AT OSGOODE HALL.

The Law Society Making Arrangements for the Reception of Women as Barristers—A Question of Copyright Settled.

The Law Society of Upper Canada, which has done so much to elevate the legal profession in this province, is now, it is said, engaged in framing rules for the admission of ladies within the sacred precincts of the bar (legal). It is well known that there are no susceptible Judges at present on the Ontario bench, so that the effect of female eloquence on the future Judge must be left to be described by the pen of some Canadian Lecky. The Ontario statute, 55 Vic., chaptered 32, has but one terse section, which is as follows: "The Law Society of Ontario may in its discretion make rules providing for the admission of women to practice as solicitors," and the later statute of Ontario, 58 Vic., chaptered 27, has likewise only one section. It amends the first act simply by inserting, before the words "solicitors," the words, "barrister-at-law and." Someone at Osgoode Hall has been ungallant enough to hint that these statutes raise a difficulty in the way of any lady who desires either to practice quietly as a solicitor or blossom into a counsel. He says that there is no such a corporate body in existence as "The Law Society of Ontario." This contention seems at first sight to be correct, but most people say that no doubt some court or Judge will be found ready to amend these statutes in the interests of so "fair" a cause.

A CASE OF COPYRIGHT.

In Frowde v. Parish, the appeal was by the defendants from the judgment of Boyd, C., awarding the plaintiffs, who reside in England, damages, and granting an injunction. The plaintiff desires, no doubt, the Bible to be read throughout the wide, wide world. There is no royal road to learning, but there is to the study of the sacred text. The plaintiff shows this road in his book, entitled "Helps to the Study of the Bible," and, as the defendants were infringing his copyright, he obtained the judgment, from which appeal is taken. What the great Apostle to the Gentiles might have done at the trial is not in question. The Chancellor of Ontario restrained the infringement on the grounds mentioned in the report of the case, in 27 O.R., 526, and the Court of Appeal affirmed his judgment on this important matter, with costs.

A QUESTION OF DRUGS.

In Reg. v. Simpson Co. (limited), the Divisional Court reserved judgment. Alfred Brown laid an information before Lieut.-Col. Denison, Police Magistrate of Toronto, charging the company with keeping open shop, and retailing, etc., poisons, contrary to section 24 of the Pharmacy Act. Upon the facts before him, the Magistrate, following the Pharmaceutical Society of London, etc., 5 App., Cas. 857, dismissed the information, but stated a case under section 900 of the Criminal Code, so that his decision on the law might be reviewed by a Divisional Court.

A SURROGATE MATTER.

In Trusts Corporation of Ontario v Irvine, the Court of Appeal reserved judgment on the merits, and on Mr. DuVernet's preliminary objection that the appeal was not brought within the proper time, nor had the property security nor notice been given to the Registrar of the Surrogate Court of the County of Stormont, D. & G. The action in the Surrogate Court is to set aside letters of administration granted to defendant, who, it is alleged, is not a niece of the deceased, and the plaintiffs desired to use certain depositions of persons in Scotland, which had been taken in a former action for the same purpose in the High Court, but which had been dismissed by Armour, C.J., on the ground that the High Court had no jurisdiction. The Surrogate Judge refused to allow the depositions to be used, and the plaintiffs appeal.

E. R. Richardson, general storekeeper, of Mattawa, has assigned to T. McDermott.

P. Lewis, butcher, Sault Ste. Marie, has assigned to E. Trowbridge.

The creditors of T. Haney, boot and shoe merchant, of Shelburne, will meet tomorrow.

B. H. Lepard, general storekeeper, of Greenbank, is offering to compromise at 50c on the dollar.

Bertram & Gordon, fruit dealers, Hamilton, are reported financially embarrassed.

John McKibbon, general storekeeper, of Howard Township, has assigned to J. Hunter.

Cucumbers and melons are "forbidden fruit" to many persons so constituted that the least indulgence is followed by attacks of cholera, dysentery, griping, etc. These persons are not aware that they can indulge to their hearts content if they have on hand a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellog's Dysentery Cordial, a medicine that will give immediate relief, and is a sure cure for all summer complaints.

Russia Wants to Know.

The Ontario Department of Agriculture frequently receive inquiries from foreign countries as to their methods of dealing with the products of the soil. During the past week a letter was received by the Department from a Russian inspector of grains, asking for a copy of the latest Government bulletin. Another was received from the Department of Agriculture of New Zealand, asking for samples of grain. These will be forwarded with due expediency.

WELLAND'S TROUBLES.

The Town's Affairs in a Topsy-Turvy Condition Because of Strife Among the Councillors.

Welland Nov. 25.—(Special.)—It is seldom a corporation has the troubles and trials that at present are inflicted upon the ratepayers of the town of Welland. For several years no good business man would enter the town council, and the consequence is that the town is burdened with a tremendous debt and a high rate of taxation. The present council are at war with a resident who built a residence over a natural drain, but the matter was so bungled by the aldermen that it seems legally they have no right to remove the obstruction, and consequently after every rain one of the principal streets of the town is flooded, not to mention the damage to adjacent property. Lately the council ordered the electric lights to be taken out because the Electric Light Company would not go to the expense of raising the lights a few feet, and after Saturday night the pedestrians in the town will have to guide themselves after nightfall by the stars. Following upon this the School Board purchased at a big expense a large lot for a new school, and threaten to build a large central school, although there is plenty of accommodation in the four schools at present in use.

POLISH WOMAN KILLED.

A Number Were Crossing the Railway Track and the Engine Caught Them.

Detroit, Nov. 25.—The Scollen-avenue crossing was the scene of a frightful accident last night. A crowd of Polish women and girls returning from work attempted to cross the track ahead of a train, and as a result, one of them was killed and another probably fatally injured. The unfortunate victim was Rosa Kampista, aged 17. She was killed in sight of her mother, who narrowly escaped death herself. Her death was instantaneous, as she was thrown with such force as to break her neck, arms and legs. Mrs. Stella Debalski, her companion, had her right leg crushed, and was also severely cut about the head and face. Her leg was amputated at Emergency Hospital, and her condition is critical. She is 27 years old.

When England Came to Trinidad.

Arrangements for the celebration of the centenary of the British occupation of Trinidad are being made on a liberal scale at Port-of-Spain. His Excellency the Governor has nominated a large and representative committee, with himself as chairman, and Edgar Tripp, Port-of-Spain, Trinidad, Canadian Commercial Agent for Trinidad and Tobago, as honorary secretary, to carry out the program, which will extend over a week, commencing on Feb. 18, 1897.

The proposal to hold an exhibition on a large scale at the same time has been abandoned, but a smaller show, principally of an historic nature, may form part of the entertainment.

The winter climate of Trinidad is delightful and it is expected that many Canadians will attend this celebration, which, to exporters, will have a business side to it, as there are many openings for trade between Canada and Trinidad.

Full information will be furnished on application to N. Weatherston, Western freight and passenger agent, Intercolonial Railway, 93 York-street, Rossin House Block, Toronto.

ANOTHER ADVANCE IN WHEAT

The opening cables from Liverpool, showing an advance of 3¼d in wheat over night, took the speculative element by surprise. Although the bulls looked for a stronger market, the advance was beyond their comprehension, and many were induced to take profits on the Chicago market. The latter opened up 2c per bushel, but on realizing by the "longs" prices later in the day declined 1½c. The final prices in Chicago were about a fraction above the close of Tuesday. Prospects appear good for still higher prices, and holders of Canadian wheat expect a dollar a bushel before many moons.
