Alleged Assault Case in Police Court

An employee of the Grand Trunk carworks appeared in the police court this morning to answer to a charge of assaulting a boy who works in the shops with him.

The case was not gone on with this morning, but it is alleged that the man became angered at the boy yesterday and struck him over the head with an iron bar. Dr. Seaborne attended him. The case was adjourned for a week, and the man was bailed in the sum of $200. He says the affair was accidental.

Woods Found Guilty.

Harry C. Woods, a young man from Lambeth, who was arrested on the complaint of some little girls near Chelsea Green last week, was found guilty of conducting himself improperly and sentenced to six months in the Central Prison.

Allowed to Go.

Leroy Briggs, the young man who is walking from Chicago to New Brunswick, and was overtaken with sickness while on the way, was allowed to go this morning. Briggs has spent a month in jail and his health is much improved.

R. Blackwell, a vag, was remanded for a week.

Ira Halliday, for being drunk, was fined $10 and $2 costs.

Several first-time drunks were let go.

Salvation Army Plan Big Services

A series of revival services are to be held this week at the South London branch of the Salvation Army, corner of Tecumseh and Edward streets, under Ensign and Mrs. Ritchie, who are in charge of the corps there. On Thursday night the meeting will be in charge of the singing Irishman and others. On Sunday the day's service will be conducted by the provincial commander, Col. Sharp, assisted by the provincial staff.

On Monday evening the colonel will give a lecture on missionary work in Newfoundland. Mr. Sharp has twice been in charge of the work in this interesting country, and knows the ground thoroughly. The lecture will be illustrated by 120 slides illustrative of the life in the fishing colony, and 2,500 feet of moving picture film will show the life of the Grand Banks in actual operation.

Meetings will be continued in this district for some time to come, as those in the past have been decidedly successful.

It had been expected that a series of revival services would be held in the central hall, running from Dec. 9 to 16. Col. Bengle, the celebrated American revivalist, was to have charge. Word was received at the local headquarters this morning that Col. Bengle, owing to a death in his family, had been compelled to return home, and as a result these meetings have had to be postponed indefinitely till Mr. Bengle is able to return.

London Men Bagged a Big Bear

Mr. J. J. Hurlock, of Appin, has just returned from a hunting trip in the Parry Sound district. He reports fine sport. The party, which consisted of William Tills, George Lewis, Alf Stanley, all of Ballymote, and Mr. Burt Haya, of London, succeeded in getting a number of fine bucks. Mr. Hurlock himself had the satisfaction of bagging a very fine bear that weighed dressed something over 200 pounds, and a cut of about 75 pounds. Mr. Hurlock reports plenty of deer, where the dogs have not frightened them into seeking other grounds. Great numbers of deer are coming down over the Canadian Northern. It is reported over 900 were shipped down in one day, and 70 or 80 on one train being a common occurrence.

EAST END CITIZEN SUFFERS PARALYSIS

Mr. A. B. Lane, of York Street, Taken Suddenly Ill.

While walking along Dundas street shortly after 10 o'clock this morning, Mr. A. B. Lane, of 722 York street, was seized with a paralytic stroke. He was carried into McCallum's drug store by passersby. Dr. H. A. Kingsmill was summoned, and had Mr. Lane removed to his home. His condition is quite critical at the present moment. His right side is completely paralyzed. It will not be known for a day or two what the outcome of the stroke will be.

His wife is a daughter of the late Mrs. Leathorne, who was found dead in bed yesterday.

A CONCERT IN THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Given Last Night by the Members of the Band of Hope.

About 30 members of the Band of Hope of Egerton Street Baptist Church gave an entertainment at the Southern Congregational Church last evening, under the auspices of the Good Templars of the latter church.

The programme consisted of songs, dialogues and recitations, and was greatly enjoyed by the large audience. At the conclusion of the entertainment refreshments were served.

HYATT AVENUE CHURCH IS VERY PROSPEROUS

Meeting Last Night of the Quarterly and Trustee Boards.

A meeting of the quarterly and trustee boards of the Hyatt Avenue Methodist Church was held last night. The treasurer's report showed the finances of the church to be in a highly satisfactory condition. The reports also showed the attendance to be steadily growing at both Sunday and week day services.

Messrs. Ed Phoenix, A. Tutt and J. H. Moyer were appointed for the congregation to the Sunday school board.

Mr. G. Dengate was instructed to level the lawn of the church and prepare it for seeding.

Messrs. G. A. Andrus and T. Bates were named auditors.

Arrangements were made for the holding of a missionary campaign in January. If possible, a revival campaign will be arranged for February.

The church anniversary on the last Sunday in February is also being arranged for.

General satisfaction was expressed at the prosperous condition of the church, and the work of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Baird, was spoken of in eulogistic terms.

COURT FOREST CITY HELD A MEETING.

