COUNTY COUNCIL HOLD OVER WOODCOCK CHARGES

Matter to Come Up on Thursday —Junction Fire Chief Anxious ---County News.

Reeve J. D. Evans of Etobicoke at yesterday's meeting of the York county council made a strong plea for the appointment of Judge Winchester with respect to the grave irregularities charged against Police Magistrate Woodcock of Newmarket, but was unsuccessful in getting the matter under weigh.

Appointment Was Provincial.

In the outset Mr. Evans cited the opinion of Solicitor Lennox in which the latter advised that the appointment of Police Magistrate Woodcock being provincial in its nature, council had no jurisdiction in the matter. Mr. Lennox, however, advised that an appointment could be made, and the government asked to confirm it.

Mr. Evans' resolution in detail was "That in the interests of good government in this county and under the authority of Sec. 324 of the Municipal Act, his honor Judge Winchester, county judge of the County of York, be requested to make a thoro investigation into the receipt and disposition of all fines and fees imposed or intended so to be and other moneys received or collected in connection with the administration of criminal justice by police magistrates, justices of the peace, and county constables in the said county or in or to which this municipality is or may be interested or entitled, and also as to all moneys charged to the said municipality by the said persons or any of them in so far as he may consider it necessary or advisable in the public interest and to report to this council with all convenient speed the result of said investigation and the evidence taken thereon, together with recommendations he may deem it necessary or desirable to make."

Evans Urges Action.

Speaking of his motion Mr. Evans declared that the charges were of too grave a nature to be passed over in silence, that the county council as a body were not in a position to probe into the matter, and in justice to the members themselves and the county at large, a full, complete, and exhaustive examination should be made, not in the spirit of animosity, but as desiring to arrive at the truth of the whole matter.

Reeve Henry of York Township voiced the sentiments of Mr. Evans with respect to a thoro investigation, but favored another than Judge Winchester, as the latter had already pronounced adversily upon the whole matter.

Right to Investigate.

Reeve Nimmo, East Toronto, favored a complete investigation, "We ought to be masters of the situation," said Mr. Nimmo, "and no official has any right to be offended if we demand an investigation into his accounts.

Warden Baker was favorable to a complete investigation into the whole matter, but wholly disapproved of the matter being deputed to the members of the council. "If you undertake to make this council a court of enquiry you will have enough to do. Make it thoro," said the warden.,

Reeve Wm. Keith of Newmarket was not anxious for an investigation, at least for the present.

"Magistrate Woodcock states that he can explain away the charges," said Mr. Keith, let us hear him before we take any action in the matter."

In this he was supported by Reeve R. J. Coulson of Stouffville, and Reeve Dr. Irwin of Weston, the latter of whom stated that it was only British fair play to give the accused a hearing before relegating the matter to the courts.

Reeve Moore of East Gwillimbury favored the submission of the whole matter to the government with a request for the appointment of an investigator.

Matter is Laid Over

On motion of Deputy Reeve Brown of East Toronto, and with the concurrence of Mr. Evans, the matter was held over until Thursday afternoon.

In the interval it is expected that Magistrate Woodcock will appear before the council and endeavour to explain away the charges, made against him by his honor, Judge Winchester, to the satisfaction of the members.

Plain Talk From the Doctor

A prominent physician, famous for his success in the treatment of kidney and bladder troubles, stated that to the following prescription is due a great deal of his success:

One ounce fluid extract of dandelion;
One ounce compound zalatone;
Four ounces compound syrup sarsaparilla.

Mix and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime, drinking plenty of water.

This mixture will, he says, positively cure any diseases arising from weak, clogged or inactive kidneys, and will assist these organs to cleanse the blood of the poisonous waste matter and acids, which, if allowed to remain, cause lumbago, lame back, rheumatism and sciatica, and at the same time will restore the kidneys to healthy normal action. The ingredients, which are purely vegetable and entirely harmless, can be procured from any good druggist and mixed at home at very little cost.

This advice will undoubtedly be much appreciated by many readers.

The result of this action on the part of the accused remains to be seen.

Takes Judge to Task.

Police Magistrate Woodcock yesterday forwarded to County Clerk Ramsden a lengthy communication reiterating in detail his denial of the charges contained in the report submitted by Judge Winchester, and which was read prior to the submission of the resolution by Councillor Evans. The communication reads:

"I observe by a morning newspaper of this morning, that his Honor Judge Winchester has sent in a report to the council respecting county constables' accounts, and no doubt other matters. I have been one of the board of audit for several years, and during that time I have never seen any reason for taking the evidence of constables under oath. True, there have been errors, and in some cases overcharges, but there never was any difficulty about getting them to explain the errors without taking their evidence under oath. Nor have I ever had $10 deducted by the government auditor from the whole quarter's constables' accounts in any one instance that I can recall, showing that the accounts must have been nearly correct.

