Crown Unwilling To Pay for Analysis of Blood Stains on Finton's Overalls.

HAMILTON, Sept. 21 .- (Special.)-The Hamilton newspapermen entertained representatives from the Toronto newspapers, board of control and city council here to-day. The Toronto party were met at the station on their arrival and first of all taken for a trip around the city in automobiles. After this a baseball game was played at Britannia Park, which the Toronto team won. There was a party at the Royal Hotel in the evening, at which speeches were delivered by Mayor Mc-

Laren, Controller Foster of Toronto, Ald. McGuire, Joe Thompson and Ald. McCausland. W. J. McNair occupied the chair, and acted as toastmaster.

The story from Beamsville that an ax had been found near the farm on which Elijah S. Finton was murdered last spring, has been contradicted by the crown authorities. It was learned to-day that the crown authorities are unwilling to put up the $300 necessary to have the blood stains found on the overalls discovered in the room of Tom Finton, the young man accused of the murder, tested by the serum process. murder, tested by the serum process. Arthur Newton, counsel for the prisoners, said he would reserve his defence until the trial proper was held.

The inquest into the death of the person, parts of whose body were unearthed in the cellar of the Crippen home in Hilldrop -crescent, has not been ended, and another session of the court will be held next Monday. The court will be held next Monday. The parts found were of the body of Belle Elmore; but its medical experts have not been able to swear positively respected to March 12 last, recited a conversation which she had had with her lodger, which indicated the girl expected to marry Crippen after his wife had left him.