High Court Representative Addressed the Gathering.

The regular meeting of Court Forest City, No. 5744, was held in the court rooms in Foresters' Hall, corner of Dundas and English streets, last evening, and was addressed by Bro. F. G. Butt, high court representative, of Toronto. Bro. Emery occupied the chair.

The members are taking a lively interest in the carpetball games which will be commenced on Tuesday, Dec. 15. The trophy, which was donated by High Chief Ranger Walter Richards, has been won for the past two years by Court Stella, also of the east end, and should it come into their hands again this year they will take permanent possession of it.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH SUPPER AND CONCERT

He'd Last Evening in King Street Church—A Large Audience.

The second annual church supper and concert of King Street Presbyterian Church was held last evening the edifice being crowded to capacity.

The supper was held from 5:30 to 8 o'clock, and was greatly enjoyed. Th following programme was then carried out: Solos by Mr. Florie, Miss Mina Taylor and Miss Ware. Recitations by Mrs. Perrie, Miss Walker, and Mr. Thos. Alexander.

Rev. James. Rollins occupied the chair and Mr. Roselle Pocock presided at the piano.

KEENY—GARTLEY

Young Couple Made One in St. Mary's Church This Morning.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Mary's Church this morning by Rev. Father McKeon, the rector, when he celebrated the nuptial mass of Miss Jane Gartley, of Westminster, and Mr. Martin Keeny, late of Kenora, and now of Westminster.

The groom was assisted by his brother, Robert Keeny, of Kenora, and the bride by Miss Minnie Healey, also of Kenora. The happy couple will reside in Westminster.

ALDERMANIC CANDIDATES FOR EAST LONDON.

Several More Names Have Been Mentioned for the Council.

Aldermanic candidates continue to crop up in the east end, and a number of names have been mentioned among the probabilities. Among those so far mentioned are Mr. F. B. Hemsworth, of 866 Van street; Col. Colby, Mr. Geo. Stinson, of Rectory street; Mr. Henry Pocock, of Redan street; ex.-Ald. John Forristal, of the London and Petrolea barrell works; Ald. Rose, Ald. Parsons and Ald. Moorhead.

The three gentlemen who now represent the east end have made no statement, but will probably again be in the field.

LATE MRS. LEATHORNE.

The funeral of Mrs. M. Leathorne, who was found dead in bed at her home, King street, yesterday morning, has been postponed until tomorrow afternoon, as her daughter, Mrs. Fox, of Cleveland, has not yet arrived in the city.

Interment will be made in Mount Pleasant Cemetery. Rev. G. N. Hazen will probably conduct the services.

PASSENGER SAYS HE WAS BADLY TREATED

While Riding on an Oxford Street Car the Other Night.

According to a Rectory street man, one of the conductors on the Oxford car line is over officious ,and sometimes warlike. A few nights ago the man in question boarded an Oxford car and seated himself in it. Four or five men were speaking loudly behind him, and when the conductor heard the talking he ordered the peaceful one to keep quiet.

The East Ender replied that he had said nothing, and according to his story, was struck in the face by the "con." His hat was knocked off, he claims, and he was compelled to jump off the moving car and walk back two blocks to get his hat, the conductor refusing to stop for him.

The passenger is now carrying an abused face and says he has reported the matter to the management.

COLORED COUPLE'S HOT ROW

the head with her daughter-in-law's hand-satchel.

A General Fight.

The fight became general and somebody called for a razor. Fearing that a slashing bee was about to take place Mrs. Prior ordered everybody from her house and took Mrs. Williams, junior, and threw her out into the kitchen.

Mrs. Williams (same person) rushed in again before the door could be closed, and attacked her husband, hitting him several times on the head. She said she was going to kill his mother.

The aged lady was frightened and ran out of the house and tried to hail a street car.

A Bad One.

The car did not stop and Mrs. Williams was nearly up to her when Gilbert Williams caught up to his wife, who was about to throw a stone at his mother.

Mr. Williams tried to restrain his wife, and she turned on him, hitting him a number of times.

Williams escaped by running down the C. P. R. tracks.

Mrs. Williams then went to the police station to lay an information against her husband charging him with assault.

Another Row.

While she was waiting in Mr. Moule's office, in came Thomas Logan, a son of Mrs. Prior.

He no sooner saw Mrs. Williams than he rushed at her and tried to choke her. She landed on his face with a heavy left swing and followed it up with another.

Then she brought her trusty handsatchel into play and rained blows on Logan's head, while he tried to knock her down.

Things looked black to Police Court Clerk Moule. He tried to separate them, but failed, and hurried downstairs and got two big policemen, who arrested Logan and tried to calm Mrs. Williams, who was ready for another fight with anyone who happened along. Her husband was arrested a little while after.

Magistrate Referees.