Judge as Censor.

"Since the board of audit rose, that is Mr. Pugsley and myself, the judge, as censor, has had nearly every county constable (as I am informed) before him and taken their statements. Do you believe that they deliberately lied to him? One would come to the conclusion that his honor thought so, otherwise why does he want authority to take their evidence under oath?

"There is a terrible lot of fault-finding about the taxation constables' accounts have undergone, and the constables themselves intend to ask that such of their accounts as have been slaughtered or chopped in two by his honor's battle-ax be referred to a committee of the whole council, or a special committee, and let the county solicitor be there to advise on the law, and they themselves have an opportunity of explaining any matter that may need explanation.

"I am given to understand that I may be required to give some explanation as to matters coming under my purview as police magistrate, or as county councillor, acting as justice of the peace. If so, I am ready any day to go before a committee of my judges, namely, the county council or the attorney-general. But his honor has no more authority to go over my accounts or look into any supposed irregularity than any private individual. My appointment comes from the attorney-general's department, to whom I am responsible for any misdeeds. The money that comes thru my hands belongs to the local municipalities, the county or the government, and to them I am prepared to account if there is any reason for a judicial enquiry. After you have the matters referred to in Judge Winchester's report explained, then by all means let there be one. But not before you have heard the matters complained of explained before the council or a committee thereof."—T. J. Woodcock.

NORTH TORONTO.

St. Clement's Church Have Delightful Social Evening in New Annex.

NORTH TORONTO, Nov. 26.—The festival in connection with the opening of the new nave of St. Clement's Church was continued this evening by a parish at home. The congregation turned out in force, in spite of the inclement weather, to spend the evening in the new building in social intercourse. After an hour's free and easy, a short program was rendered and it fell to the lot of H. Waddington, the rector's warden, to sing the first solo in public in this new building. Others who took part in the program were: Miss W. Bouldon, Miss Atkins, Mrs. Ussher, Mrs. B. Lawrence and Miss Thorn.

The rector, Rev. T. W. Powell, made a short speech, reviewing the progress and history of the new building, and saying that it was felt that the church should be enlarged. Tenders were asked for, but the lowest tender for the original idea of enlarging the church was $12,000, which was beyond the means of the congregation, considering the seating capacity would only be increased by 100. Instead of giving the contract to one man the contract was let to different mechanics, all members of the congregation. Altho this new annex is larger than the original church, the cost of labor and material more expensive, the new building only cost $4200, or $500 more than the original church.

The mortgage remaining is only $2700, which Mr. Powell thought the congregation would wipe off in two years. He paid a high tribute to the faithful work of his building and finance committee. The whole church property is now valued at $35,000, while only $6300 of a mortgage remains on the new church building, rectory and play grounds.

After the impromptu entertainment refreshments were served by the ladies of the congregation.

Sherwood Lodge, No. 70, S. O. S., held a pleasant smoking concert tonight in the dining room of the Masonic Lodge. Bro. Olney, the president, presided. An impromptu entertainment was given.

Councillor S. J. Douglas has left on a three weeks' business trip to Winnipeg and other western points.

Charles Bonnick, a former resident of the town, gave an interesting talk on missions at the Davisville Epworth League last night. Miss Shorey of Avenue-road Methodist Church contributed several solos.

The evangelistic services held in the Eglinton Methodist Church nightly this week by the Rev. W. A. Rockwell, evangelist, are well attended.

TORONTO JUNCTION.

Fine Budget of News From Parts of the Big Town.

TORONTO JUNCTION, Nov. 26.—The paving of Dundas-street east of Keele-street is decidedly drawing to a close. Contractor Dill stated to-day that the entire distance from Keele-st. to Humberside-avenue, with all tracks in position, would be completed in three days. The replacing of the switch at Humberside caused considerable trouble, as the intersections could not be made to meet properly, but today the work was finished satisfactorily and the tracks are in position. There only remains now to change the overhead wires, as the tracks are not in the same position in the street as they were before being torn up. It will then remain for Manager Fleming to run the cars to Keele-st. again, but the town officials are doubtful what his response will be. "He has never yet replied to a single communication that the town has sent him," said a councillor to-night. "It is absolutely impossible to get any satisfaction from Mr. Fleming." However, the general opinion is that the cars will resume the old route to Keele-street in a few days, when all obstructions have been removed.

