CIVIL ACTION AS RESULT OF ALLEGED THEFT BY BOY

Unusual Case Entered In First Division Court.

William Cluff has entered action in No. 1 division court against Mrs. E. Norton for the price of a bicycle which, it is alleged, was stolen by her small son. This is the first action of this kind to be entered in London, the complainant generally entering a criminal action. The case will be heard on Friday, August 26.

According to E. W. Scatcherd, solicitor for the defendant, his client claims that on the day that the theft was alleged to have been committed, her son went to a ceremony at Mount Pleasant Cemetery, returned to the city and engaged in a sand fight with some other small boys, and then returned home She claims that he did not commit any theft on that day.

The 'Heal-All' of the Indians

There is an herb which grows wild on our Western Plains known as "Manzanita," and to which the Indians attribute wonderful healing virtue.

There is no question but that nature has bounteously provided in the roots and herbs of the field a remedy for many of the ills to which human flesh is heir. This is demonstrated by the wonderful success of that root and herb medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for more than forty years has been relieving women of America from some of the worst forms of female ills. It will certainly pay any woman who so suffers to try it.

This Leaves the Arms Free from Hairy Growths

(Toilet Talks.)

A simple method for completely removing every trace of hair or fuzz is here given. This is painless and usually a single treatment will banish even stubborn growths. To remove hairs, make a thick paste with some powdered delatone and water, spread on hairy surface and after about two minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This method will not mar the skin, but to avoid disappointment, be certain you get delatone.

The meeting is scheduled for three days, September 7, 8 and 9. Last year's gatherng was held in Ottawa. Among the several important problems to be thoroughly considered will be "Prevention of Unemployment" and the "Harvest Labor" issue. A representative direct from the British ministry of labor will be in attendance.

ASKS DAMAGES FOR A FLOODED CELLAR

Princess Avenue Resident Instructs Solicitors To Move Against City.

Because his cellar was flooded during the recent storm, George Bushby, 622 Princess avenue, has instructed his solicitors, Judd & Henderson, to enter action against the Corporation of the City of London for $500 damages. He claims that the damage was caused because of negligence on the part of the city in opening a drain near his residence.

AUTO ENGINE FACTORY ONLY A PIPE DREAM, SAY C. OF C. OFFICIALS

Although the London Chamber of Commerce is usually the first organization in this city to learn of any prospective industry for this city, the officials of that organization have heard nothing of an alleged auto engine company desirng to locate here.

According to a report emanating from a mysterious source, a company composed of city and Western Ontario capitalists has been endeavoring to secure a site for a $500,000 concern which will manufacture entirely engines for motor cars and trucks. In the estimation of the officials of the Chamber of Commerce, the whole story is either a pipe dream or a stock-selling proposition.

Immediately on reading of the proposed industry, the acting secretary of that organization took the matter up with President John Bridge and other officials, but none of them had even heard a rumor of the proposition. Further investigation carried on among officials of the city failed to elucidate matters.

DENIES OFFICERS CLOSED PORT STANLEY GAMES

Provincial Officer Says Owners Shut Up Their Own Places.

Provincial Officer Arthur H. Palmer stated emphatically today that none of the games of amusement at Port Stanley had been closed by provincial or other officials. He stated that some of the operators of the games had closed them of their own accord, but none of them had been interfered with by the police.

FIRE ENGINE IS BUSY

The engine of the London fire department is in daily use at the corner of Victoria and St. George streets, busily pumping out the sewer at this section. After the floood of July receded, there was enough water left at this point to supply all the demands of the residents of the city.

A short time ago two electric pumps were set up to drain the sewer, but no headway was made, and the engine from the fire station was set up on Monday, and that it is proving to be successful is evidenced by the fact that over 400 gallons each minute are pumped out.

DEATH OF JOHN LANIGAN.

THREATEN LEGAL ACTION AS RESULT OF SUNDAY ACCIDENT

Three Citizens Claim Constable Chamberlain Drove Motorcycle Negligently.

If the corporation of the city of London or the London police commission fails to make settlement for damages alleged to have been sustained by Sam Bottrill, 283 Thames street; R. Harris, 649 Central avenue, and George Ryan, 498 Grey street, when they were riding in a buggy which was struck by a motorcycle officer Sunday night at the corner of Maitland and Dundas streets, they will commence legal action, they threaten. The matter has been placed in the hands of their solicitor, E. W. Scatcherd, who in turn has notived the police commission and the city of his clients' intentions.

