ANOTHER CIRCUS.

Magistrate Parke Has a "Big" Time at the Police Court.

Lots to Do the Day After the Show—Crooks Still Follow the Circus—Hodge's Mistake and the Ride He Had to Pay For—Many Drunks.

Barnum & Bailey's show held forth at Cheapside street Wednesday, and Magistrate Parke had another circus this morning at Carling street. Wednesday the procession came before the show; this morning it came afterwards. It led to the county jail, out of town, and into the clerk's room, where fines are paid. The dock was full. So was the bench in front of it; and delinquents sat all the way around the room. The magistrate dealt with the case sharply and very leniently.

CROOKS LET GO.

The two men—Benjamin J. Thompson and Wm. Reily—who were arrested yesterday on suspicion of being pickpockets, were charged with vagrancy, there being no direct evidence against them. They had money and were allowed to go. They purchased tickets for Sarnia—(the circus is in Port Huron)—but Chief Detective Day, of the Grand Trunk system, told the "Advertiser" that he would telegraph to Sarnia for the police to be on the watch for them there.

John Gray was fined $1 and John Murphy $2 for working horses with sore shoulders.

PAID FOR HIS RIDE.

Charles Hodge abused a Grand Trunk baggageman Wednesday night and used filthy language. A quiet, plainly dressed man who was standing by began to talk to him, urging him to desist. Hodge only swore worse than ever, and before he knew where he was he was whisked into a cab by the quiet man and driven to the police station, where he was lodged in the cells. The quiet man was Chief Detective Day, of the G. T. R. This morning Hodge paid $2 and another 50 cents for the cab fare.

NONDESCRIPT.

Maria Rollins, charged with allowing her cow to stray, promised to keep trindle in pasture, and was let go.

Charles Macoy paid $2 for allowing his cows to stray at large.

John Benenati, Louis Dambra and David Baker, three alleged disorderly newsboys, were discharged.

Wm. Milligan and Charles Dalley, two soldiers who had been intoxicated, were turned over to an escort from the Barracks. They will get their medicine by court martial.

Levi Dodds, Charles Leary and Levi De Leary, three Indians from Muncey, were all said to have been "leary' the night before, but they all denied it in the morning. They were seent out of town.

James Patton paid $1 for immoderate driving, and John Moss was discharged. He had been fighting, and the police could not find the other fellow.

A Komoka carriage maker, who had imbibed too freely, was let go, and a Wellington street man paid $1 for a similar offense.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION is occasioned by the want of action in the biliary ducts, loss of vitality in the stomach to secrete the gastric juices, without which digestion cannot go on; also, being the principal cause of Headache. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills taken before going to bed, for a while, never fail to give relief and effect a cure. Mr. F. W. Ashdown, Ashdown, Ont., writes: "Parmelee's Pills are taking the lead against ten other makes which I have in stock."

A LIFE SAVED.—Mr. James Bryson Cameron, states: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs, and was given up by physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on this advice, I procured the medicine, and less than a half-bottle cured me; I certainly believe it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me any good."