After hearing the evidence, Magistrate Love told Mrs. Gilbert Williams that she ought to be ashamed of herself for hitting an old lady like Mr. Williams' mother, and he held that Williams was justified in what he did and released him.

Logan, Magistrate Love thought, had acted in a manner altogether unnecessary, and he was fined $5 and $4 60 costs, and bailed in the sum of $200 to keep the peace towards Mrs. Williams for six months.

No Chance.

"I think there is little chance of you and your husband living together happily," said Magistrate Love to Mrs. Williams," and you had better agree to disagree, and come up to my office in a few days and arrange a separation."

GENERAL SESSION CONCLUDED WORK

Grist of Routine Business Was Transacted Yesterday.

The general session of the London Conference special committee was held yesterday afternoon in the First Methodist Church, when much routine business was transacted. The request of K. J. Beaton, who asked to be permitted to take work in Elm Street Church, Toronto, while in attendance at college, was considered, and after some discussion, was finally granted. Steps were also taken for supplying the place of the late Rev. Mr. Penhall, who died suddenly a short time ago in the Moncton circuit.

WILL TURN FIRST SOD THIS AFTERNOON

Toronto, Nov. 18.—There was a brilliant gathering of members of the provincial cabinet and Legislature members of the hydro-electric power commission and others at the Parliament buildings for the luncheon today given to mark the ceremony of turning the first sod for the Government power transmission lines. Short speeches were made by the Premier, Hon. Adam Beck and others. The ceremony proper takes place in the Exhibition Grounds this afternoon. The weather is rainy, and much of the fine effect of the sport will probably be spoiled, but there are indications of a large crowd being in attendance.

Local Items

—The condition of Walter Bell continues practically the same at Victoria Hospital.

—The case of the Indian boy, who yesterday appeared before Judge Macbeth to answer to the charge of stealing, was again remanded till Saturday.

Late Mrs. Deadman.

The funeral of Mrs. James M. Deadman was held this afternoon to Mount Pleasant Cemetery from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Jarvis, 63 Elmwood avenue, and was of a private nature.

Refused to Elect.

Wm. Mathers, who was committed by Squire Chittick on the charge of stealing a set of harness from his father, and who refused to elect when he appeared before Judge Macbeth on Monday, again appeared today, and once more refused to elect. He was remanded to appear for trial at the December session. The interval he will spend in the seclusion of Castle Carter.

Petition for Winding Up at Toronto.

A petition has been filed for the winding up of the Berlin Steel Gocart Company, Wm. Valeres Uttley, of Berlin, a creditor for $219 75, is the petitioner. The total debt is $19,475 72, and there are no realizable assets. Among the creditors are A. R. Williams, Toronto, for $4,802 55 for material, and the Sturgis Steel Gocart Company for $3,000 for patents.

POWER LITIGATION IS NOT STOPPED

ing letter which I wrote the Hon. Adam Beck on the 25th of September last:

London, Canada, Sept. 25, 1908.

Hon. Adam Beck, Chairman Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario, and the said Commission:

Smith Vs. London.

Dear Sirs,—In this action, among other things, it is charged that the power contract between the commission and the municipal corporation was obtained by misrepresentation, and that you, as chairman, and others, with your authority, made the misrepresentations complained of in this action. If you desire an opportunity to defend yourself and the commission against these charges, kindly let me have the consent of yourself and of your fellow minister, the Attorney-General, to your being made parties to the action as required by the statute, and I will at once have the necessary steps taken, so that you shall have the fullest opportunity to deny, and if possible, disprove, the charges made. Unless the consent of your fellow minister is obtained, as you know, this branch of the case may not be cleared up. If you desire it cleared up kindly give the consent mentioned. Yours truly,

J. M. McEVOY.

P. S.—I inclose you a copy of the statement of claim in order that you may see the nature of the allegations referred to.

"It has taken him a long time," said Mr. McEvoy, "to answer the letter, but now I have my answer coming through a circuitous route from the commission to the 'Power Union,' from the 'Power Union' to the city council, and from the city council to me.

"The question whether the contract is, or is not, within the authority of the council to make, is still open to the courts to decide, and this despite the Attorney-General and his fiat, if he should refuse, which I do not think he will do."

The Marcell.

Probably as good an offering as has been made to the public yet is the Marcell, which is in the rich southwestern corner of James Township adjoining the Lucky Godfrey and Devlin properties, which have fine piles of sacks containing rich ore for shipment. Two engineers have reported on this property and every statement made is full of promise. It may not be generally known that the Government map shows The Marcell to have been the first claim staked in its immediate vicinity, and the richness of its showing was the cause of other claims being staked around it, which have also turned out to be very rich. On its capitalization and price of stock, and with the people who are behind it, certainly it looks to have a good future, considering the area it is in and the wonderfully rich exposures already made.

The members of the Canadian Club will hear President Falconer at their luncheon on Friday, Nov. 20. 14u