More Light Needed.

The chief topic of discussion at tonight's meeting of the fire, light and property committee was the subject of street lighting. There are at present 125 lights in use in the town, but from all indications the supply is not equal to the demand.

Messrs. Miller and Inman made an application to have a light put on Central-avenue, off Willoughby-avenue. There is not a light on the street and a sidewalk only on one side of the street. There was also application for a light on Gilmour-avenue, south of the crescent near the residence of ex-Mayor Peter Laughton. A motion was proposed by Councillors Sheppard and Chapman to have the lights installed as soon as the superintendent can procure them.

Gunns, Limited, asked for a light at the corner of Albany-road and St. Clair-avenue. Supt. Hardy was instructed to look into the matter to see if a light was needed at the place mentioned.

Supt. Hardy complained that the lights were not lit in the evenings till about an hour after darkness had set in. In connection with this matter Councillor Bull called up Mr. Stark over the phone, and the latter replied that the light and power supply for the town would be all that could be desired. Mr. Stark stated that the liquidation of the company would not have the slightest effect on the light, power, or telephone service.

Chief Wants Fire Engine.

The fire chief's report to-night caused some uneasiness among the members of the committee lest the town may be saddled with extra expenses which, nevertheless, are absolutely necessary. "In view of the fact," said the report, "that the population of Toronto Junction has increased so much of late, I would recommend that a fire engine service be installed, as with the strain on the waterworks at present, caused by supplying so many factories, a totally deficient stream is obtainable to cope with a fire of any proportions." The report also stated that the firehall appliances and apparatus were deficient and recommendations were made for necessary improvements amounting to $800. The recommendations were adopted.

A motion was proposed by Councillors Chapman and Sheppard, that the name of the street now known as Weston-road south be changed to Lozier-avenue, in honor of H. A. Lozier, the founder of the Cleveland bicycle works, which are now known as the Canada Cycle and Motor Co. The name of this street has been the cause of a lot of trouble to people unacquainted with the town, and the committee were unanimous in their recommendation to have the council change it as proposed.

Gunns, Limited, put in a claim to the town council for repairs to one of their wagans, which was damaged in a collision with the ladder truck. The matter was referred to the claims committee.

Councillor Bull recommended that steps be taken immediately to compel the Union Stock Yards Co. to replace the sidewalk on St. Clair-avenue, which was torn up when their houses were removed from the yards some years ago, across St. Clair-avenue. "We can get no satisfaction from the manager of the stock yards," said Councillor Bull. "He has been jollying us along with promises for the past three or four years."

Had Narrow Escape.

Councillor Shephard of Weston-avenue and his wife and family narrowly escaped asphyxiation by coal gas last night. The furnace had not been properly atended to when the heat was shut off, consequently all the occupants of the house are suffering today from headache and general debility. Luckily several of the windows thru the house had been raised before the family retired, otherwise the result might have been serious.

Councillor Shephard stated to-night definitely that he would not be a candidate for next year's council. "There's too much night work,' said he, "and I can't find time to attend the meetings."

W. J. McCullough, grocer, at 18 West Dundas-street, will move his store next week to the premises lately occupied by Mr. Frymire, adjoining the Bank of British North America. He has bought the entire stock of Mr. Frymire's grocery store.

Miss Cora Aldrich of Toledo, Ohio, is visiting her cousin, Miss Deedie Smyth, 126 Maria-street, and intends to extend the visit till after Christmas.

MIMICO.

Venerable Resident of Mimico is Buried at Dixie.

MIMICO, Nov. 26.—(Special.)—One of the largest gatherings ever seen in Mimico was that of yesterday, when the remains of the late Charles F. Caven were removed to the Methodist Church at Islington and later to Dixie for interment. Mr. Caven had suffered for some time with an affection of the stomach and last Friday underwent an operation at the General Hospital, but passed away the same evening, surrounded by the members of his family. Mr. and Mrs. Caven had been united in marriage more than thirty years, and the greatest sympathy generally is expressed thruout the village and township at the loss of so good a neighbor and citizen. Mr. Caven is survived by a widow, two daughters and one son. The daughters are: Mrs. Marshall, and Mabel, at home. The floral offerings were especially beautiful and testified in some slight measure to the love and esteem in which the deceased was held.
