EDUCATIONAL

Night School

This session gives every young man and young woman the opportunity to prepare for better and higher positions without interfering with their employment. It requires only their spare time two evenings a week.

The work is so thoroughly classified and arranged that it brings immediate results in the form of more responsible positions.

In our evening school thousands of young people have been trained, and are now securing the benefit of the preparation they made for business life.

Classes will be organized October 1.
