Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

CHOICE PLANTS, to arrive on Saturday at Carmichael Bros.

THAT CAKE is not aired so often now, but it will be found in Contingent Account at Fredericton.

DRESS-MAKING.—Attention is directed to Mrs. James Cormack's Dressmaking advertisement. From what we hear of Mrs. Cormack we believe that she deserves a large share of patronage.

THE "HERALD."—Of St. John has joined the Tory Crusade against the Governor-General. It won't hurt him, however. A flea may alight on the nose of a king.

REFORMED EPISCOPAL CHURCH.—Services will be held in the Reformed Episcopal Church in the morning and afternoon, at the usual hours, on Sunday next. June 15th by the Rev. J. Eastburne Brown of Moncton.

SCHOOL ACCOMMODATION:—The people living on Chaplin's Island Road between Newcastle and the mill stream, are complaining bitterly because they are not provided with school accomodation.

A GREAT OCCASION:—An event of great local interest—the Festival and Picnic at Nelson on next Thursday—is advertised in another column. We are quite sure that Miramichi people of all classes and creds will join in doing honor to the Venerable Vicar-General Egan.

PROPERTY SALE:—Thomas W. Wood, Esq., Inspector of schools for Kent has sold his cottage with land and outbuildings, situated in Richibucto Town, to Capt. William Palmer, of Barque "Unity." The price paid is said to be $900.

A FORTUNE:—Our Richibucto correspondent says that Mr. Robert Law son of Rev. James Law, has received intelligence from England that by the death of an uncle he becomes the owner of a large fortune and it is not improbable that Robert will take a trip to the "Old Country" to look after his property.

"SHOO, FLY," was the reply of General Butler to a very pretentious speech against him by "Sunset" Cox of New York in Congress, and the St. John Freeman does not say even that much to the little Herald, which attacks it venomously on the Vice-Chancellor Blake matter. The Freeman is right.

A BAZAAR will be held in the Masonic Hall Richibucto, on Tuesday 24th inst by the ladies belonging to the Presbyterian body of that town. The object is to raise funds to go towards building a Manse. The affair is in the hands of an energetic committee, and promises to be quite a success.

DO WE understand the Advocate to deny authoritatively that one of its editors received $100 belonging the By-Road fund of Northumberland a few years ago for services as reporter in Fredericton? We do not wish to go into particulars unnecessarily, but will not be flatly contradicted in this matter.

MOUNT ALLISON.—Rev. C. H. Paisley, A. M., of Woodstock, has been elected by the Board of Governors of the Mount Allison Institutions to the Principalship of the Male Academy, rendered vacant by the resignation of the Rev. Principal Longley. J. B. Snowball, Esq, M. P. has elected Vice President of the Alumni Society of Mount Allison.

NEWCASTLE METHODIST CHURCH:—The interior of the Methodist Church, Newcastle, has just been painted by Mr. Hall. The ceiling is of a deep blue, the walls are salmon color and the seats are grained in imitation of Oak with Walnut trimmings. The whole of the painting is varnished to such a degree that all the imperfections in the plastering are made to appear. The only attempt at decoration is an imitation of a Dutch tile stenciled on the ceiling near the angles. Other improvements and alterations have also been made consisting principally in extending the Communion Rail across the full width of the Church.

ANOTHER WAY:—It has become a practice with some persons, in addressing correspondence for transmission through the mails, to write first the name of the place to which they wish a letter or paper to go and the address of the person for whom it is intended, last. Thus, our subscribers in remitting money (and if some of them postpone the duty much longer our attorney will address them), or our correspondents might address their favors as follows:—

CHATHAM, N. B.
EDITOR MIRAMICHI ADVANCE.

The above style of address is most convenient, especially when the matter has to pass through several post offices.

