GRAND CONCERT.
 BY Famous Banjoists,

The DOBSON Bros., will give a Grand Concert at CHICKERING HALL, on Monday Evening February 25th 1878. They will be assisted by Vocal and Instrumental Artists, of acknowledged talent. Mr. C. E. Dobson, the champion banjoist, known "all through the country" He makes the banjo discourse most eloquent music, In his hands its moans and sighs and laughs, and breaks out into its raptures of joy, as if it sympathized with the party whose story it is telling. It is no longer the simple accompaniment to a plantation melody under the fingers of Dobson, but a living Instrument, fully awake to the inspiration of the performer, and meeting him half way in the execution of the most complex numbers.
