New Parks Superintendent. Harry Marshall, florist, was this afternoon appointed as superintendent of parks at a salary of $1000 a year, to begin his duties in January. The board declined to hold an investigation ino the charges made against the deposed superintendent, S. Weaver. The court of revision this afternoon knocked about $55,000 off the assessments in Ward 2. The greatest reduction in a single case was on the appeal of the John Knox Company against a business assessment of $26,-500. As the firm has gone out of business, the whole amount was wiped out. The Bank of Hamilton was given a reduction of $10,000 on an assessment of $200,000 on its new building. One add $200,000 on its new building. One odd ase was that of Ernest J.
