

T. EATON CO.

180 Yonge St. Canada's Greatest Store. Toronto.

Store closes to-day at 5 o'clock.

The Meaning Of Business!

Not talk; not egotism; not cutting up antics; but quiet, persistent methods that put service before profit, and sincerity before enthusiasm. We've an interest in new goods now and an avalanche of newness later on. We can't begin to show all there is to see. September will come with more room at our disposal, and we hope to make it more comfortable and more pleasant for those who shop.

All we can expect to do now is to emphasize buying chances in the different stocks. This is the way we interpret business for the time being:

Special in Clothing and Furnishings.

Boys' 3-piece Suits, in fine all-wool English and Canadian Tweeds, light and dark colors, assorted patterns, with pleated fronts and back, and some perfectly plain, box back and patch pockets, good strong linings and trimmings, sizes 22 to 27-inch chest measure, regular selling price $3, $3.50 and $4. Thursday..... 2.00

Men's Extra Light Weight Fur Felt Stiff Hats, in brown and black shades, Dunlop style, lined and unlined, leather sweat, fine silk band and binding, balance of odd lines, regular price $1.50 and $2 each. Thursday..... 1.00

Men's Colored Cambric Shirts, with and without collar attached, odd lines, broken range of sizes, fast colors, in best quality of cambric, sizes 15½, 16, 16½, 17, 17½ inches neck measure, light and dark patterns, regular price $1 and $1.25. Thursday morning, each..... .39

Furniture Sale.

Sidboards, solid oak, well made, 48 inches wide, 22 inches deep, 16 x 28-inch bevel plate mirror, with side and top shelves, hand carved and polished, regular price $20. August sale price..... 14.65

Extension Tables, solid oak, six heavy post turned legs, fancy rails, extend 8 feet long, regular price $10. August sale price..... 6.75

Dining Room Chairs, quartered oak, polished high backs, solid leather upholstered seats, in set of 5 and 1 arm chair, regular price $15. August sale price..... 11.75

Rocking Chairs, solid quarter cut oak and mahogany finish, highly polished, fancy turned spindles, with arms, solid leather embossed, cobbler seats, regular price $3.50. August sale price..... 2.45

Flannelettes.

3,000 pieces of Flannelette in 50 different designs, medium dark and light stripes, pure cloth, soft finish, guaranteed fast colors:

28-inch plain at 4½¢ yard

32-inch plain at 5¢ yard

28-inch twill at 6½¢ yard

32-inch twill at 7½¢ yard

On sale Thursday morning.

Country customers are reminded that mail orders must reach us PROMPTLY to secure the advantage of any special prices. This column is read regularly by many thousands of people, and worthy goods of any sort never stay long. We like to oblige our friends as far as possible, but the choicest things go first as a matter of course, and don't come again.

T. EATON CO.

180 YONGE ST., TORONTO.

NEWS FROM THE JUNCTION.

A Street Improver—Imprisoned in a Car—Other Items.
Toronto Junction, Aug. 18.—Among the numerous improvements at the Junction is the demolition of the old White Swan Hotel, and a lively stable at corner of Keele and Dundas-streets. The last of the old place was taken away to-day and the lot is being fenced in. It is said that if satisfactory terms can be made the Suburban Railway Co. will build a property and build upon it handsome brick stores, one of which they will occupy as an office.

Imprisoned in the Car.
Messrs. Parsons and Fox, shippers of the Queen City flour mills, were at work unloading up loading a car, when they were accidentally locked in and the train moved off. They were not released until their protestations were heard at Parkdale.

Gave Himself Up.
Early this morning a man, who says his name is John McCabe, living in the rear of 111 Eglinton-avenue, Toronto, and employed by Contractor Gardner, went to No.

2 Ave hall to give himself up, as he said, to the police. He was taken to the station and held over until this morning, when he was released. He was charged with the offence of being drunk and disorderly.

There is to be an exciting game of baseball on Saturday between the Occidental Hotel and the Paddock. It is expected that the proprietor of each hotel shall do all the pitching, and the game will be a very interesting one. The following are the players: Occidental team: Maxwell, c.; Kelly, p.; Chapman, lb.; Gallant, 2b.; Woodburn, 3b.; J. Lockhart, s.; Bell, r.f.; Mahoney, c.f.; Bessley, l.f.; O'Connell, spare man. Paddock team: Kelly, c.; Bell, p.; Chapman, lb.; Gallant, 2b.; Woodburn, 3b.; J. Lockhart, s.; Bell, r.f.; Mahoney, c.f.; Bessley, l.f.; O'Connell, spare man.

