MOLLY BRANT'S DELAWARE AFRICANDER GAME FIRST

Fort Hunter Unplaced in Sixth Race —Some Close Finishes on Slow Track.

Saratoga, N.Y., Aug. 11.—Molly Brant won to-day's stake race, the Delaware. She got away third, but at the half moved up and thereafter had things her own way. Stalwart was second by half a length. The track was slow. Tramotor, favorite in the third race, was never in the money, the second choice winning by more than a length. Malden, the favorite, was never headed in the steeplechase handicap. Neither Dick Hasse nor his jockey, Kelly, was hurt in their fall over the Liverpool. Kelly remounted, but did not finish. Third was easy for Burnt Hills, who won in a walk. The finish of the fifth race was a pretty one, Conkling and Old England being heads apart at the wire, after the latter had made the pace all the way. Africander proved his mettle by his decisive victory in the sixth. Butler let Fort Hunter make the pace until the turn into the stretch, where he slipped thru on the rail. Racing at Detroit.

Detroit, Aug. 11.—The season of thoroughbred racing in this vicinity will commence next Tuesday, at Highland Park, where the regular annual meeting of the Highland Park Club will be inaugurated. Already there are several hundred horses on the grounds, and by the time the bugle calls the horses to the post for the first race, on Tuesday, there will be close to 1000 horses on the grounds. Canadian horses will take a prominent part in the meeting, and one of the favorites for the Frontier Stake, which will be run on Tuesday, will come from across the line. Fort Hunter, winner of the Buffalo and Canadian Derbies, is owned by Nathaniel Dyment of Barrie. Scarfell, who will also run in the Frontier Stake, is owned by William Hendrie of Hamilton. Both colts are now at Saratoga, but will be shipped to Highland Park Sunday.

James R. Keene, winner of the $50,000 Great Republic Stake at Saratoga this year, is after the great English classic, the Derby. It is Mr. Keene's ambition to win this English race with an American bred horse, and he is confident that in Blucher he has the horse that will perform the feat. Blucher is eligible to the English Derby of 1905.

Big Attraction at Fort Erie.

The two special handicaps which will be the feature of the Fort Erie card to-morrow will bring together the best horses at the track and will in a fitting manner mark the close of the meeting, which has been most successful. A big crowd will go over on the G.T.R. special, leaving here at 11.30, and stopping at Hamilton, Merritton and Welland. The fare for the round trip is $2, and includes admission to the track. Sweet Marie Took $10,000.

New York, Aug. 11.—The grand circuit races were resumed at the Empire City track to-day on a fast track.

The stake feature was the $10,000 Knickerbocker, for the 2.14 trotting class. Sweet Marie was the choice at $200, John Mc. and Katherine at $70 each and the field at $15. Aristo led to the long distance, with the favorite second and John Mc. third. The favorite won in 2.10½. In the second heat Sweet Marie again won in an exciting finish.

In the 2.25 pace, for 3-year-olds, there was a field of six youngsters. Pools sold: Dorcas H. $24 and Buclock $25, while the balance of the field brought $3. Buclock led, when he broke, and Dorcas H. shot to the front, Teddy Weaver close up. At the head of the stretch, Simon Kenton looked dangerous, but he broke. Dorcas H. won by a length, Teddy Weaver second. Teddy Weaver led the field in the second heat to the ¾ pole, when Dorcas H. came with a rush and won.

For the 2.12 trot Stanley Dillon was favorite at $25 to $35 for the field. Gold Burr led off, Stanley Dillon and Black Thorn close up. At the three-quarter pole the favorite got his head to the front, but Gold Burr hung on to the finish, and was only beaten by half a length, with Lady Gail Hamilton a head behind.

For the 2.10 pace Darius was a top-heavy choice at $100 to $60. Dandy C. led to the three-quarter pole, when the favorite assumed a commanding lead, winning by two lengths.

The fielders had the best of it in the 2.21, for which Leta sold at even money. Louvain, a 6 to 1 shot, won with ease. Summary:

Shamrocks v. Elms.

The Shamrocks of Toronto Junction meet the Elms in a lacrosse match at Exhibition Park on Saturday, Aug. 13.

This should prove one of the finest games of the season, as both teams are playing good lacrosse. Both teams have played some very close games in the past and a very even contest will result, as victory will mean considerable.

The following players will represent the Elms in their Saturday game against the Shamrocks at Exhibition Park: B. Mitchell, R. Johnstone, H. Woods, F. Sinclair, W. McKenzie, S. Young, H. Bremmin, G. Howe, V. Armstrong, F. Tyler, F. Morrison, H. Galbraith, W. Tracey, W. Tuck, C. Patterson and Paton.

Big Game on Saturday.

