Inspector.

POTS.—Receipts are on the increase; the accounts by the Africa have checked speculation; a few orders are still being acted on, which has kept the price up, and several considerable parcels have changed hands at 28s. 6d. @ 29s. 7½d.; cold have changed hands at 28s. 6d. @ 29s. 7½d.; the excitement amongst the juvenile competitors at the Inspection Store has somewhat relaxed, and it is now probable that both buyers in order and speculators will have it in their power to buy to any extent they may feel disposed, at a safe margin. Orders have been received from Glasgow by late Steamer, limited to 27s. Currency, at which price they expect purchases will be made before end of June, time enough for their wants. Advices from New York state, that "purchases for Spring shipment will be safe at 28s. 6d. Currency." What insight into futurity could have induced some parties here to purchase at 31s. 9d. @ 31s. 10½d.; 31s. 11d., and in one instance at 28s.? The Receipts from 1st January to 28th February, 1850 and 1851, will be pretty nearly alike. Several small bills have been placed during yesterday and to-day at 28s. 6d.

A letter received by last mail states, that the Russians are making preparations to supply the English market with Ashes, and that they can "lay them down" at 26s. @ 27s. Sterling. The knowledge of this may have been the cause of the recent decline in the English market.

PEARLS.—Receipts limited, owing to the very heavy state of the roads; some small bills have been taken at 28s. and 28s. 1½d.

ST. ANN'S WARD.

MONTREAL, February 22, 1851.

GENTLEMEN:

While examining the amended Act of Incorporation of this City, I found a part of the seventh section to read thus:—"That no person shall be capable of being elected a Councillor of the City of Montreal, unless he shall have been a resident householder within the said City, for one year next, before such election." The view I take of this qualification clause is, that a Councillor must have kept house within the City limits for one year, immediately preceding the day of his election. Conscientiously, I feel myself under the necessity of hastening to inform you, that I am of opinion I am not capable of being elected a Councillor at this time, not having kept house within the City limits for the past year.

In coming forward as a Candidate, I only did so to meet your wishes and serve the City, which I consider I would not be doing by allowing myself to be returned, and perhaps be the cause of raising a troublesome question that might only terminate with another election.

Under these circumstances, you will, I feel assured, see the propriety of allowing me to withdraw. In doing so, allow me to express my regret that I was not aware of the very precise wording of the Law at an earlier day, and returning you my sincere thanks for your numerous expressions of regard.

I remain,
Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
WM. RODDEN.

To Messrs. Dorwin, Mathewson, Gault, and others, of St. Ann's Ward.

MONTREAL, February 24, 1851.

DEAR SIR:

We have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 22nd instant, in answer to which we beg to say we cannot do other wise than allow you to withdraw your name as a candidate, at the same time must express our regret that it should be so, as the result of the canvass was of such a character as to convince us of your being returned, and thereby securing to the City the valuable services we had reason to expect from you, and which we hope may be had at some future day.

We are, Dear Sir,
Your obedient servants,

THE BRITISH PERIODICALS

AND THE

FARMERS' GUIDE.

LEONARD SCOTT & Co.,

No. 54, Gold Street, New York,

CONTINUE to publish the four leading British Quarterly Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine; in addition to which they have recently commenced the publication of a valuable Agricultural Work, called

"THE FARMERS' GUIDE TO SCIENTIFIC AND PRACTICAL AGRICULTURE."

By Henry Stephens, F. R. S., of Edinburgh, Author of the "Book of the Farm," &c., &c., assisted by John P. Norton, M. A., New Haven, Professor of Scientific Agriculture in Yale College, &c., &c.

This highly valuable Work will comprise two large royal octavo volumes, containing over 1400 pages, with 18 or 20 splendid Steel Engravings, and more than 600 Engravings on Wood, in the highest style of the Art, illustrating almost every implement of husbandry now in use by the best farmers, the best methods of ploughing, planting, haying, harvesting, &c., &c., the various domestic animals in their highest perfection; in short, the pictorial feature of the work is unique, and will render it of incalculable value to the student of agriculture.

The Work is being published in Semi-Monthly Numbers, of 64 pages each, exclusive of the Steel Engravings, and it is intended that each of the Numbers shall be complete in itself, so that the entire Work in Numbers, of which there will be at least 22.

The British Periodicals Re-Published are as follows, viz.:—

The London Quarterly Review, (Conservative.)
The Edinburgh Review, (Whig.)
The North British Review, (Free-Church.)
The Westminster Review, (Liberal.)

AND

Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, (Tory.)

Although these Works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary and scientific articles for which they are valued, and it is that they stand so pre-eminently far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, in this class, decidedly attractive, from the serial Works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that Magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel," (both by Bulwer,) "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other articles, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by these publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been published in Edinburgh, so that Subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.
