GRAIN FUTURES FIRMER AT CHICAGO MARKET

Liverpool Cables Lower, But Chicago Rallies After an Early Reaction.

World Office,
Saturday Evening, Nov. 16.

At Liverpool wheat futures closed 1⅝d lower. Corn, ¾d lower.

At Chicago Dec. wheat closed ½c higher; Dec. corn ½c higher, and Dec. oats ⅛c higher.

Winnipeg car receipts of wheat to-day 226, last year 311.

Northwest car lots to-day 453, last week 434, last year 489.

Chicago car receipts of wheat to-day 20, contract 9; corn 124, contract 26; oats 109, contract 3.

Broomhall estimates world's shipments of wheat for Monday at 9,600,000, compared with 11,616,000 last week, and 10,512,000 a year ago. He predicts there will be fair decreases in quantity of breadstuffs on passage.

India shipments for the week amount to 176,000 bushels, 1,040,000 last week and 560,000 last year. Broomhall predicts that the shipments next week will be 712,000, Australian 56,000 v. 128,000 last week, and 160,000 bushels a year ago.

ST. LAWRENCE MARKET.

Receipts of farm produce were 3600 bushels of grain, 25 loads of hay, 2 loads of straw, with a very large number of mixed loads of all kinds of farm and market garden produce, as well as a very large basket market.

There was a good trade, citizens, not in hundreds, but thousands, attending, to get their weekly supplies.

Prices were, if anything, easier, especially for butter.

Wheat—One hundred bushels of fall sold at $1.00.

Barley—Three thousand bushels sold at 70c to 75c. See article on barley prices below.

Oats—Five hundred bushels sold at 58c to 59c.

Hay—Twenty-five loads sold at $19 to $22 per ton.

Straw—Two loads sold at $17 and $18 per ton.

Dressed Hogs—Market steady at the decline, prices ranging from $8 to $8.50 per cwt.

Poultry—Dressed poultry was more than plentiful, and prices were easy. Few good lots were offered and these were readily picked up as usual at good prices, but the bulk was of poor quality and sold down at proportionately lower quotations. Prime stall fed birds of all kinds were in demand and farmers having them had no difficulty in selling as soon as they got on the market. This should be a lesson to those farmers who had poor skinny poultry, many of whom had to stand hours before they sold out, and then at much lower prices. Prices ranged as follows: Turkeys, 14c to 16c per lb.; geese, 10c to 11c; ducks, 10c to 13c; choice stall-fed chickens, 14c; the general run of chickens, 10c to 12c; fowl, 9c to 10c

Butter—There was an easier feeling on the market and prices generally were lower. Customers seeing the large supply on the market were in no hurry to buy, the consequence being that the bulk of the butter sold from two to three cents per lb. lower. One woman who has been coming regularly on Saturdays for years, bringing in several boxes, bought in the country, stated that she was unable to get as much as she paid in the country. Farmers having special customers, got 35c, but some of the special customers declined to pay, and many more did it with wry faces. The bulk of the butter sold at 30c to 33c, but there was lots of it went under 30c at the close of the market.

Eggs—Strictly new-laid eggs are very scarce and hard to get. They sold at 40c to 45c per dozen and we heard of two farmers' wives that got 50c per dozen. There are lots of eggs that are being offered as new-laid that have been held for weeks and some of them looked as if they had been kept for months; these sold from 35c to 40c, and some as low as 30c.

Market Notes.

One Scarboro farmer, who with his father and grandfather before him made farming in all its branches pay, brought in 17 chickens that weighed 105 lbs., which he sold to Swan Bros. at 14c per lb.

R. Barron & Son, A. Thompson of Park & Thompson, J. A. Paterson of Swan Bros., got all the best lots of poultry, and this was all they did buy.

There were some farmers that had poultry that were so poor that the breast and back bones were visible thru the skin. Some of the turkeys certainly would not have three pounds of flesh on them.

Ducks and geese generally were of much better quality than turkeys and chickens.

Mr. Craig of Snelgrove was on the market with 275 lbs. of butter, which he sold at 35c per lb., but he did not get thru selling as quickly as usual.

Barley Prices.

