The Veteran Chappell to Retire.

Sandwich, May 7.—Henry Chappell, the veteran horseman, now 83 years of age, contemplates selling his horses and retiring. He has taken an active interest in racing for nearly 70 years. Last year was the first for many years that he did not enter in the King's Plate, on account of poor health. He has a string of eight horses in training but does not expect to enter except in the Windsor meeting.

Sword Dance ran the mile in 1.51½, stepping the first furlong in 12 seconds, and the first quarter in 24¼ seconds. She was all in at the finish.

The turnout of members was exceptionally good, in spite of the cold weather and the enthusiasm display d gives every indication of a record year. It was decided that the membership be limited to 150 until new quarters are decided on, that will be ample to afford every convenience and pleasure to members. Special features were decided on that will boom things, and it is hoped that this will be the most successful year of the club.

The following officers were elected: Hon. president, F. M. Thomas; hon. vice-presidents, A. C. Good, Dr. Sheard, A. L. Cochrane; president, C. S. Norris; vice-president, W. C. Kettlewell; secretary, J. M. Goulnlock; assistant secretary, W. R. McEachren; treasurer, E. S. Davies; captain, Harry Cochrane; executive committee, J. G. Fleming, W. H. Richardson, N. G. Duffett.

The records of some of the British cross-country gentlemen riders are amazing to Americans. Take that of Captain Wentworth Hope-Johnston, for example. He has ridden in 1100 races, and won 332 of them. He fell 98 times, his horse refused to jump 28 times, and it is estimated that he has jumped approximately 23,000 fences.
