City Police Court.

Police Magistrate Gilbert resumed his seat this morning, after a week's absence. He saw before him a full dock, the police having made sixteen arrests between Saturday and Monday.

James Gordon, drunk on King's Sq., was fined $6.

James Miller, pleaded guilty before the charge of being drunk on Prince Wm. St.; same fine.

John McLaughlin, same offence on South Wharf, acknowledged, but begged to be let off as he was an entire stranger in the city, had not a cent to pay a fine, and had a wife and family depending on him. "The more shame then for you to get drunk," said the magistrate, "pay $8 or I will look after you for a while."

Barney Mulrain and Lewis Sullivan, each handed over $8 for drunkenness.

Joseph Francis, colored, was fined $8 for being drunk on Duke St. He is also charged with assaulting Edward McCrystal in the same street. It seems he made two attacks on McCrystal, who is unable to come out of the house on account of his bruises. He was told to sit down and this charge would be looked into in a short time.

William Hector, another colored man, was arrested at the same time as Francis, charged with being one of a disorderly crowd on Duke St., and assisting Francis to beat McCrystal. He also took a back seat until McCrystal appears.

John McCoy, arrested on Carmarthen St., was also fined $8 for drunkenness.

William Wallace, the wife beater, was again before the court for the same offence. He went home drunk after having spent all his money, and commenced abusing his wife. The police took him in charge, and this afternoon will hand him over to the Warden of the Penitentiary for safe-keeping for two months.

John Dormond, a foreign sailor, who understands very little English, was arrested on Britain St. He was made to understand the question as to whether he was drunk or not, and answered "Yes a little I was," for which he was fined $8.

Thomas Lawson and John Shay, arrested in Prince Wm St, and Alexander Morrison in Sheffield St, were each fined $8.

Mary Connelly, found lying drunk in the hall of a house in Sheffield street, said "she supposed she was, or she would not be there," and resignedly accepted her sentence of two months in the penitentiary in default of $8.

The magistrate made the cheerful announcement to the prisoners, that the gaol was very well filled, and that those who did not pay their fines would have to take up their quarters in the penitentiary.

Portland Police Court.

The cases before the court were numerous and interesting this morning, presenting quite a change from the blank sheet they have been showing for some days past.

George Curtis was the first, charged with using abusive language to Andrew Stevenson. The offence was proved and he was fined $8.

Elizabeth Thompson, a squaw, found drunk in Main street, was sent to her wigwam with a caution not to appear again.

Daniel Stoker, arrested at 12.35 a. m. Sunday, was fined $6 for drunkenness.

William Johnston, arrested in Main street on Sunday, was fined the full penalty for the same offence.

Michael Brophy, drunk in Sheriff street and charged with keeping a disorderly house, was fined $16 for the two offences or two months in the penitentiary.

George Bust has often had to answer charges before the court, so that for his drunk in Main street he was fined $8 or one month with Mr. Quinton.

Norman Hector and Henry Robinson held a concert in Main street at 3.40 a.m., and conducted themselves in a disorderly manner. They were fined $4 each for disturbing the peace of the Town at such an hour.

John Powers, arrested drunk on Main street, and Edward McFadden on the Marsh Road, were find $4 each.

James Johnston went to the Station for protection and was allowed to depart.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.

Boston has to-day unanimously voted to suspend payment of large sums in currency and to provide for an issue of ten million dollars in loan certificates. This is in imitation of a plan adopted by the banks throughout the country.

Gold fluctuating, reaching 115¼, and closing at 113¾.

There was a perceptible diminution in the exports by to-day's steamers, and nearly all the competing Liverpool steamship companies have lowered their freight tariffs.

OTTAWA, Sept. 29.

The Quebec Legislature, which was to meet in October, will not meet till after the prorogation of the Dominion Parliament.

Preparations are being made here for a long session.

Saturday's Globe has an editorial virtually receding from the original charges of selling the charter, and arguing the case on the ground of bribery by the Government during the elections. It holds that this is sufficient reason for their overthrow.

