Market Confident-Downward Trend is Checked

SENTIMENT ADOPTS MORE CHEERFUL TONE

Percupine Mining Stocks Make Small Recovery From Their Recent Depression-Hollinger a Shade Weaker-Cobalt Lake at 48 Again.

A more cheerful sentiment pervaded the mining exchanges yesterday, and in consequence the list scored a small improvement from the previous day's sharp reaction. The loss occasioned that time was by no means made t nevertheless the undertone was perce tibly more buoyant, and the buyi confident thruout. The close was rig at the top for the session, with sm advances general in the Porcupine a Cobalt list.

The only exception to the resilier action was Hollinger, which came for some liquidation, and sagged off full ten points to $14.30 under this i fluence. Shareholders will receive their first dividend today, and while there was a general idea that the fi nancial statement, if such be submit-ted with the dividend cheques, will be highly favorable, it was hinted in certain quarters that some disappointment might ensue. The selling was not insistent, but the market had little absorptive power, and the price sagged absorptive power, and the price sagged easily.

In the cheaper Porcupines a better tone was observable. It was felt that the decline occasioned by the bad effect of Vipond bond issue announcement had been overdone, and that in reality there had been no reason for any such depression as had existed. Consequently, good buying came into play, and as stocks were by no means offering freely, an improved range of quotations followed as a natural course. Net changes, however, were exceedingly limited in the majority of instances, the plainly evidencing the firmer trend.

The Cobalt list afforded much the same indications as the gold mining stocks, and generally wound up at as small gains. Cobalt Lake was the feature with a two point advance to 48. Vipo.

The dividend payers were strong, with La Rose up to $2.50. Nipissing, however, proved a weak spot, changing hands around $8.05 again.

This report says that this has come about thru some misunderstanding regarding the lease. If this rumor is true the old company will have the advantage of a large amount of work done by the lessees, the Santa Maria, and later the W.S.M. Club on the Subject.

The members of the Canadian Club of Toronto look forward to a treat next Monday noon, when Sir George Ross addresses them upon "The Panama Canal and Treaty Obligations." It is not known what arguments the former premier of Ontario will set forth, but he is one of Canada's two or three readiest public speakers, and his discourse upon a live international issue is certain to be interesting and illuminating. Canadian trade interests, as well as the good faith of the United States, are involved in the Panama tolls question, and for these reasons Sir George Ross should have a large audience.

Buchanan had authorized a member named McCiory to "do some missionary work in Toledo," and that $150 was appropriated for that purpose. McNamara said McClory employed four men, of whom two were arrested for assault, and added that an attorney said if the men pleaded guilty they would be paroled, but that after the men were convicted the Central Labor Union of Toledo adopted resolutions against members of the board of public service and a parole could not be had. McNamara said he had promised the men pay for the time they were in jail. A letter was read from John T.
