BETTER BE AN OLD MAID THAN MARRY WRONG MAN, BILLY SUNDAY TELLS GIRLS

Evangelist Tells Them Not To Do Half the Courting—Might Get Something With Pantaloons On, But Not a Real Man.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 20. — Speaking in the three-fold role of minister of the gospel, husband of "a wife whom I love with all my heart," and father of four children, Billy Sunday told scores of Detroit women some plain truths this afternoon and evening, when he preached the sermon, "Is It Well With Thee?" at both services. From the text in II. Kings, i., 26, "Is it well with thee? Is it well with thy husband? Is it well with thy children?" Mr. Sunday admonished the mothers, married women and girls impartially.

"It's the whisky crowd that says I'm offensive," he shouted. "All those lies wriggled out of the brewer; that's where it all comes from; but I have defied them for twenty years, and I'll defy them until God puts me in a coffin and even after that. I come before you as a minister, a husband, and a father. And I want to urge you to be satisfied to fill your sphere as wife or mother. You know there are homes in which the advent of children is considered a curse, instead of a blessing. God in his providence has denied the honor of maternity to some women, but there are married women who shrink from maternity because they love ease, fine garments, and ability to flit like a butterfly at some social function. Crimes have been and are being committed, and that very crime has made France the charnel-house of the world.

Curse of Divorce.

"Divorce is the curse of this country. I think the time is coming when ministers will not unite those who have been divorced. But, girls, don't worry if you don't marry; there are worse things in the world than being an old maid, and one of them is marrying the wrong man. Some of the noblest women in the world have been old maids.

"But I tell you, girls, I would rather be an old maid, with dogs, cats, furniture and bric-a-brac, than to be yoked to a profane, cigarette-smoking, cursing, whisky-soaked jughandle for a husband. And, girls, don't simper and look silly when you speak of love. There is nothing silly about it. Love is the noblest gift to man and womanhood. Don't let your actions advertise 'Man wanted.' That is the surest way not to get a real man. You might get something with pantaloons on, but that is not a man. Don't get excited and try to hurry things along. If the man wants you he'll come around in good time, and don't try to do half the courting. If you aren't married, you're just a single, unappropriated parcel of benediction and blessing. Clara Barton and Frances Willard were not married. You're in good company. Be worthy of it.

"Too many girls marry for causes other than love. I think ambition, laziness, avarice and indifference lead more girls to the altar than love. Just because a fool can wriggle his carcass through a tango he won't make a good husband. Have the nerve to face shabbiness if your husband is a Christian and decent. We put woman up on a pedestal, we admire her virture, and we love her—just because we can't help it. Christ and a woman can save the world. The devil and a woman can damn the world."

PTE. MACKINVER KILLED

Former McClary Employee Gives His Life for the Empire.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WINNIPEG, Oct. 20.—Angus MacKinven, trooper, of the Oxford Garrys Horse, is dead. He was transferred to the Cyclist Corps, and then to the Alberta Battalion. He left with the first draft of Fort Garrys two years ago. He was with McClary Manufacturing Company for about eight years, and was transferred to Winnipeg in January, 1913, from the head office at London, Ont. He is reported to have died of wounds.

Pte. MacKinven was in the advertising department at McClary's before going west. His home is near London.

MORAVIANTOWN SCRIBE JIBES AT PETER McARTHUR

Same "Lone Cow" at Fair This Year "on Duty."

[Special to The Advertiser.]

MORAVIANTOWN, Oct. 20.—The fair here was largely attended again this year, though not quite as largely as in some former years, which no doubt was owing to the coldness of the day. Some recruiting was done during the day, but the results were not made known. The races were interesting, and the contestants were keen for success. No arrests were made, and there was not one drunk on the grounds.

The famous Peter McArthur, in writing up the fair this year, said there were 500 automobiles and one cow present, which probably was true, but he should not have cast slurs on that lone cow for it was the wrong day for stock show. He did not know that the cow was there not for show so much (as no doubt many autos were) as for duty. She was taken there by the owner to supply milk for a restaurant or for sale. The lone cow was there again this year, and for the same purpose. And the autos seemed more plentiful than ever before.

The side shows and merry-go-rounds were well patronized. Silverwood, of London, had a fine tent where the best appearing delicacies were sold at reasonable prices.

PIECES OF ZEPPELIN SENT TO TEESWATER

Will Skilling, Young Methodist Preacher, Sends Souvenir Home.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

TEESWATER, Oct. 19.—John Skelling, of Teeswater, has just received from his son Will a piece of the zeppelin brought down in one of the recent English raids. Will Skelling is a young Methodist preacher who enlisted a year ago. He was out of London at the time of the raid, but on reaching his "diggings" that night heard that the airship was lying a wreck not far from London. He immediately started off and secured a precious little bit of rope wire and steel. The metals are all badly fused, indicating the immense heat of the burning zeppelin. Will is now, according to cable yesterday, at the bedside of his brother Harold in hospital, after being badly wounded while trying to help a wounded German.

TWO ANNAN MEN NAMED AS WOUNDED

[Special to The Advertiser.]

OWEN SOUND, Oct. 20.—Mrs. Annabella McDonald of Annan has received notification that her son, Pte. John McDonald, has been wounded, receiving a gunshot in the knee. He was admitted to No. 6 Military Hospital, Etaples, on October 10.

Mrs. Lucy McArthur, also of Annan, has received information that her son, Pte. John McArthur, has been wounded in the nose and hand. His father, Capt. Archie McArthur, was one of the victims of the 1913 lake disaster. His mother is just now in Burnid, Mich.