They claim that on Sunday evening, August 14, Motorcycle Officer Leo Chamberlain was ridlng east on Dundas street on the wrong side of the road, negligently, and at an excessive rate of speed. Ryan claimed to have had his face cut, his wrist broken, his hip fractured and to have sustained other injuries; Harris, face cut, leg bruised, rib broken; Botterill, leg badly cut, head and arms bruised.

The horse was knocked down by the impact and is expected to die. Even if it does live it will be of no further use, it is claimed. All three men are at their homes under medical care.

Constable Chamberlain is in Victoria Hospital suffering from a broken collarbone and three broken ribs. He was answering an urgent call at the time the accident occurred. The motorcycle was completely demolished.

ARBITRATION BOARD ORDERS WAGE CUT

Reductions For Paper Mill Workers Ten To Twenty-Five Per Cent.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Wage reductions ranging from 10 per cent for skilled men to 25 per cent for common labor today were agreed upon by the board of arbitration considering the wage dispute between union paper mill workers and eleven newsprint manufacturing companies.

The award, which fixed forty cents an hour rate for outside common labor, affects about 12,000 workers, and will become effective August 22. The International Paper Company was not a party to the agreement.

The agreement provides for a return to the 1919 schedule of practically all classified position above common labor and paid below sixty cents an hour, and a 10 per cent reduction on all positions receiving sixty cents an hour and over. The average reduction over the whole list is given at 15 per cent.

A slightly lower rate, it was stated, was fixed for bag factories, craft and specialty paper mills.

The agreement will continue in effect to May 1, 1922, but is subject to reopening by either party after December 1, 1921.

The same wage scale was fixed for both Canadian and United States manufacturers.

$200,000 BEQUEST FOR PRESBYTERIANS

Mrs. Eddie Also Left Large Sum To the McGill University.

OTTAWA, Aug. 17.—The Presbyterian Church of Canada, McGill University, and Dalhousie University are among the chief beneficiaries of the estate of the late Mrs. E. B. Eddy of Hull. The will was filed for probate at the Hull courthouse this afternoon. The aggregate of the will shows that the deceased lady left an estate of around three and one-half million dollars. The bulk of the estate consists of personal property, bank and other stocks, bonds, and real estate.

To the Presbyterian Church of Canada the sum of $200,000 is bequeathed, while the McGill University receives the same amount for the establishment of a chair or chairs to be known as the "E. B. Eddy Chair." The grant of half a million dollars to Dalhousie University is to be continued, and the remaining unpaid instalments, which amount to around $185,000, are to be continued and paid off out of the estate.

Other beneficiaries are Robert T. Sheriff, a brother; Mrs. E. J. Richardson, of San Diego, Cal., a sister, schools in Chatham, N. B., and hospital in Newcastle, N. B.

DELAY ENFORCEMENT OF NEW REGULATION

OTTAWA, Aug. 17.—The customs regulations requiring that all goods imported into Canada shall bear the name of the country where they were manufactured will not come into effcet until December 31. This was provided by an order-in-council made public at the department of customs and excise this afternoon. The customs act as amended at the last session of Parliament provides for this change in the regulations becoming effective on October 1. When a deputation of importers from Toronto, Ottawa and Montreal met the minister of customs, however, objection was taken to the date, the importers pressing for delay on the ground that a good deal of fall merchandise had been already purchased and some of it packed, and that marking, in its present condition would be impossible.

LIVESTOCK INDUSTRY IS PROMISED HELP

CALGARY, Aug. 17. — Asusrance from Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, premier of Canada, that the Dominion minister of agriculture, Dr. Tolmie, was earnestly considering the condition of the live stock industry of Canada, and that every possible solution would be dealt with immediately and definitely, was received here today by a member of the board of trade committee investigating live stock conditions. This assurance caused great satisfaction in local live stock association circles, and was regarded as auguring prompt and adequate action to meet the situation.

BABY BURNED TO DEATH.

TORONTO, Aug. 17.—Allan Jardine, the 14-months-old baby boy of Nueman Jardine, was burned to death when the house was destroyed by fire at Trout Hill, near here, today. Mrs. Jardine lit a fire in the coal oil stove, and went out to a nearby neighbor, about 100 yards away, to get some milk. She left the child asleep in its cot upstairs. While Mrs. Jardine was away the stove, it is presumed, exploded, and the kitchen took fire.