The Commission has no witnesses today.

A CENTRAL AMERICAN OUTRAGE.

At Omoa Town, in Honduras, the Foreign Consulates have been gutted, the American flag insulted, British residents imprisoned, and other outrages committed. The British steam sloop Inobe arrived and bombarded the town until the prisoners were surrendered and compensation guaranteed.

A TOWN DESTROYED.

Two thirds of the flourishing mining town of Fairplay, Colorado, was burned Friday night, including nearly all the business portion.

THE FINANCIAL PROSPECT

is brighter. Saturday and Sunday were comparatively devoid of excitement in New York. Foreign exchange was quite easy and Saturday's shipment of grain heavy. Firms which suspended during the past few days promise an early resumption. The opening of the stock exchange on Tuesday is resolved upon, though it is feared it may cause a renewal of excitement. The Secretary of the Treasury has ordered the prepayment of the November interest.

A Naughty Boy Sent Home.

There was an amusing scene on King's Square yesterday morning, between a woman, evidently Irish, and her son who had been out all night instead of sleeping at home like a virtuous youth. The son was a fine specimen of a "broth of a boy," standing about six feet in his boots, and about twenty-four years of age. He was dressed in a pea-jacket, and wore a slouched hat. About 7 o'clock the mother missed her boy, found he had not been in all night, and sallied out to find him. She met him on the Square, and picked up a stick which she commenced to flourish in a threatening manner. The son trembled as his maternal parent approached him, and held down his head. She advanced, flourishing her stick in a way that an Irish song and dance man might envy. "Go home wid you," said she. The youth looked round and saw several standing near laughing at him, and thoughts of rebelling against his mother took possession of his mind. She saw the doubt, and again she advanced and flourished her stick provokingly near his head with—"Go home wid you, Pat. Arrah! go home wid you now, and don't ye be after stoppin' out all night again, wid your drinking and dear knows what else." A number had collected and were delighted with the entertainment afforded, which did not seem to please the youth, who, however, moved off, his mother standing and watching him. Again he seemed to say to himself—"Pat, be a man," and, sticking his hands into his pockets, he, after going about six yards, again turned. His mother saw the action, and now, thoroughly enraged at such insubordination, rushed at him with her stick upraised and fairly yelling, "Go home wid you. Arrah! damn you go home, you spalpeen!" The youth could stand it no longer, and, just as his mother reached him, he turned and fled. His long legs did him good service, and, when last seen, he was fairly flying round the fountain to get out of sight and hearing of his enraged parent. She looked around with an exultant smile, and quietly walked away, not deigning to notice anyone.

The circulation of the DAILY TRIBUNE is rapidly increasing.

Excursions.

The cheap excursion to Bangor this morning was not well patronized. The train, which left here at 9.30 o'clock, had only a small number of passengers. It is likely that a good many will go from the intermediate stations.

The City of Portland, this morning, had a large number of passengers who have taken advantage of the cheap fare to Boston and back.

The Wesleyans at Welsford hold a teameeting to raise money for the repairs of their parsonage, on Wednesday the 1st proximo. Tickets will be issued by the C. E. & N. A. Railway, good to go and return for one fare.

Sabbath Breaking.

To the Editor of the Tribune.

Can you inform us whose duty it is to report violations of the Sunday law, such violations especially as are openly practised by the proprietors of Oyster Saloons, Eating Houses, Cigar Shops, some Drug Stores where cigars are the chief thing sold on Sundays, and the Livery Stables, most of whom carry on their business on Sundays as publicly and openly as on any other day in the week. Will our Mayor, Chief of Police, or Evangelical Alliance Committee, kindly publish the law regulating Sunday business, and oblige, SEVERAL CITIZENS.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD, nothing has ever been offered which can compare with this EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA. It is found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the humors that rankle in the system at this season of the year. Many complaints have their origin in the spring, and in the causes above mentioned, for which no better remedy has ever been devised. By its use multitudes can spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system strives to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Prepared by