TROUTING IN THE NORTH.—We are indebted to friends in Gloucester for some splendid specimens of the trout that now reward the sportsmen in our northern counties. For one of the parcels sent to us, we are indebted to John W. Nicholson, Esq., as the medium of communication. The first are very fine and such a sportsman, who will establish himself at the Wilburn House, Bathurst, may catch in great numbers at adjacent streams. There the angler will escape the fogs of the Bay of Fundy and may possibly forget for a time even the latest developments of the National Policy. He can live very cheaply among a kind and hospitable people and when he wants to drive any where, he can do so at moderate cost. Shortly the salmon fishing will be in full blast, when the fortunate lessees of well selected salmon rivers can enjoy no end of sport. There ought to be a great rush of travel to the Gulf Counties this season.—Tel.

THE NEWCASTLE FIREMEN have decided to have a Pic-nic and Excursion on Dominion day, and have engaged the Andover for the purpose. A delegation of the Firewards met with the company last week and promised their aid and co-operation. The Committee consists of Messrs. Morrisey (the Captain), W. T. Miller, W. H. Buck, R. Fairman, J, D. Creighan, J. B. Russel, R. H. Gremley, Wm. Murray, A. W. Perley, P. Wheeler, F. Peters, T. J. M'Ewan, W. Fenn and H. E. Parker. The picnic will be held at Bartibogue. Tickets will be sold at $1.00 which will admit a lady and gentleman. This Picnic ought to be very largely patronized, for several reasons. One is because it will offer an excellent opportunity for a very pleasant Excursion; another, because the Firemen deserve to be encouraged in their efforts to perfect an already efficient and important organization and another, because those interested have not done all their duty in promoting the company's interests in the past. Chatham will, doubtless, contribute a good contingent of excursionists on the occasion.

Entertainment of the Dutcher Reformers.

On Tuesday evening the Dutcher Reformers gave their weekly entertainment in the Masonic Hall. The chair was occupied by William Anderson, Esq., Prest. and the meeting was opened with prayer by the Rev. Dr. Jardine. Addresses were delivered by the Rev. Dr. Jardine, Messrs. William Sinclair, and Robert Blake. Recitations by Miss Craig and Masters LeBaron Shirreff and Clifford Wyse. Dialogue by Misses B. Pierce Florence Kelly, Ethel Benson, Aggie Anderson and Masters Ernest Murray and Harry Shirreff. Instrumental music by Misses F. Kelly and E. Benson, Duet by Misses Vaughan and A. Shirreff, Solo by Capt. Brown. Trio by Miss Kate Gillies, Henry Patterson and D. Chessman Choruses by the choir. Signers to the pledge were called for during the evening, and the proceedings concluded with the National Anthem.

For Builders and Agriculturists.

Of the New Albert Lime, advertised in another column, the Times says:—We are pleased to learn that the lime manufactured by the Albert Brick, Lime, and Cement Company, whose enterprise we have previously noted, is rapidly finding its way into different parts of the Provinces and is coming to be largely used not only for building purposes, but also as a fertilizer. Containing 10 per cent. of phosphate, as ascertained and vouched for by undoubted authority, it need only to be tested by agriculturists in order that its great merit may be appreciated. Unquestionably it is destined to be regarded as the very best available fertilizer of its class in these Provinces. For architectural purposes also it ranks very high and has won the approbation of Mr. Stead, the Government architect, and other competent authorities. We are glad to know that the Company are now manufacturing on a large scale and pushing their enterprise with great energy, They must eventually find an extensive market and a profitable business. We commend this lime to the attention of both agriculturists and builders, confident that they will find it in all respects worthy of the high character that chemists, analysts and others have given it."

Notes from Carleton Station, I. C. R.

MR. EDITOR:—Knowing you take a lively interest in the progress of our settlements, I take the liberty of informing the public, through your valuable journal, of the improvements being made at and about Carleton Station and vicinity. A number of comfortable buildings have been erected, and among them a fine two storey building (convenient to the Station) intended as an Hotel for the accommodation of the travelling public. Mr. Miller, Merchant, is doing a thriving business, and by his gentlemanly and obliging manner is much esteemed by the settlers.

