THE DAILY TRIBUNE claims the larges city circulation of any daily published in St. John.

Circuit Court.

Yesterday the Court was engaged with the Special Docket.

Muir et al vs Carmen, Guy et al vs Estey, and Domville vs Young, action of promissory notes were the first. In each case a verdict was returned for the Plaintiffs.

The other cases on the Special Docket were all settled yesterday, the majority being acknowledged by the defendants.

S. J. Golding and T. H. Vaughan vs T. G. and R. R. Allen, a Remanet, was the next case. This was to recover an amount due for goods supplied Norris Best by the Plaintiffs.

They claim that it was done on the order of the Defendants, who, however, repudiate the responsibility. The case occupied all yesterday afternoon and a part of this morning. A. L. Palmer, Esq., for the defence, twice asked for a nonsuit, which the Judge declined to grant. S R. Thomson, Esq., finished his address this morning, and the case went to the Jury. They had not returned a verdict at one o'clock.

Millidge vs. Leonard next came on. This suit is brought to recover a balance of over $1,700 which the plaintiff claims is owed by the defendant on a share in a vessel purchased by him. The arrangement was that one half cash was to be paid, and a note given for the balance, which was not given by Leonard. The suit is to recover the balance, which the defendants refuse to pay, as they say that Messrs. Dunn & Co. have a claim against the vessel that must be settled first by the plaintiff.

The Countess of Dufferin—Nannery's Comedy Company.

Temperance Hall was crowded on Saturday evening with a large and fashionable audience. The gallery was handsomely festooned around with evergreens, and in front of the seats reserved for the Countess and her friends, choice plants were placed. The stage also was decorated with plants and flowers, and over the proscenium the Dufferin coat of arms, with the motto "Straight Forward" was painted in a manner that reflects the highest credit on the artist. The old hall never looked so well before; bright lights and flowers, and handsome uniforms, and the elegant dresses of the ladies made quite a beautiful scene. At 8 Her Excellency the Countess of Dufferin and suite arrived, and the audience received her standing, while the orchestra played "God Save the Queen." The Countess remained until the close of the performance, and expressed herself highly pleased with it. The programme was the comedy of "Caste" and the farce of the "Quiet Family." We have previously noticed both pieces and on Saturday they were rendered better than on the first occasion We have never witnessed a prettier picture on the stage than the closing scene in "Caste."—Hx. Reporter, 18th.

Exhaustion and degeneration follow the excessive use of the senses, without due intervals of rest for repair. In order to maintain the wonted energy, the force expended, whether of body or mind, must be restored. When the expenditure of brain matter and other nervous elements is continued by overwork, the early extinction of life itself may be looked for as the result of such degeneration. The ingredients composing Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites are such as constitute healthy blood, re-establish sound nerves and senses, and will, consequently, not only prevent this exhaustion, but in most cases restore such as is lost.