DIVISION COURT PROCEDURE SUBJECT OF AN ADDRESS

Lion's Cubs Listen With Interest to Cub Graham.

One continuous roar emanating from the region of the private dining-room of the Tecumseh House at the luncheon hour today was emphatic and adequate rebuttal to the impression registered in various quarters that the Lions Club had become extinct. The local branch of that association, although a comparative youngster beside similar organizations of London, is quietly but surely forging ahead, as was clearly evidenced by an encouraging intimation at today's gathering by Cub Roy Routledge, president, that a goodly number of prospective members are to be ushered into the club within the next month.

An interesting address on "Division Court Procedure," by Cub Charlie Graham featured today's meeting. In his characteristic manner, replete with humor, the Cub undertook to explain briefly just how one should go about collecting a legitimate debt, or what to do to meet such an obligation.

In the course of his remarks the speaker explained that while there was considerable agitation just recently over fees for county constables, many people were beginning, he said, to wonder whether or not the fee system might not be eliminated from all government undertakings.

The Government, however, he said, had decided that such would not be done with reference to actual court proceedings of such a nature as the division court for instance. He cited cases where the present "fee" system was by far the best procedure. It made it imperative, he said, for those scrappy individuals who persisted in fighting their cases, however trivial, until the "last ditch," that they should pay for the time and effort of clerks, crowds of witnesses, crown attorneys, judges and all concerned, who were drawn into a controversy.

Commenting generally upon the effectiveness and speed of division courts, the speaker pointed out that the prevailing system had been studied by other countries and had actually been copied by numerous states of the Union.

HOME BREW LEGAL UNDER AMENDMENT

U. S. Householders May Have Beer If Selling Not Suspected.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—Any United States householder could have his own home brew, under interpretations placed upon an emendment to the Willis-Campbell beer bill approved today by the House.

The amendment, adopted as a substitute for a Senate provision, would require federal agents to have warrants before entering homes in search for liquor. It provides, however, that no warrant shall be issued for search of a home "unless there is reason to believe such dwelling is used as a place in which liquor is manufactured for sale, or sold."

Representative Volstead, Republican, Minnesota, author of the original prohibition act, declared it would not change the policy of the prohibition enforcement bureau in reference to home brewing.

GOVERNMENT SEAT MOVED TO CAESAREA

Advance of the Greeks Causes Turks To Move.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 17. — The Turkish Nationalist Government has been transfered from Angora to Caesarea (Kaisarlyeh), 160 miles southeast of Angora, and the civil population of the Nationalist capital is being evacuated because of the advance of the Greeks, says a dispatch from Angora today.

The Turks intend to make a stand against the Greeks at the Sakaria River and if this position is lost they will fall back on Caesarea and Yozgad, 85 miles to the northwest of Caesarea.

A Paris dispatch of August 4 quoted advices from Constantinople as saying that the Turkish Nationalists had decided to evacuate Angora and retire on Caesarea.

COMMISSIONER RESIGNS; ALLOWANCE IS TOO SMALL

British Secretary For Trade Regrets Action—Cannot Grant Increases.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—Canadian Press.—In the House of Commons Sir William Mitchell-Thomson, parliamentary secretary for trade, announced that Senior Trade Commissioner Edwards, having charge in Canada and Newfoundland, had resigned because the office and traveling allow ances were inadequate for the proper performance of the functions of the office. The expenditure and allowances were considerably increased with the beginning of the current financial year, but a further increase could not be contemplated owing to the urgent necessity of economy. Therefore, there was no option but to accept Mr. Edwards' resignation, and this had been done with the greatest regret, in view of the admirable work Mr. Edwards had performed in the interest of British trade.

It is proposed to transfer the Milne trade commissioner headquarters to Montreal.

DECLARE TAX IS UNFAIR TO FARMERS

REGINA, Sask., Aug. 17. — Declaring that the administration of the provincial tax was unequal and unfair to the farmers of the province, E. G. Hingley, secretary of Sasaktchewan Municipalities, advocated two alternative proposals as a remedy for this condition to the provincial equalization tax commissioner here today. The first was to assess farm property on a basis of production, including buildings, which in the case of farms were mostly nonproductive, and deal with city property on the ground that the civic building was revenue-producing equivalent to the agricultural lands. The second proposition was to collect revenue from every person earning a living and able to pay.