May Be Mistake.

Pte. George Clark, a well-known young man, has been admitted to a hospital in France, suffering from the effects of gas. This is according to an official notification which his mother received yesterday. The message stated that the casualty was reported on October 19.

Two cards have been received from Pte. Clark, one written on the 19th, and another on the 29th, neither of which mentions anything about gas. His number is correctly given in the Ottawa dispatch, but it is believed to be a mistake.

SPRINGFIELD CANVASSED.

SPRINGFIELD, Oct. 20.—The people of this vicinity liberally greeted the Red Cross canvassers who called at each house in the township.

Rev. G. W. Bull will preach anniversary sermons next Sunday at Richmond, while Rev. Maxwell Parr will take the work on Lyons circuit.

LIST OF SEVEN IN STRATFORD CASUALTIES

[Special to The Advertiser.]

STRATFORD, Oct. 20.—Two more Stratford soldiers have fallen in battle in the persons of Pte. W. G. Toms, formerly of the 71st Battalions, and Pte. Fred Daniels, formerly of the 33rd Battalion. Several others are wounded.

Pte. Toms joined "B" Company, 71st Battalion, here, but in England was transferred to the Mounted Rifles.

To Mrs. Daniels came word late this afternoon of the death in action of her husband, Pte. Fred Daniels, who met death on October 13. He enlisted with the 33rd Battalion at London with his brother.

Pte. Boon Wounded.

Pte. Arthur Boon, formerly of the 34th Battalion, has been admitted to No. 6 Red Cross Hospital at Etaples, October 10, severely wounded in the ankle, according to word received by his brother, Fred Boon, this afternoon. He was born in England and is single.

A brother was recently reported wounded for a second time.

Word also reached the city today of the wounding of Sergt. Arthur Messun, infantry, but no particulars were contained in the message.

The name of Pte. R. Smith appears in the wounded today. This is presumably Pte. Robert Smith, who joined the 34th Battalion here. He is a native of England and is 40 years of age and unmarried.

Gets Second Wound.

Mrs. Hawes was informed this afternoon of the wounding of Pte. Frank Hawes, who was admitted to No. 1 General Hospital at Etaples October 9, with shrapnel wounds in the head. He enlisted here with the first contingent and was only recently reported as admitted to a field hospital with bruised feet. He was evidently wounded a short time after returning to the trenches. He was aged 23.

Pte. Herbert Clements was admitted to No. 2 Canadian Stationary Hospital at Boulogne October 2, with a gunshot wound in the arm, according to official word to relatives here. He joined the 71st Battalion here, but went overseas in a detached company. This is the second time he has been wounded.

Most of Them Given Permanent Passes.

COMMANDER IS PLEASED

All Working Together To Fit the Unit For Quick Sailing.

The 149th Battalion is becoming thoroughly settled in its new quarters. Major McVicar, who is in command of the unit pending the appointment of a new commanding officer, speaks enthusiastically of the discipline and spirit of the Lambtons. On the arrival of the battalion in London, all the N. C. O.'s and those men whose crime sheets are clear were at once given permanent passes, with the result that practically everyone comes and goes at his own discretion. This is a practice only possible in a unit, the members of which are considered worthy of trust.

In spite of the disappointment of not getting overseas, the men are settling down to hard work and are determined that if their own efforts can do it they will be the next to receive orders to prepare for the long trip. A spirit of "work together" permeates the whole unit from the commanding office down, and it is believed that it will soon produce results.

INTERESTING NEWS FOR WORKING MEN

An Article Well Worth Your While to Read.

This is a nerve-racking age—not a man in an office or behind the counter, striving hard to get on in the world, that does not feel the strain.

If nerves are in order, a man is strong, eats and sleeps well. Unstrung nerves means weakness, worry, sleeplessness and a general decay of bodily strength.

Most men are careless of their health. They trust to luck and that kind of thing, instead of taking Ferrozone, for a few weeks when they feel dull in the morning, or when they sleep poorly or lose appetite.

Ferrozone quickly brightens up the mind, it creates an appetite and improves digestion. Ferrozone makes blood, quiets the nerves, makes muscle like steel and induces refreshing sleep.

Ferrozone is a body builder, thousands have proved it. If you are sick or out of sorts, use Ferrozone and enjoy the splendid health it so surely brings.

Permanent in its results, the greatest health-giver in the world is Ferrozone. Because nourishing and perfectly harmless, all can use it, even children. Get Ferrozone today, 50c. per box, at all dealers, or by mail from The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

Citizens Request Boys To Cut Out Destructive Acts

Halloween Pranks Already Begun and Women Are Worried.

The partial destruction of a wooden sidewalk on Johnston street, South London, and other samples of the activities of mischievous boys in that neighborhood, has resulted in complaints being registered from that neighborhood.

It is presumed that the pranks which have been played every night for the past few days are the forerunners of what may be anticipated for Halloween night.

In view of this the citizens of that section have appealed to The Advertiser to request that parents take upon themselves the duty of preventing a recurrence of the usual Halloween pranks, when outbuildings are upset, sidewalks torn up and property removed and destroyed.

Although it all may be done in a spirit of fun, nevertheless it would mean considerable work and worry for many women whose husbands are at the front. They would not be able to repair the damage themselves, and it would consequently entail unnecessary expense.

Parents are therefore asked to see that their children this year desist from the usual Halloween pranks.