Mr. Donald Buckley's saw and grist mill is in working order and is at present sawing boards. It is an advantage to the settlers generally.

Mr. Buckley is a practical miller and will, without doubt, be successful. His mill is about a mile from the station. The Government has granted a sum of money for the making of a road (which has been sold by Mr. Thomas Doolan Supervisor) running from the I. C. R. to the mill, and extending about half a mile beyond. The money expended on the road will enable the settlers (who have taken land under the Free Grants Act) to support their families while the crops are growing. Yours, X.

[The above Settlement needs better road facilities than it now has or is likely to get for some time. We hear of a number of apportionments of public money to roads which are said to be almost private roads—being made for the sole benefit of individuals—and the list we publish today bears evidence of the fact. It is well that private roads should be made in special cases, when it can be done without detriment to the interests of our new settlements, but those acquainted with the subject will realise that the public have, in some cases, been slighted in order that certain political favorites might be served. The Settlement above referred to has not received the money it ought to have had apportioned to it. The reason may be that it is not a large voting centre. It needs aid in providing school accomodation, also, and should receive a share of the "poor district" fund.—[EDITOR.]

Kent County Notes.

Messrs. John & Thomas Jardine launched from their shipyard, on the Richibucto River, on Saturday, 31st ult., a vessel barque rigged of 804 tons register, named Boroma. Like the Tikoma Wacissa Ponema and several other vessels built by this enterprising firm, the Boroma combines superior sailing qualities with fine carrying capacity. This makes the forty-second vessel built by the above firm, who purpose, shortly, laying the keel of another Capt. Thomas M. Brown, a brother of the well known ship-builder of Weldford, will be commander of the Boroma.

LEG BROKEN.—Mr. James Thompson of Richibucto, had the misfortune to break his left leg on Saturday last, while in a boat near the entrance to Richibucto harbor. Some hours elapsed before he could be removed to town for medical aid. At latest advices Mr. Thompson was doing as well as could be expected under the painful circumstances.

United in Marriage.

A pleasant event was witnessed last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Oliver, on Market Street, this city, the occasion being the marriage of their daughter Rose to Mr. A. W. Patterson. The nuptial ceremony was performed by the Rev. Cyrus Hamlin, pastor of the Center street Congregational church of this city. A large company of invited friends were present to witness the marriage obligation, which was solemnized at the hour of 8 o'clock, and to congratulate the contracting parties upon entering the blissful and angelic state of matrimony. The bride was neatly and richly dressed and presented an attractive appearance. The groom exhibited himself to good advantage in a black suit, and his face looked the very picture of happiness and joy. The wedded couple are by no means strangers to the readers of THE GLOBE. Miss Oliver was one of the most popular as well as one of the most talented young ladies of our city, and was quite a favorite in Council Bluffs society circles. Mr. Patterson is a young gentleman highly esteemed by everyone to whom he is known. He has been for some time superintendent of Mr. J. T. Stewart's packing establishment in this city, and by close attention to business, always looking to the interests of his employer, has made himself very popular as a thoroughgoing business young man. THE GLOBE, in company with the young couple's many warm friends, offers its congratulations and predicts for them a life full of happiness, comfort and prosperity. At the conclusion of the marriage and congratulations of the wedded couple by friends present, the large company were invited to the collation spread for the occasion. The bride and the groom were the recipients of numerous and costly presents from near relatives and dear friends, among which we are permitted to notice the following:

Movements of a Great Man.

A correspondent sends us the following which, he says must have been intended for publication in some Miramichi paper. We hardly think the writer intended it for the ADVANCE. It much more resembles letters we have seen in the Advocate. However, we make room for it, as the author, even if he intended it for the shiretown paper will not object to its having a wider circulation than that hightoned and classical journal could give it:

GOOSE CREEK, May 29th.