LEAGUE COUNCIL TO CONSIDER SILESIAN QUESTION AUGUST 29

Paris, Aug. 18.—The special meeting of the council of the league of nations, to take up the question of Upper Silesia referred to it by the allied supreme council, will be held in Geneva, beginning August 29. Viscount Ishii, president of the league council, sent out an official call for the meeting today.

FORDNEY DECLARES HIS TARIFF BILL IS 'EQUITABLE MEASURE'

Washington, Aug. 18. — With Democratic opposition pledged as a result of the party caucus last night, general debate on the Republican tax revision bill was continued in the House today. The caucus, which was the fourth held in an effort to determine a program for the minority, was attended by 80 of the 132 Democrats in the House, and the vote for opposition was said to be unanimous. No indication was given of the probable attitude of those members of the party who did not attend.

Mr. Fordney, in outlining the Republican position on the bill, said it was "as equitable a measure" as was possible to draw "under the circumstances."

PRICES OF LUNCHES TO BE INVESTIGATED

BOSTON, Aug. 18.—A state-wide investigation of armchair lunch rooms, with especial reference to prices charged and quantity and quality of food served, is planned by the commission on necessaries sof life. The commission said complaints had been received from a number of cities. In some instances it was alleged that price cuts were followed by reduction in the size of the order or lowering of the quality of food.

PLANNING TO LOWER HIGH COST OF BIRTH

NEW YORK, Aug. 18. — A campaign to lower the high cost of birth has been launched by Commissioner Coler of the department of public welfare.

He declared that big fees charged by obstetricians keep down the birth rate in families with an income of $2,500 to $5,000. Asserting that this group was too proud to accept charity in city hospitals, and too poor to pay the rates prevailing in private hospitals, the commissioner announced he was admitting to municipal institutions patients able to pay moderate fees

ACCUSES HUSBAND OF CHEATING MOTORISTS

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—Mrs. Lillian LeBella, recently granted a divorce from Anthony LeBello, employee of a gasoline filling station, will receive $75 a month alimony because she said her husband makes $200 extra a month by cheating customers.

"How can you expect your husband to pay $75 a month alimony when his salary is only $165 a month?" Judge Samuel Stough asked Mrs. LeBello.

"Oh, he makes about $200 a month extra," the witness answered. "Motorists pay for the amount of gasoline they order, not for the amount the filler puts in their tanks. In this difference is where my husband makes his extra money."

INVESTIGATE LIQUOR SHIPMENT.

Sydney, N. S., Aug. 18.—That the new Nova Scotia liquor vendors commission has trouble on its hands early in its existence transpired here yesterday, when Rev. J. H. Hamilton announced that the Social Service Council intends to ask an investigation into the shipment by the commission of 20 barrels of liquor to a New Waterford physician for medicinal purposes. The shipment never arrived.

LINER MAKES FAST TRIP.

Quebec, Aug. 18.—The C. P. O. S. Empress of Britain arrived from Liverpool yesterday afternoon with 626 passengers, mail, and express and 400 tons of cargo. The Empress of Britain, though delayed somewhat by fog, made a quick passage. She left Liverpool last Thursday night.

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, Aug. 18—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—Rails and equipments carried yesterday's rally to greater lengths at the opening of today's stock market. Shorts evidently were apprehensive of financial relief for the transportation companies before the congressional recess, and covered contracts in those issues. Reading, Northern Pacific, Southern Pacific, Baldwin Locomotive, Pullman andE-Baldwin, Pullman and Westinghouse Electric averaged 1-point gains. Oils were irregular, Mexican Petroleum easing slightly, but soon recovering. oFod and tobacco shares were lower, and Industrial Alcohol, on which dividend action is expected today, also reacted.

1:30 p.m.—The market hardened again during the dull mid-session. Mexican Petroleum made up its loss, Studebaker recovered half its decline, and the strength of American Locomotive, which rose 1½ points, exercised a beneficial effect upon most other equipments, as well as steels.

U. S. TRADE DECREASE DUE TO WORLD-WIDE TRADE DEPRESSION

Washington, Aug. 18.—The decrease of over $3,000,000,000 in the value of the foreign trade of the United States during the past fiscal year was ascribed by the commerce department today to the world-wide trade depression coming as an aftermath of the war.

The total value of United States foreign trade dropped from $13,347,000,000 in the fiscal year 1920 to $10,171,000,000 in 1921, a decrease of 23.08 per cent, the statement showed.

"The foreign exchange situation," the department said, "also had an adverse effect on United States exports last year."

