

To all the brave men and women, humble or learned, who have had the moral courage during seventy years to face ridicule or worldly disad-vantage in order to testify to an all-important truth

March, 1918