To the Editors of the——

The Honorable Jack Straw, General Surveyor, arrived at Goose Creek on Monday night, after sustaining the fatigue of two days' travel. His arrival caused no little stir among us, as was attested by the scattering of the sheep off the highway one of which got jammed in Mr. Brown's bars and was released by the distinguished visitor in the most condescending manner. After shaking hands with a Scotchman and partaking of some supper, consisting of ham and eggs and tea, in which was some excellent milk, the hon. gentleman went out to the door and enjoyed a smoke while Mrs. Brown washed the dishes. The hon. gentleman shook hands with three men, and a Scotchman before going to bed and passed a quiet night. Next day he walked two miles, in order to become personally acquainted with the settlers and their requirements and ascertain whether they would vote for him at the next election. He shook hands with several persons during the day. He shook hands with a Scotchman. The Scotchman was hearty and told him he was so pleased with what was done to McDougall that he would vote for him every time and sometimes twice and so would "his uncles and his cousins and his aunts." The hon. gentleman gave the settlers advice about building their houses, telling them that they were in the habit of laying the courses of shingles too far apart on the joists of the gable ends, while they entirely ignored Blackstone's authority in the matter of attachments. He explained that wooden wainscoting fitted snugly in the corners of the ridge-pole and held in place by a screw augur mortgage was the correct thing for the prevention of drafts and beneficial to the health of the dear children, whom he always loved to kiss. He also suggested that turnips and potatoes would keep much better during winter if the rafters of the cellar floor were covered with paper duly sworn to and executed as required by law in such case made and provided. The poor people were really astonished at his exhaustive knowledge of building. He shook hands again all round—and especially with the Scotchman. After another long journey he inspected a bridge which he pronounced the best in the world—of its kind. He said it was, undoubtedly, the best on the Southwest River and, certainly, very far ahead of anything on the Northwest—especially the Northwest bridge that everyone interested in was lauding to the skies. He assured Mr. Turncoat that whatever he might say in Newcastle he had his own opinion of the Northwest Bridge and of its positive inferiority when compared with this magnificent structure over the Southwest.

The hon. gentleman went to some other places and condescended to allow some of the ordinary people to shake hands with him. He says he likes the Scotch—always liked them—has sacrificed much to please them and hopes they will stick to him. He is very off-handed and makes jokes although the "expression of his eyes" indicates pious habits. He, no doubt, means business and will make a conscientious effort to get through a large sum for travelling expenses. A (ss).

Correspondence.

A Ludlow Seizure.

LUDLOW, June 9, 1879.

To the Editor of the Miramichi Advance.

SIR:—I would like you to give me some information regarding the law relating to seizures under the Fisheries Act. Last season Mr. Samuel Freeze, Fishery Overseer, seized a lot of nets, some belonging to me and some to other fishermen, most of them being good, new nets, the others, inferior ones. This spring he advertised the nets seized for sale. I attended the sale, thinking I would have a chance to bid in my nets, but it was only the inferior ones that were sold. The good nets were all kept back and not offered for sale.

Has Mr. Freeze a right to keep these back and not offer them for sale? It is reported that he has parties fishing these good nets on the shares, but I cannot credit this story, as I believe Mr. Freeze ought to be too honorable than to do this. There may be justice in his course in this matter, but no fair play, Yours truly,

FISHERMAN.

[Without knowing whether our correspondent is exactly correct in his statement of facts, we may say that unless ordered to do so by the Department, it is illegal for a fishery officer to retain nets seized for contravention of the Fisheries Act, in his possession. They should be sold within a reasonable time by public auction or, if of illegal mesh, destroyed.

On the Northwest river it is known that fishery officers under the direction of the Inspector have used a confiscated seine for the purpose of sweeping the salmon pools to obtain breeding fish for the hatchery—the Department paying the highest rates for these services and quite as much as if the men and seine were hired specially for the occasion. If Mr. Freeze has proceeded correctly in the matter referred to by "Fisherman" it is not because he has had good examples set before him by his superiors. We know that some crooked seizure transactions did take place in Ludlow in Sept. last, which will have attention in due time, when it may be in order to show that all the partizan officials have not yet been dismissed. EDITOR.]