EXPECTS UNEMPLOYMNT INSURANCE IN CANADA

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 18.—Unemployment insurance in the future was forecast by Hon. J. W. Deb Farris, attorney-general, at a meeting here yesterday between the Government and representatives of workers generally and returned soldiers. Some insurance system, he said, was bound to develop in Canada because of the experience the country is now passing through.

TEMPORARY PERMITS

ance act, as soon as an employment certificate is received for the said adolescent. He further agrees on the form to return the employment certificate to the school attendance officer from whom it was issued, within two days after the employment of the said adolescent terminates. Employment by any person other than that named on the certificate is unlawful.

Penalty for violation of the Adolescent school attendance act is a $5 fine for the first offence and $25 for the second or subsequent offences. In making application for employment certificates or home permits, parents or guardians of adolescents must give reasons for same.

The employment certificate is almost as exacting in its information as a government passport, thus eliminating all possibility of impersonation. Upon it is recorded the full name and address of adolescent concerned, date and place of birth, present age in years and months, school last attended, educational standing, color of hair and eyes, sex, distinguishing facial marks, authorized employer, nature of employment, and business address of employer.

Signature Required.

In addition to the signature of the school attendance officer that of the possessing adolescent is also required. Evidence of age accepted by the attendance officer may be, birth certificate, baptismal record, passport, attested immigration record, register of school first attended, authorized physician's certificate or record in family Bible.

Home permits require information concerning date of birth, sex, and home address of adolescent, along with reasons for issue. The attendance officer and adolescent concerned sign these permits.

Up to date Attendance Officer Weir has received 85 applications for employment certificates, or home permits from local parents or guardians of adolescents. He declares that the practice of sending out blank employment certificates to employers of adolescents to be collected from the latter after being filled in, must be discontinued, as the adolescents to whom those certificates are to be issued must first appear in person before the school attendance officer.

minister of highways, and others. Premier Drury recently stated when told of the fines that the actions of the county constabulary amounted to little less than persecutions. The matter was also taken up strongly by Dr. H. A Stevenson, M. P. P. for London, who used it as an argument against the fee system.

Motorists in London confidently expect that with their cases tried before competent magistrates, the alleged persecutions will stop. They have always laid the blame for the many fines at the door of the fee system, and it was pointed out that magistrates are not exposed to that temptation because they work entirely on straight salaries.

Act Misinterpreted.

It has been the contention that many of the so-called persecutions were due to misinterpretations of the motor vehicles act. It was claimed by Dr. H. A. Stevenson and the officials of the London Motor Club that the act was never meant to be used as a means of persecution and that actions of the constabulary and justices of the peace in taking advantage of technicalities should not be tolerated. It also has been claimed that the corner at Wellington road and Brick street, where the majority of the alleged infringements have taken place, is not a blind corner in the meaning of the act.

With competent authorities hearing the cases, it is the belief of the motorists that a proper interpretation will be put on the act in the future. It is felt that if many of the cases which have been tried before Squire Chittick, the county magistrate, this summer, had been tried before a magistrate, convictions would not have been made.

The Special Justices.

Besides A. H. M. Graydon, whose jurisdiction extends to all parts of the county, the following magistrates will have power to try cases in their respective territories:

C. W. Hawkshaw, Lucan, jurisdiction the village of Lucan and the township of Biddulph.

S. G. McKay, Ailsa Craig, Ailsa Craig and the townships of East and West Williams, McGillivray and the town of Parkhill.

D. C. McKenzie, Glencoe, the townships of Lobo, Delaware, Caradoc, Ekfrid and Lobo.

R. M. Trueman, Strathroy, the town of Strathroy and the townships of Metcalf, Adelaide, Lobo and Caradoc.

Following is the letter received by the various justices of the peace from the department of justice:

"Dear Sir,—Pursuant to the police magistrates extended jurisdiction act, which went into force on July 1 1921, the Government is so extending the territorial jurisdiction of the police magistrates that each municipality will be covered by a police magistrate's commission, and for the future justices of the peace will try no cases except bylaw cases. (See section five of the police magistrates' extended jurisdiction act, 1921, chapter 42, of the Ontario statutes for 1921).

"You will still remain a justice of the peace and may exercise all the powers of the office, except as above states. If an information is laid before you, in other than bylaw case, and you issue process, please see that the same is returnable before the police magistrate having jurisdiction.

