POTATOES SELL AT $2 BAG ON MARKET

Hay Advances in Price Owing to Light Supply.

Because the farmers are busily engaged in clearing up their fall work before the winter sets in, very little produce has been offered for sale on the local market in the past two weeks.

Potatoes are in good demand, and are selling at $2 a bag in five-bag lots, and from $2 15@2 25 a single bag.

Hay took another jump in price, and is now quoted at $18@20 a ton. The scarcity in the past two weeks is the cause of the increase. Only 13 loads were offered for sale this week.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—Opening: Wheat—Dec., $1 04¾; May, $1 09½.

Corn—Dec., 46¾c; May, 51¾c.

Oats—Dec., 32¾c; May, 37⅜c.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—Active buying, ascribed largely to a profesional speculator here, had a bullish effect today on the wheat market. Offerings were readily absorbed, and the rising prices made some early selling run to cover. Bulls appeared to be basing their operations more or les son expectance that the president and his cabinet would find a solution for the threatened general railway strike. Opening quotations, which ranged from ¼c to 1¼c higher, were followed by a material further advance.

Corn and oats shared in the strength of wheat. After opening ⅛c to ½c higher, corn continued to ascend.

Oats started unchanged to ¼c higher and later scored additional gains.

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, Oct. 21—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—Selling of railroad shares on a moderate scale attended today's early dealings in the stock market. The refusal of the railroad labor organizations to cancel their strike order invited a renewal of profesional operations. Losses among the more prominent transportations extended from large fractions to a point. Northern Pacific and Great Northern showing especial pressure. Steels also were heavy on the poor statements issued by several of the independent companies for the first quarter of the year. Shippings, sugars and tobaccos recorded fractional recessions.

Albert Bean, a farmer of the 4th Concession, McGillivray, lost a horse on Oct. 17, under rather peculiar circumstances. He was driving a team hitched to a wagon, on the way home from Clandeboye, and met an automobile. The one horse took fright, reared up and fell over backward and sidewise, breaking a leg so badly that it was necessary to kill the animal at once. Neighbors helped Mr. Bean to bury the horse in a woodlot beside the road where the accident occurred. No blame whatever, attaches to the motorist.

Keep a Record of Your Securities

For the convenience of those desiring to keep a record of their securities we have prepared a concise and convenient SECURITY RECORD form for entering the name of the securities, date of purchase, amount, purchase price, annual income, time of interest or dividend payment, maturity, etc. Such a record is almost indispensable to security holders.

The close of the year is a good time to see that your holdings are all properly entered, or your list brought up to date. Go over your securities carefully. There may be some maturing at an early date which could, with considerable profit, be exchanged for long term securities. In this connection we shall be glad to make suggestions.

Copy of the SECURITY RECORD form will be gladly sent on request. The form is prepared with spaces for entering 25 items, 75 items or 125 items. Please state which is desired.

Custom tailored and ready-to-wear garments are unequalled in London. We buy often and sell mighty quick, taking small profits and giving you the benefit of these good business methods adopted by our growing firm. Our stock is sold six times in one year—which means the quickest turnover in Canada of any men's wear stock. Orth has no old leftover. We buy men's good apparel, that sells because we know how.