What They Think at Tabusintac.

TABUSINTAC, June 3rd, 1879.

Mr. Editor:—The people in this section of the County are close observers of the administration of the Dominion Government so far as it can be known to them, and they ought to be especially well-informed in reference to such adminstration when it affects their own immediate interests. It will not be a matter of surprise, also, if they measure the adminstration in all its departments by those parts of it of which they are the most competent judges—viz., those affecting their own home affairs. We had been led by some remarks of the ADVANCE, a few months ago, to entertain the hope that the new Minister of Fisheries would act justly in adminstering his office, but are disappointed. We have the proof of his wrong doing here, in Tabusintac, as you must know, and as they have it elsewhere in the County.

It is difficult to understand the Advocate's motives for aiding in and approving of the deliberate injustice that is being worked upon us to please a few disappointed politicans, but it seems that paper must do as it is directed, even though its editors are sensible of the fact that the people are crying out, shame upon it. I would like to know what man, who is independent and wishes to see public affairs managed in a proper way, can respect that paper when it boasts of Peter Mitchell's influence in securing a number of the late dismissals from office?—dismissals of men far more decent and worthy than himself, and whose chief fau't is that they have displayed an independence which those connected with the Advocate never dared to exercise, however much they might have so desired. These dismissed men were inefficient! So says Mr. Pope at the bidding of a man who himself has been rejected by this County for inefficiency. Take for instance, William Blake, who is stigmatized by Mr. Pope as inefficient. When Peter Mitchell was neglecting the County's interests for five years, and doing all in his power to harass the fishermen in order that Mr. Smith's administration might be made unpopular, when he was living in Montreal and doing the work of a political hack for the Protectionists, William Blake was endeavoring, in his humble way down here in Northumberland, to do his duty. We had two other officers in this parish, Messrs. Robichaud and Stymiest, who were and are as inefficient as Mr. Mitchell was of late in his sphere, but while they were asleep in their beds, or turning a blind side to violations of the law, Mr. Blake was lying out night after night, especially in the fall of the year, watching the salmon spawning grounds to protect them from poachers. Now, the Advocate calls upon the people of the County to approve of Mr. Mitchell securing the dismissal of good men while the notoriously inefficient are left to sleep on in official ease. We believe our present Representative spoke the exact truth on the floors of Parliament when he said these officers were an imposition on the public. The Advocate has had a great deal to say about Sir A. J. Smith being a political partizan, but we are of the opinion that the term would very suitably apply to the present Minister when he stoops to such mean, paltry acts as these. The Advocate also says the present Minister of Marine and Fisheries is a great fellow; he is neither lazy nor incompetent. Well, we will suppose they know about as much in that matter as they seem to know about everything else. They may rest assured that the people know practical common sense from humbug and that they are fast opening their eyes to the true policy of a gang of politicians who ruled Northumberland far too long. Fortunately, we are not dependent on the few paltry offices which any Government may have to bestow, nor do we care who the individuals are who may hold them, so long as the public are honestly served in return for their money When I write thus I feel that my words are endorsed by nine-tenths of the people who live hereabouts, and it is a satisfaction to know that, the days of the politicians who used to gain favor by the brandy-bottle and great promises, are numbered. The Advocate was created by and has followed the fortunes of that party. It, no doubt, feels that it has gone too far in assisting the work of its party, whose motto has been "self first and the public next—if convenient," but it is determined, like its master, to show its venom till the last. I write only to express the sentiment I find predominating in Alnwick and to assure the friends of honest Government that we are not blind to the partizanship of our present rulers nor indifferent witnesses of the doings of persons who are endeavoring to malign and injure those who cannot either respect or support them. In conclusion, I may say it is our hope that "when the tide turns" justice will take place.