THE TORONTO WORLD

ONE CENT MORNING PAPER. No. 23 YONGE STREET, TORONTO.

Branch Office: No. 15 Adelaide, Hamilton, E. E. Sayce, Agent.

Business Office—3734.

Editorial Rooms—323.

SUBSCRIPTIONS:

Daily (without Sunday) by the year, $3.00

Daily (without Sunday) by the month, .25

Sunday Edition, by the year, 2.00

Sunday Edition, by the month, .20

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 3.50

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, .30

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 4.00

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, .35

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 4.50

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, .40

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 5.00

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, .45

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 5.50

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, .50

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 6.00

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, .55

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 6.50

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, .60

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 7.00

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, .65

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 7.50

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, .70

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 8.00

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, .75

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 8.50

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, .80

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 9.00

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, .85

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 9.50

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, .90

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 10.00

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, .95

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 10.50

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, 1.00

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 11.00

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, 1.05

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 11.50

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, 1.10

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 12.00

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, 1.15

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 12.50

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, 1.20

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 13.00

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, 1.25

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 13.50

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, 1.30

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 14.00

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, 1.35

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 14.50

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, 1.40

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 15.00

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, 1.45

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 15.50

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, 1.50

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 16.00

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, 1.55

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 16.50

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, 1.60

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 17.00

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, 1.65

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 17.50

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, 1.70

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 18.00

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, 1.75

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 18.50

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, 1.80

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 19.00

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, 1.85

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 19.50

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, 1.90

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 20.00

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, 1.95

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 20.50

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, 2.00

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 21.00

Daily (Sunday included) by the month, 2.05

Daily (Sunday included) by the year, 21.50

In the United States becomes exhausted there can be no doubt that the spruce forests of Ontario will prove a source of wealth to the province, the extent of which it is difficult to estimate.

The next important fact we should bear in mind is that the supply of pulp-wood in other countries is limited, and is rapidly being reduced. The United States is drawing largely upon Canada for the raw material that keeps its paper mills in operation. The American paper manufacturers met three weeks ago at Niagara Falls, N.Y., and this question of pulp-wood was the centre of a great deal of discussion.

The increasing scarcity of pulp-wood was referred to and the fact that Canada threatened to impose an export duty was brought up as a matter worthy of their serious consideration. Everything points to the fact that Canada will soon be able to dictate terms as to how and in what manner the pulp and paper industry shall be carried on in this country. Even now we can place ourselves in a position to will force the Americans to convert their wood into pulp in this country. Finally it may become advisable for us to prohibit the export of pulp and insist on its manufacture in Canada. The fear of a retaliatory import duty on our exports need give us little concern. We clip this paragraph from Sunday's Philadelphia Record: "For the third time this year a raft containing 6000 tons of pulp-wood was towed from Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests. The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

This item is only indicative of the general habit that the Americans are now playing with our spruce forests.

The scarcity of pulp-wood in their own country compels them to come to Canada to Wisconsin through the Straits of Mackinac the other day."

ago faith. Better had he played the open, not the veneered, demagogue. Better had he said, "Yes, we intend to cheat the dollar, depreciate the currency if you call it so, if we default on every bond and halve every pension and rob every holder of the evidences of debt." Better had he said, "The dollars which are to be paid are 'dearer' than the dollars which are to be received. Better had he said, 'I exhibit myself in the east as he exhibits himself in the west than before the people of this country with a modest request for them to bet the Sixty-Five-Billion-Dollar valuation of their possessions on a speculative rise in the silver market.'

Mr. Bryan will feel, from this day on, we venture the prediction—the loss of the explosive momentum of the rocket and the fearful specific gravity of the stick. We think, indeed, that he felt it last night when a crowd of people came to listen to the fiery oratory of a leader of the people turned away from the ponderous platitudes of a lecturer on 'timetables.' Hampered by the frightful platform on which he stood, and for which the long-drawn-out exordium of his speech is a laborious apology, he has set out to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance. Having seen the Algeid he has tried to turn toward the 'relied and respected Socialism' of the 'people's party' and for which he has his hands full to do. He has found the latter class of the former that it will forsake where it followed him. For he has not only failed to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance, but he has failed to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance.

Mr. Bryan will feel, from this day on, we venture the prediction—the loss of the explosive momentum of the rocket and the fearful specific gravity of the stick. We think, indeed, that he felt it last night when a crowd of people came to listen to the fiery oratory of a leader of the people turned away from the ponderous platitudes of a lecturer on 'timetables.' Hampered by the frightful platform on which he stood, and for which the long-drawn-out exordium of his speech is a laborious apology, he has set out to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance. Having seen the Algeid he has tried to turn toward the 'relied and respected Socialism' of the 'people's party' and for which he has his hands full to do. He has found the latter class of the former that it will forsake where it followed him. For he has not only failed to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance, but he has failed to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance.