"You will be entitled to the regular fees for your services. Your account for fees in cases other than those under bylaws should be presented to the police magistrate who will try the case, and he will add the same to the costs in the case. If you are in doubt as to what police magistrate has jurisdiction in any locality, the crown attorney will inform you.

"The Government extends its thanks to you for your faithful services in the past and hopes for a continuance of your co-operation in law enforcement."

LONDON MERCHANTS

almost every line of merchandising trade.

Rush for Ferns.

A flower store advertised Boston ferns at a dollar each, and got a crowd of customers that would have done credit to a fire sale in a popular-priced drygoods store. In the old days, nobody ever supposed that bargain-hunters would get up early in the morning to buy ferns. They would have just as readily been persuaded to tramp six miles out into the woods and dig up wild ferns themselves. Besides the quiet and restful atmosphere that used to go with a windowful of ferns or a flower store in general would have been sacrilegiously violated by dollar-day posters and a crowd of clamoring purchasers, each wanting the fern farthest to reach in the window. But dollar day has overcome all prejudices.

Jewelers, Also.

Even the ultra-exclusive jewelry stores have cast off their old aristocratic trade prejudices and had not the least bit of objection to catering to the crowd of bargain-hunters this morning. Set out in the middle of most of the jewelry stores were attractive tables of dollar-day specials—vases, hair ornaments, fountain pens, salt and pepper shakers, hatpins, brooches, chains, bead necklaces, novelties and souvenirs. And the shoppers parting with their dollars admired the regular lines in the showcases and decided to come in on a quieter day themselves or bring their friends to look more leisurely at higher-priced goods. Dollar day is good business from the jeweler's standpoint as well as from the draper's standpoint or the grocer's standpoint.

Dollars Were Saved.

Grocery stores specialized in dollar assortments of staple lines of food. A year or two ago some of the dollar bargains would have cost five dollars. Quite a few cents on a great many lines could be saved by the housekeeper visiting the grocery stores downtown today, and in the aggregate of her purchases there were dollars saved.

Blocked the Sidewalk.

A men's clothing store had a crowd waiting at 8 o'clock this morning that completely blocked the sidewalk traffic on the north side of Dundas. Crossing to the south side, the hurried pedestrian fared no better, for here a shoe store was besieged by a crowd equally as great The clothing store was a big concern with lots of store space. It soon swallowed up the crowd, and the street became reasonably passable. But the shoe store, although also a big concern in its line, had less store space, as shoe stores usually do. Right up to noon, the door had to be opened and locked, admitting only as many customers as there was room for in turn.

Hardware Stores Share.

The novelty and smallwares stores did regular Saturday night business from an early hour this morning. The hardware stores shared in the overplus of the crowds. The shopper with many kinds of purchases to make got the bargain he sought in some one or more lines. Fortunately the early bird couldn't get the worm at all stores unless the early bird had a whole family of confederates to assist him. And in many cases, this is just what happened.

Families Co-Operated.

Mother stayed in line at the drygoods store, sister got in with the first rush at the drug store, brother Jack was delegated to snap up the bargains that awaited at the shoe store, and little Willie was intrusted with securing the paint and varnish specials at the hardware store, while the neighbor's family co-operated in covering an equal number of stores.

Businessmen who worked in quiet offices laughed at the dollar day crowds as they went by to work. "I wouldn't stand in line like that for two dollars," said one observer. "Why, there's two or three men in the crowd! I suppose their wives make them do it."

Joke on Everybody.

Noon hour came, and the very same observer couldn't resist the temptation to investigate the bargains in the haberdashers on the way to the restaurant. In the store he fell in with another office man who told him about a different line of bargains at the men's furnishings store across the road. Alackaday, over there he met more acquaintances who told of the bargains secured at some other stores, and at three minutes to 1 o'clock he reached a crowded restaurant with no place in sight to deposit his purchases. Shame overcame him as he returned hungry to the big office building, but the man in the next office was carrying bargains too, so the dollar day joke was on everybody.

On the Market Square.

On the market square there was a bustle that looked like Saturday morning. Farmers were selling at as a close a margin as they could. They wanted to pull the tarpaulin down over their trucks and wagons and go buying dollar day bargains themselves. And every available space was packed with autos, combined selling with buying on dollar day, but a great crowd of motorists came in almost as early just to make purchases. The railroads brought in crowds of shoppers, from east and west, from up the Stratford and Bruce branches, and over the Port Stanley electric line.