The World received the following information from a reliable source, in reference to the drop in prices for barley, as follows: Early in the season prices were as high, and sometimes higher at Brampton, Richmond Hill, Stouffville and Unionville than on the Toronto market. This in effect kept the barley from coming to Toronto, and the consequence was that some of the brewers of Toronto became alarmed and placed their orders at high prices for malt with these buyers at the above named points. Now that they have these orders in their pockets, and consequently will have little opposition on the Toronto market, having got these brewers' orders at high prices, these same gentlemen proceed to put prices down at all these points, thereby skinning the farmer as usual. Farmers, keep your barley. These same dealers need it, and will have to pay you as much, and more than has been paid at any time this season for good malting barley, which is scarce in Ontario to-day. One old time buyer stated that he believed barley would go to a dollar and even a dollar and a quarter before spring. T.W.

Chicago Gossip

Charles W. Gillett to Peter J. Morgan:

Wheat—There was more general rush to sell wheat at the opening, owing to a break of 1⅜d in futures and 2½d in spot wheat at Liverpool. Outside domestic markets were also weak, Winnipeg leading, with a decline of 1½c. A private wire house with St. Louis affiliations, was the most important seller. This firm also handles a great many orders for a La Salle st. elevator concern, at times. There was a very slow cash demand here and elsewhere and German bids were called disappointing. The world's shipments for next Monday are estimated at 9,600,000 bushels, which is at least 1,000,000 bushels under consumptive requirements. It is difficult to reconcile the lower cables with this estimate, but the fact that the Bank of England discount rate is expected to be advanced further is the probable explanation. The northwestern movement of wheat is liberal and as the demand for both wheat and flour has been curtailed by lack of money, I can see no probability of any sustained upward movement in prices during the next few weeks and advise sales on every sharp rally until Dec. deliveries are made.

Corn—Cables closed ¾d lower, making a very sharp loss for the week. There was general pressure to sell at the opening, in sympathy with the decline in wheat, but the market received support by the Patten House and one or two pit traders. There was a fractional recovery with wheat. Receipts were very small, but the shipping demand was lacking. Weather is more favoring for drying new corn and when the movement can be financed receipts will be larger. I think May corn should be sold around closing figures.

Oats—Market was narrow, selling off on a few unimportant sales by the Patten House, but recovering with corn. I look to see May oats show acute congestion sooner or later, as I believe a certain interest is long much more than can be delivered.

ST. PATRICK CHAPTER, R.A.M.

Impressive Ceremonial Work and Banquet—Ladies' Night Dec. 13.

At the regular convocation of the St. Patrick Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, on Saturday evening, there was a record attendance of the companions, and a number of present and past officers of sister city chapters. The ceremonial work of the evening was the M.M.M. degree, which was impressively exemplified by the officers of the chapter, with full musical ritual by the Blight Quartet, Comp. E. R. Bowles, organist, directing.

The first ladies' night ever given by a capitular body in Canada will be held under the auspices of the St. Patrick Chapter in the Temple Building on Dec. 13, and the function will be one of the local Masonic events of the season and in keeping with the reputation of the premier chapter for entertaining.

The usual banquet followed the ceremonial work, and the after entertainment was as follows: Tenor solo, "For All Eternity," Comp. J. Fiddes; baritone solo, "Under the Desert Star," Mr. J. Clarke; tenor solo, "Love Me and the World is Mine," Mr. George Dickson; bass solo, "In a Cellar Cool," Comp. J. R. Milne; tenor solo, "Nirvana," Mr. G. M. Ross; baritone solo, "Her Lips, Her Eyes," Comp. W. Riley; tenor solo, "My Pretty Jane," Comp. J. Twigg; duet, Companions Fiddes and Milne; baritone solo, Mr. J. Clarke; tenor solo, Mr. Geo. Dickson.

Prominent Royal Arch Masons present were: R. J. Brennan, grand superintendent; H. A. Collins, P.Z.; J. A. Cowan, P.Z.; Jas Glanville, P.Z.; T. P. Lee, P.Z.; Donald Ross, P.G.Z.; E. T. Repath, C. J. Smith, Col. G. S. Ryerson, Geo. P. Sharkey, H. E. Smallpeice, W. S. Milne, Dr. Bruce Nicholls, W. J. Street, F. C. Baker and W. Croft, Exs. Comp. Geo. McQuillan, Z., presided in the lodge room and at the banquet.

LARGE ORE SHIPMENTS ARE NOT APPRECIATED

Because of the Difficulties Which Have Arisen With the Smelting Companies.

World Office,
Saturday Evening, Nov. 16.

