

A LITTLE STRONGER.

Cables Were Higher and Speculation Was Broader.

No Change in the Cash Situation at Chicago—Strength in Wheat—Advanced Corn and Oats—Provisions Ruled Very Firm—Latest Commercial News.

Thursday evening, Nov. 17. Speculation was somewhat broader on the Chicago wheat market today, and there was considerable liquidation of Dec. wheat. Prices advanced slightly. Dec. closing at 87½c and May 77½c. There is no change in the cash situation.

Export and shipping of flour, grain and provisions from Chicago to the Atlantic seaboard by the all-rail lines amounted last week to 113,000 tons, against 127,000 for the week previous and 97,000 tons for the corresponding week last year.

Chicago Price Current. Mild weather and occasional snows are advancing the growth of wheat and conditions generally are good. There are more frequent references and increased apprehension of dry, but little evidence of actual drought. Disappointment in the corn yield. The interior marketing of corn is a little more liberal. The wheat movement is light. The week's packing of hogs was 485,000, against 520,000 last year.
