New York Horse Show Without Canadians

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—New faces and old faces will make the ring at Madison Square Garden during the exhibition of the American Horse Show from Dec. 7 to 12 an interesting sight. The full list of entries will not be ready for several days. The investigation in the affairs of the Rock Island Road is one of the reasons why W. H. Moore has not entered, and the other notable absentee, A. G. Vanderbilt, is understood to be influenced by considerations from Virginia.

A few of those who have made entries are the Misses Vauclain of Philadelphia, S. Bryce Wing of Cedarhurst, Percy G. Rockefeller of Greenwich, W. M. V. Hoffman of Tuxedo, Blue Ridge Farm of Virginia; John A. Hartford, Miss Muriel Wiggins, A. W. Atkinson, of Philadelphia; W. Sharpe Kilmer, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle, Dilchester Farm Stud, Miss Audrey Lewisohn, Miss Vera G. Bloodgood, Mrs. Anna R. E. Pinchot, Powelton Farms, of Newburgh; Miss Anna L. Street, Paul Moore, W. M. K. Olcott, Mrs. J. B. Rover, Miss A. S. Colgate, Emil Antony, Miss M. F. Thompkinson, Archie Kinney, Clarence H. Mackay, George H. Wickersham, William Zeigler, jr., Miss Bonnie Glass, John Dixon, jr., and many more. Eighty-five names had been booked by last night, with many far-distant points to hear from, with 485 entries.

Following is the list of judges: Thoroughbreds—Algernon Daingerfield, Kentucky. Hackneys—R. C. Vanderbilt. Harness horses (in all classes)—Alexander Gemmell, H. H. Salmon and F. M. Kane. Pony classes—F. M. Ware. Saddle horses and ponies under saddle—Lewis E. Waring, E. T. H. Talmadge, Major Charles A. Benton. Polo ponies—David Dows and Benjamin K. Gatkins. Hunters and jumpers—H. L. Herbert, Charles Pfizer, H. L. Bell. Officers' chargers and militia mounts—General A. L. Mills. Police horses—Major Charles A. Benton. Garbed in the white of peace and the red of plenty, the Garden will be an attractive scene during the show.

Art Ross, the former captain and defence player of the Wanderer team, has been expelled from the National Hockey Association. President Emmett Quinn sent Ross a letter, in which he notified him that he had been expelled from organized hockey, as the National Association is affiliated with the other professional hockey bodies of any consequence in Canada. The reason given for the expulsion is that Ross was instrumental in having players on the reserve list of the N.H.A. sign options to clubs for the proposed new hockey league, that has not materialized. Ross at the time of his expulsion was a free agent. He had resigned from the Wanderers as an officer of the club, while during the closing stages of last season he was given a verbal release by the president of the club and not offered a contract this season. Ross held a conference with Manager Shaughnessy of the Ottawa Club this season, but had not come to terms at the time of receiving the letter from President Quinn.

At the annual meeting of Dunnville Hockey Club, the officers elected were: Hon. presidents, F. R. Lalor, M.P., Thos. Marshall, M.L.A.; president, J. A. Burns; first vice-president, A. W. Haun; second vice-president, W. J. Griffith; third vice-president, Dr. C. A. M. Thrush; fourth vice-president, W. J. Aikens; secretary, W. A. Fry; treasurer, A. A. Lamondy; executive, G. E. Parkes, R. S. Wismer, G. C. Biddle, T. G. Scott, Fred Blott, K. J. Shirton, W. A. Robb. Jack Munro was elected captain of the intermediate team, which it was decided to again enter in the O.H.A. A resolution was passed unanimously favoring the proposed change to three twenty-minute periods for a game. It is the intention to run a town league on the side, to develop material for a junior team. The Dunnville Arena Company have let the contract for the new rink to James Eagle of Preston.

The first members of the Ottawa hockey team to sign up for the coming season are Clint Benedict and Horace Merrill.

Percy Winsor, formerly of the Buckinghamm team, who starred at Cobalt last year, will be an acquisition to the Wanderer team, according to those who saw him play recently. He was to have been tried out with Ottawa last fall, but something slipped a cog and he did not show up. President Lichtenhein claims to have made a "find."
