BOBBY READE'S HAT TRICK.

Took Wickets of Southam, Reynolds and Lucas on Successive Balls.

Rosedale defeated the Combined College Eleven at Rosedale yesterday in a very interesting match. Six of the Rosedale wickets fell for 38 runs, but Mason and Reade made a stand, running up the score to 112. Mason carried his bat for a well-played 49.

The Combined College team started off very disastrously, five wickets falling for 6 runs. Finally the innings closed for 57, chiefly due to J. J. Cameron's carefully-compiled 17. Rosedale had 117 runs for 6 wickets in the second innings, of which Butt contributed 33 and Livingstone 40, not out. The latter batsman hit out in fine style, and scored six boundaries. The college eleven found it very hard to play the bowling of Reade and Whittaker. The former got 4 for 12, and the latter 6 for 33. Reade did the hat trick, clean bowling Southam and Lucas, two international men, and getting Reynolds in the slips. The following is the score:

Turf Gossip.

Hermis has resumed walking and galloping, and it is expected he will be able in a few days again to be seen to good advantage.

All of H. B. Duryea's racers, including Irish Lad, have been shipped from New York to Saratoga. The great horse, who lost by a few inches the fastest Brighton Handicap ever run, will be trained again for some or the big races to be run at Saratoga this year.

It will be no surprising, unless the proper authorities step in with a check-rein to see a bill introduced at Albany next term prohibiting steeplechases within the confines of New York State. Hurdle races were abolished after last year's campaign because the element of danger was too great, but the work of needed reform was not completed.—New York Sun.

When Gayboy and Major Pelham ran a dead heat in the Jamaica Stakes, which was a selling affair, a great many horsemen wanted to know who, in case there had been a bid up on either horse, would have received half of the run-up, which usually goes to the second horse in such events. There was much speculation over the point until an official of the track decided the question with the statement that the money would have gone to the owner of the third horse, Ingold, A. Featherstone.

A big crowd is going over to Fort Erie on the G.T.R. special this morning, leaving at 11.30. Seven events are on the card, including the Hamilton Stake for 2-year-olds, in which Oiseau, the crack Nashville youngster, makes his first appearance in Canada.

Marley Dale's Eclipse Stakes.

London, July 15.—Marley Dale, ridden by Danny Maher, won the Eclipse Stakes of 10,000 sovs., for 3 and 4-year-olds, about 1¼ miles, at the Sandown Park Eclipse meeting to-day. Rydal Head was second and Henry the First came in third. Seven horses ran.

Lawn Bowling.

The Canadian bowlers are apparently having a very good time in the old country. They are visiting Perth, where Messrs. John Dewar & Sons' big distilleries are situated, and this firm have undertaken to show them thru their large premises, entertain them to luncheon and show the party the sights of their city. They were in Perth on July 13, where they competed in a tournament arranged by the combined local clubs.

Maritime Auto Championship.

In the recent automobile race held in Halifax for the championship of the Maritime Provinces, R. Paterson, in the Stevens-Duryea of this year's model, was awarded a medal for championship of the province. The race was run on a half-mile track, and the time for five miles was ten minutes and six seconds.

Hartford, Conn., July 15.—The golf championship of Connecticut was to-day won by S. H. Patterson of the Brooklawn Clubs, Bridgeport, who defeated J. E. Wews of the Hartford Country Club, 3 up and 1 to play in 36 holes.

Games to-day: Baltimore at Toronto (two games), Providence at Buffalo, Jersey City at Rochester, Newark at Montreal.

Falkenburg and Mills for Toronto and Burchell and Mason for Baltimore will be the pitchers. Armbruster is expected to report this morning.

Toronto 7, Baltimore 5.

Dick Harley scored a success as manager yesterday by defeating the Orioles in the first game. The team made enough errors to lose, but, as Baltimore also had a bad day in the field, the Toronto mistakes did not do much material damage.

The Maple Leafs got after Wiltse in the opening innings for three runs. Wiedensaul walked and reached third on Harley's single. Rapp grounded to third. Murray drew a pass, and "Wiedie" and Harley scored on Fuller's grounder thru Jordan. Fuller attempted to steal, and, while Lewis was running him down, Murray scored.

With two out in the second, Carr walked. Wiedensaul boomed a fly to left which got away from Hayden and Carr scored.

In the fifth Rapp was given a life by Jordan's error. Murray's single put him on third. Massey grounded to pitcher. Fuller did likewise, and Rapp was caught at the plate. Parker came along with a single, which scored Murray. Applegate's smashing three-bagger scored two more.

Baltimore got one in the fourth. Jennings took a shoot in the ribs, and by speedy sprinting scored on Lewis' single.

In the sixth, with two out, Jordan laced the ball to the right field fence for a homer.

Byers started with a single in the seventh and stole second. He got third on Wiedensaul's misplay of Wiltse's grounder. McFarland's hit scored both runners.

In the ninth Byers walked and got third on Wiltse's hit, McFarland's long fly scored Byers. Applegate lost his bearings and hit Hayden. Manager Harley sent him to the bench and Falkenburg took his place. The lanky twirler proceeded to get busy, and he and Parker caught Wiltse off second. He then struck out Jennings and the game was over.
