Semi-ready Homespun trousers for summer wear

It has been said that we cut and tailor the most perfect trousers in the trade. The same care and expert workmanship that won this praise for us is employed in the production of our homespun trousers.

These trousers are made of Blunoz aud Kilalo Homespun, in plain and fancy colorings. They are cut fairly full about the hips, and hang straight, taper to the bottom and fit snugly over the shoe. Some are made with permanent turn-up and belt

St. Margaret's College presented a scene of gaiety last night upon the occasion of its closing exercises. The lawn was illuminated with Japanese lanterns, and ice cream and refreshto escape from the heat of the concert hall. The feature of the evening was the program given by the pupils and ex-pupils of the college. It was listened to by an appreciative audience, numbering about 300. The opening number was a duet from "Athalia," by Mendelssohn; "The March of the Priests," by M.ss Robin Dickson and Miss Gladys Dixon. Miss Ruby E. Carter sang "Hushien," by Alicia Needham. This was followed by a reading, "In the Sunflower Time," by Jean Blewitt. "Dear Heart," by Tito Mattei, was rendered by Miss Ianthe Hardie and Miss Cora Patterson contributed two plane numbers, an Arabesque, by Erik Helmund, and a A woman feels an Raff Etude Melodique. A Chadwick Loan.

A debtor, on being sued, acknowledged that he had borrowed the money, but declared that the plaintiff knew at the time that it was a Kathleen Mavourneen loan. "A Kathleen Mavourneen loan." "A Kathleen Mavourneen loan." "Questioned the court, with a puzzled look. "That's it, your lordship—one of the "it may be for years, and it may be for ever" sort."—Birmingham (England) Post.
