received to-day by John J. Dixon & Co. over their private wire from Henry Allen & Co. of New York: A decrease in the bank reserve, considerably smaller than had been anticipated, gave a very strong tone to the closing prices of stocks to-day. London was a large seller of St. Paul, but their offerings were quickly absorbed by the local people, who continue bullish particularly on this stock. The sentiment at present seems all one way, and while feeling is as it is the stock market will doubtless continue strong and advancing. There is but little short interest, and some caution should be observed in buying stocks at these prices, as with any bad news the long interest would be likely to prove unwieldy, although it is not fashionable at present to talk of reactions. After the large advance we have had, a considerable set-back would not be out of order.

Drummond & Brown received the following from Lamontagne, Clarke & Co., New York: London and traders been only sellers. Latter trying to get back their longs sold against statement. Commission houses buyers in round lots. No pressure at all and steady demand for all offerings. Only conclusion is country has taken hold on crops. Bad news don't bring any out and any buying finds stocks scarce. Statement shows receipts from interior little chance for higher money. Only course seems to buy every recession, and particularly grangers. New England will do better. Gas also, as market broadening cheap things will be like Terminal and Lead. Close strong, little under best.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

CHICAGO, April 18.—In the wheat pit to-day the speculative giants fought a stubborn battle. The result was disastrous to the bears, but fightly profitable to the bulls. Enormous transactions which showed tremendous losses were evened up. May started at $1.09⅝, and in an hour despite renewed advances, about 5 cents, the bears appearing to take fright at the manipulated appearance of the May futures, July advanced about 2 cents. May remained agitated during the greater part of the session, but gradually weakened, closing 1⅞ cents and July ⅝c higher for the day. Corn declined ¼c to ⅝c, and oats ⅜c to ⅞c. Provisions were very dull and looked like going lower, but were upheld by the strength of wheat. The leading futures closed: Wheat—April $1.12, May $1.12⅝, July $1.09⅝. Corn—April 73¼c, May 72¼c, July 68¼c. Oats—May 59⅝c, June 55⅝c, July 53¼c. Mess pork—May $12.97½, July $13.35, Sept. $13.72½. Lard—May $6.95, July $7.22, Sept. $7.32½.
