BOXERS ALL WANT A TRIP ACROSS

FIVE KNOCKOUTS IN THE OLYMPIC BOXING TRIALS

First Night's Milling Provides Interesting Sport for the Fans — Finals Will be Staged Tonight.

From the way the boys waded into each other at the Olympic boxing trials last night at the Arena, that trip to Belgium must look like a million dollars to them. Eight bouts were decided, and five of them by the short route, but each and every one was full of pep, while they lasted.

Walter Newton opened the proceedings by taking on Dore of the Laurier A.C., Ottawa, in the 126-lb. class. Dore looked pretty good in the first round, but Walter soon got his number, and in the last two rounds slammed the Ottawa boy all over the ring and won by a block.

Coyne of the Riversides ran into a good boy in A. Rankin from Edmonton in the second 126-lb. bout. Rankin uncorked a terrific right-hand punch, that shook Coyne up and gave him a good lead in the first. In the second the Edmonton boy put Coyne down with a right to the jaw, and had the Classic representative wobbly, but couldn't finish him. Coyne put up a great uphill battle in the third, and the judges could not separate them, and called for an extra round, which resulted in the westerner carrying away the honors.

Easy for Turner.

Harry Turner had little difficulty after the first round against Russell Young in the 112-lb. class. In the second and third he took every advantage of his longer reach and jabbed his way to a decision.

Joe Simmons started like a whirlwind against Geo. Blain of the National A.C., Montreal, at 112 lbs., but one punch in the jaw sent him to dreamland.

In the 135-lb. class, Chris Newton went after Geo. Smith, Montreal A.C., in his best style, and, altho the Montrealer showed great gameness, he was no match for the Riverdale boy, and took the count in the second.

Geo. Wittichen of Calgary and E. Healey of Halifax had a nice, tidy battle for one round, but the Calgary boy was much the stronger and put his man out in the second.

Rugby Player Good.

McAdam of Halifax made a fine start in the 160-lb. class by putting Herscovitch of Montreal down with a succession of rights and lefts to the head, but he couldn't finish the job, and the husky Montrealer handed him a good lacing and stopped him in the second. Wm. Mills of the Lachine Canoe Club couldn't stand the pace set by Corpl. Prudholme of the P.P.C.L.I., and only lasted about a round and a half.

The summary:

—126-Pound Class—

Walter Newton, Riversides, Toronto, beat Wm. Dore, Ottawa. Decision.

A. Rankin, Edmonton, beat Coyne, Classics. Extra round.

—112-Pound Class—

Harry Turner, Montreal, beat Young, unattached. Decision.

Blain, Montreal, beat Simmons, Riversides. First round.

—135-Pound Class—

Chris Newton, Riversides, beat Geo. Smith, Montreal. Second round.

Geo. Wittichen, Calgary, beat E. Healey, Halifax. Second round.

—160-Pound Class—

Herscovitch, Montreal, beat McAdam, Halifax. Second round.

Prudholme, P.P.C.L.I., beat W. Mill, Montreal. Second round.

Tonight's Draw.

The final bouts in the Canadian Olympic competition will be held tonight at the arena, and immediately after the last contest the selection committee will choose the Antwerp team. The first bout will be called at 8.30. Ladies are cordially invited. There were several in attendance last night.

The draw for tonight:

—112-Pound Class—

Geo. Blain, National A.A., Montreal, vs. Harry Turner, Montreal A.A.A.

—118-Pound Class—

Percy Dubois, Ottawa, vs. Cliff Graham, Riversides, Toronto.

—126-Pound Class—

A. Rankin, Edmonton, vs. W. Newton, Riversides.

—135-Pound Class—

C. Newton, Riversides, vs. Geo. Wittichen, Calagry.

—147-Pound Class—

V. McKeown, Lachine A.C., Montreal, vs. Albert Schneider, Montreal.

—160-Pound Class—

Corp. Prudholme, Princess Pats, vs. M. H. Herscovitch, Montreal A.A.A.

—175-Pound Class—

P. Platt, Classics, Toronto, vs. A. McAdam, Halifax.

—Heavy—

C. McDoulton, Classics, vs. Saul Le Hale, Montreal.

CRICKET

GRACE CHURCH HERE.

On Varsity campus Saturday, a council game of cricket was played between Grace Church and St. Edmond's C.C., the former winning rather easily by 193 to 65. St. Edmonds, going to bat first, were all out for 65 runs. The highest score was made by J. W. Lambert for 28 by good cricket. C. Jones and A. Gardner, nine runs each, were the next highest scores.

Grace Church started their innings in lively fashion by getting runs quickly. They made the winning run with the loss of one wicket down. F. Mucklestone played a magnificent inning for his 104 runs. His free hitting was a pleasure to look at. He sent the ball to the boundary no less than eleven times (four runs each). All bowlers seemed alike to him. He was caught by a smart catch by C. Spooner in the slips. During his long inning he never gave a chance. C. Muckleston 13, M. M. Moyston 13, and Jack Hill 13, were the next in order, all hitting well for their respective scores.

In regard to the bowling, C. Groves and W. Delahanty, for the winners, bowled in their usual good form, as St. Edmonds could not do very much with their bowling, the former taking five wickets for 41, and the latter three for 19.

T. Cairney, for the losers, was best with the ball he taking five wickets for 44 runs. His last three overs were his best, he taking four wickets for two runs. The scores:

GREEN BEST BATSMAN.

The Albions defeated West Toronto at High Park on Saturday. Yaxley won the toss and sent Taylor and Wellman in, they played a good defensive game and took the score to 32 before Wellman was bowled by Bovell. Wakefield contributed 51, his score was made up of nine fours and three twos. Yaxley, 16, not out, was next best, their innings closed for 135. West Toronto, on going to bat, lost their first wicket for no runs; Yaxley making a splendid one-hand catch in the slips. Blackman's catch at cover was also a brilliant one when he disposed of Forestall. W. Green was the only one to show any form, and his 68 was made by playing a splendid innings. He drove the ball to the boundary ten times. The scores are as follows:

GRAND TRUNK AND KENTISH.

Kentish batted first, opening the innings with E. Wilkinson and H. Enderson. The first ball sent down by Vincent took the wicket of Wilkinson, but the umpire gave "no ball." (Hard luck, Vincent.) Enderson batted 30 minutes for 4 runs. Roe 9 and Wilkinson 6 were the best scorers for Kentish. Sutton clean bowled five Kentish men for 15 runs.

Grand Trunk followed with B. Leach and T. Naughton. The first wicket fell for 3 runs; second for 7, then Aiken and Davidson carried the score to 20, when Enderson got Aiken l.b.w. Davidson's batting was the feature of the innings, scoring 27 by good all round batting. P. Sutton with the (unlucky) 13 proved that the old saying is not true, the winning hit being made out of that number. Grand Trunk won by 24 runs.