During the fore part of the week Cobalt stocks, owing to the immense ore shipments, were due to participate in a fair recovery, but the attitude of the New York market, the acuteness of the financial situation and the stand which the smelters have taken with regard to smelting Cobalt ore, were factors of a strong enough butting force to offset so favorable a feature as the largest ore shipments—i.e., 492,000 pounds—that ever left the Cobalt mining camp. The foregoing bearish proclivities may before long be removed; there is a possibility of this, and as a remainder, the ore output of the camp will be on a concrete basis upon which to build speculation for the future. Of course, the completion of Canadian smelters may solve the riddle of handling the ore to great advantage. In the meantime many of the mines are reducing their staffs and curtailing expenses, but it is thought this will not obtain for any length of time.

The New Eldorado.

Anson A. Gard, widely known as "the Wandering Yankee," is in Toronto, just down from Northern Ontario, where he has been collecting material for his tenth Canadian book, "The Real Cobalt."

"I am writing my tenth book," he says. "This is on Cobalt.

"One must be upon the ground to appreciate the magnitude of this silver belt.

"So much have the people of the outside world seen of Cobalt and its immediate surroundings that they have not given thought to what lies beyond.

"A new Cobalt lies up the Montreal River, some 50 miles from Latchford, where silver is being found on the very surface.

"The second township north of Coleman is Hudson. Here are found some showings of copper, that indicate great richness. Gold is also found, but not as yet in paying quantities.

"Along the T. & N. O. Railway but little is being done, until we reach Boston and Otto, some 50 miles north of Haileybury. In Otto are many fine prospects. I visited the Crawford Mines at Bell's Camp and found that what has been said of their mineral worth was not overdrawn.

"McDougall Chutes, 204 miles north of North Bay, is sure to become another mining centre. In Munroe some immensely rich finds of copper and gold have been made.

"At Night Hawk Lake, directly west of McDougall 25 miles, the find of 'The Two Swedes' must go down in history as one of the romances of the camp. The Two Swedes' are Finns. They came to Port Arthur in 1896. They prospected ever since, but to little purpose, until going to Night Hawk Lake last summer, where they made the discovery that must make famous the names of Victor Mattson and Harry Banala.

"Larder Lake is such an old story that to tell of it would be but repeating.

"We are only waiting till the mill starts, and then we will show to the world what we have at Larder.

"If a hundredth part of the stories told of Larder Lake's richness be true, then indeed is it a new Eldorado."

Broker Secures Game.

James A. McIlwain, mining broker, who went to the Wahnipitae district to hunt two weeks ago, has returned to town with three deer and a brown bear as trophies of the chase.

The Piano All Can Play.

The tired business man who owns one of our player pianos comes home to his concerts instead of having to go out to them. He selects his own program—operatic, popular, classic, dance music—whatever his mood suggests. Anyone can play one of these automatic interior player pianos that come from a splendid selection in the warerooms of Heintzman & Co., 115-117 West King-street.

The Home of The Title & Trust

Everybody doesn't know yet where we are and what we are, and in order to familiarize the public with our location on Bay street we print a cut of the building. The company is organized to make a special feature of Title Insurance, which guarantees property owners against any possible loss through defective titles. In addition we are also acting as

Executors, Trustees, Assignees

and as agents in all matters calling for careful and responsible management. The organization includes the following

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

E. F. B. JOHNSTON, K.C.	HON. W. A. CHARLTON
NOEL MARSHALL	W. J. GAGE
GEO. H. HEES	W. R. HOBBS
W. K. GEORGE	J. B. TUDHOPE, M.P.P.
R. WADE	ALLAN McPHERSON
J. A. KAMMERER	JACOB KOHLER, M.P.P.

and gives absolute assurance of thorough and painstaking devotion to your interests. The very fact of our being a new company is encouragement enough for us to do even better than you expect.

Send for descriptive booklet on "Title Insurance," by way of an introduction.

SHOOTS DAUGHTER AND SELF

Prominent Frisco Politician Commits an Awful Crime.

SANTA CRUZ, Cal., Nov. 16.—Major Frank McLaughlin, prominent politician and capitalist, shot his daughter, Agnes, in the temple to-day, the bullet coming out on the other side of her head. Soon after he committed suicide.

The girl is still alive, but unconscious. No hope is entertained for her recovery.

Many will be glad of another opportunity to hear Miss Jessie Irving of Hamilton, who appears at Association Hall, Thursday, Nov. 21, at the C.O.F. grand concert. Her genial presence, her artistic temperament, her magnetism, enable her to deliver her selections in a manner that captivates her audience.