Mr. Bryan will feel, from this day on, we venture the prediction—the loss of the explosive momentum of the rocket and the fearful specific gravity of the stick. We think, indeed, that he felt it last night when a crowd of people came to listen to the fiery oratory of a leader of the people turned away from the ponderous platitudes of a lecturer on 'timetables.' Hampered by the frightful platform on which he stood, and for which the long-drawn-out exordium of his speech is a laborious apology, he has set out to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance. Having seen the Algeid he has tried to turn toward the 'relied and respected Socialism' of the 'people's party' and for which he has his hands full to do. He has found the latter class of the former that it will forsake where it followed him. For he has not only failed to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance, but he has failed to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance.

Mr. Bryan will feel, from this day on, we venture the prediction—the loss of the explosive momentum of the rocket and the fearful specific gravity of the stick. We think, indeed, that he felt it last night when a crowd of people came to listen to the fiery oratory of a leader of the people turned away from the ponderous platitudes of a lecturer on 'timetables.' Hampered by the frightful platform on which he stood, and for which the long-drawn-out exordium of his speech is a laborious apology, he has set out to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance. Having seen the Algeid he has tried to turn toward the 'relied and respected Socialism' of the 'people's party' and for which he has his hands full to do. He has found the latter class of the former that it will forsake where it followed him. For he has not only failed to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance, but he has failed to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance.

Mr. Bryan will feel, from this day on, we venture the prediction—the loss of the explosive momentum of the rocket and the fearful specific gravity of the stick. We think, indeed, that he felt it last night when a crowd of people came to listen to the fiery oratory of a leader of the people turned away from the ponderous platitudes of a lecturer on 'timetables.' Hampered by the frightful platform on which he stood, and for which the long-drawn-out exordium of his speech is a laborious apology, he has set out to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance. Having seen the Algeid he has tried to turn toward the 'relied and respected Socialism' of the 'people's party' and for which he has his hands full to do. He has found the latter class of the former that it will forsake where it followed him. For he has not only failed to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance, but he has failed to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance.

Mr. Bryan will feel, from this day on, we venture the prediction—the loss of the explosive momentum of the rocket and the fearful specific gravity of the stick. We think, indeed, that he felt it last night when a crowd of people came to listen to the fiery oratory of a leader of the people turned away from the ponderous platitudes of a lecturer on 'timetables.' Hampered by the frightful platform on which he stood, and for which the long-drawn-out exordium of his speech is a laborious apology, he has set out to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance. Having seen the Algeid he has tried to turn toward the 'relied and respected Socialism' of the 'people's party' and for which he has his hands full to do. He has found the latter class of the former that it will forsake where it followed him. For he has not only failed to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance, but he has failed to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance.

Mr. Bryan will feel, from this day on, we venture the prediction—the loss of the explosive momentum of the rocket and the fearful specific gravity of the stick. We think, indeed, that he felt it last night when a crowd of people came to listen to the fiery oratory of a leader of the people turned away from the ponderous platitudes of a lecturer on 'timetables.' Hampered by the frightful platform on which he stood, and for which the long-drawn-out exordium of his speech is a laborious apology, he has set out to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance. Having seen the Algeid he has tried to turn toward the 'relied and respected Socialism' of the 'people's party' and for which he has his hands full to do. He has found the latter class of the former that it will forsake where it followed him. For he has not only failed to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance, but he has failed to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance.

Mr. Bryan will feel, from this day on, we venture the prediction—the loss of the explosive momentum of the rocket and the fearful specific gravity of the stick. We think, indeed, that he felt it last night when a crowd of people came to listen to the fiery oratory of a leader of the people turned away from the ponderous platitudes of a lecturer on 'timetables.' Hampered by the frightful platform on which he stood, and for which the long-drawn-out exordium of his speech is a laborious apology, he has set out to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance. Having seen the Algeid he has tried to turn toward the 'relied and respected Socialism' of the 'people's party' and for which he has his hands full to do. He has found the latter class of the former that it will forsake where it followed him. For he has not only failed to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance, but he has failed to give the people a lesson in the hackneyed sophistries of a bastard school of finance.

Mr. Bryan will feel, from this day on, we venture the prediction—the loss of the explosive momentum of the rocket and the fearful specific gravity of the stick. We think, indeed, that he felt it last night when a crowd of people came to listen to the fiery