Truly yours, TRUTH.

Portage Island Fisheries.

LOWER NEWCASTLE, June 10th 1879.

To the Editor of the Miramichi Advance:

SIR:—Can you inform me how it occurred that the petition sent to the Department in 1877, praying for a better regulation of the salmon fishing at the mouth of the Miamichi river, particularly at the head of Portage Island appeared in the ADVANCE and Advocate in may last without having all the signers from Point aux car to Chatham attached thereto? By answering the above you will oblige

A SUBSCRIBER.

[We may say that we published only what the Inspector gave us through the Sun. If he suppressed any names the fault is not ours.—EDITOR.]

If any of the readers of this paper are growing deaf, let them get at once a bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. Rub well behind the ears and put a little into the ear with a feather.

It would seem that the commonest kind of common sense ought to prevent a man from buying trash, simply because he can get a big pack for 25 cents. Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders are strictly pure, and are worth a barrel of such stuff.

A Word to Doubters.

There is a good old English maxim that teaches us to "believe every man honest until we know him to be a villain" American custom seems to have reversed this law and appears to make every man a villain until he has proved himself an honest man. As with people, so with things. Every article placed in our markets can lay claim to popular favor upon intrinsic merit and value alone. Continued popularity, therefore, is proof positive of intrinsic excellence. Dr. Pierce's Family Remedies are far more popular today than ever before. The people have tested them and know them to be genuine remedies for the diseases they are recommended to cure. The Golden Medical Discovery and Purgative Pellets are the best alterative, tonic, and cathartic remedies that can be used in chronic diseases of the stomach and liver. The world wide popularity of the Favourite Prescription, as a never-failing remedy for Female Diseases, would have alone secured to its discoverer the fame he has so richly won. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, of which Dr. Pierce is also proprietor, is recommended by those who have tested its virtue as a safe and reliable remedy for catarrh in its worst forms.

An Undeniable Truth.

You deserve to suffer, and if you lead a miserable, unsatisfactory life in this beautiful world, it is entirely you own fault and there is only one excuse for you,—your unreasonable prejudice and skepticism, which has killed thousands. Personal knowledge and common sense reasoning will soon show you that GREEN'S August Flower will cure you of Liver complaint, or Dyspepsia, with all its miserable effects such as sick headache, palpitation of the heart, sour stomach, habitual costiveness, dizziness of the head, nervous prostration, low spirits, &c. Its sale now reaches every town on the Western Continent and not a Druggist but will tell you of its wonderful cures. You can buy a Sample Bottle for 10 cents. Three doses will relieve you.

INVALIDS, do you wish to gather flesh, to acquire an appetite, to enjoy a regular habit of body, to obtain refreshing sleep, to feel and know that every fibre and tissue of your system is being braced and renovated? If so, commence at once and use the Quinine Wine prepared by Northrop & Lyman of Toronto and in a short time you will feel the whole system invigorated and strengthened. It is a well-known fact that Quinine has been acknowledged by the medical faculty for many years as the best appetizer and tonic known. And for general debility, this combination will be found superior to all other preparations. And combined as it is with fine sherry wine and choice aromatics, it is made an agreeable and pleasant invigorator to the whole system. The properties of Quinine are a febrifuge tonic and antiperiodic. Small dozes, frequently repeated, strengthen the pulse, increase muscular force, and invigorate the tone of the nervous system. The peculiar opperation of this medicine in general debility and as an appetizer, has undergone long and close observation, and it is believed it will never fail, if properly and judiciously administered, unless other diseases predominate of a different character. Persons of weak constitution may take it without the least difficulty, as it strengthens the stomach and digestive organs, and seldom require more than one or two bottles to effect a decided benefit, as it contains nothing injurious to the most delicate constitution. Remember to ask for the "Quinine Wine prepared by Northrop & Lyman, Toronto," and we are sure you will be satisfied that you have full value for your money.

Sold by all Medicine Dealers.