The Tecumsehs and Chippewas will play their third game of the season at the island to-morrow afternoon, and as there is no particularly great difference between the two the game should be a close hard one. The Chippewas have learned to make their play clean from their experience at Brantford last Saturday and they must win to keep in the running. Tom O'Connor says his Irishmen will surprise the Indians. The Chips are still in the running, and if they win on Saturday their chances are good, and it takes a mighty good team to beat them on the island grounds. The Tecumsehs are the only 12 in the league who have done so, and dthe Chips have strengthened greatly since then:

Parkhill Beat Petroleas.

Strathroy, Aug. 11.—A close and keenly contested lacrosse match was played here to-day, between Petrolea and Parkhill. The game was the result of a protested match, played two weeks ago, which was thrown out and ordered to be played over on neutral grounds. The score was 1 to 0 in favor of Parkhill. A great many outside enthusiasts were present from Watford, Sarnia and the surrounding country. About 700 witnessed the contest. Brown Jackson of Seaforth umpired the game in a fair and impartial manner, and was busy thruout keeping the players within the rules of the game.

Athletics Will Play to Win.

St. Catharines, Aug. 11.—The coming contest between Brantford and the Athletics of this city, on Monday next, Civic Holiday, is causing widespread talk, and all kinds of rumors are going the rounds, not only in this city but also in most parts of Ontario that are interested in C.L.A. senior lacrosse. The principal rumor is that St. Kitts will allow Brantfords to win here on Monday, in order to try and keep the Tecumsehs from winning the championship. This is nothing more or less than a malicious libel, intended to injure the Athletics in the eyes of the lacrosse spotting world of Ontario. To this rumor the executive committee of the Athletic Lacrosse Club, as well as the team themselves, wish to give the most unqualified denial. The Athletics are not in the game-throwing business and never have been and will go on the field next Monday determined to beat Brantford.

Canoe Club Notes.

The representatives of the Toronto Canoe Club will leave to-night for the A.C.A. meet, now being held at Sugar Island, in the St. Lawrence River.

The main events in which the club is interested will be raced Saturday, and the local club expect to make a good showing.

Bloomfield and Brent, in both double and single blade, aim to lead the bunch. It is hardly likely a war canoe crew will be sent, but the crews will practise all next week for the club's annual regatta, to be held on Saturday, Aug. 20.

Special individual prizes for this race have been donated by Melville Miller, jr., and the interest is great. Attendance at practice will count in holding a place in the crew.

At the regatta the double-blade single is an international race, open to all competitors.

The 14-ft. dinghy race also is an open one and a large number of outside entries are expected.

It was altogether one-sided, Bradford scoring nine goals to Meaford's one. There was very little rough playing, only three being sent to the fence. There were about 600 spectators. This gives Bradford the championship of the district, they not having lost a single game.

Ingersoll, Aug. 11.—The league baseball game here to-day between Ingersoll and St. Thomas resulted in favor of the home team by a score of 11 to 8. Lou Scholes, champion oarsman of the world, was the guest of honor. At 4 o'clock the procession formed downtown, headed by the Foresters' Band, and included carriages, conveying Mr. Scholes, Charles L. Bailey of Toronto, donor of the Bailey Cup, emblematic of the league championship, and prominent townspeople. The Ingersoll and St. Thomas clubs also were in the procession. At the park M. T. Buchanan, ex-warden of the county, welcomed Mr. Scholes to Ingersoll, and on behalf of the local club presented him with a handsome gold-mounted umbrella. Mr. Scholes pitched the first ball. Charles L. Bailey caught and Mr. Carey was at bat, while W. D. Hook, president of the home club, umpired. Before the contest the teams lined up and Mr. Scholes gave each member a hearty handshake. TORONTOS' SECOND GAME FALKENBURG'S GREAT WORK

Baltimore Loses 14-Innings Game to Newark—Providence Beat the Skeeters.

Toronto went after Buffalo in great style in the second game of the series and beat the Bisons, not easily but cleanly, Falkenberg by his three-base hit won his own game with the stick. He pitched great ball all the way thru, too. Baltimore and Newark played a 14-inning game, Newark winning out by the score of 3 to 1. Montreal again shut out the Bronchos, while Jersey City fell down before Providence. The race in the Eastern is a pretty one. The record:

Club.	W.	L.	P.C.
Buffalo	51	34	.600
Baltimore	50	34	.595
Jersey City	46	39	.541
Newark	46	40	.535
Montreal	42	42	.500
Toronto	40	46	.465
Providence	36	47	.434
Rochester	25	61	.291

Games to-day: Buffalo at Toronto, Rochester at Montreal, Newark at Baltimore, Providence at Jersey City.

Toronto 3, Buffalo 2.

In the second game of the Buffalo series, the Torontos showed complete reversal of form and captured an interesting and close contest. It was nip and tuck from start to finish, with things at the start drifting in Buffalo's favor. The visitors were out to get a good lead in the opening innings, but only succeeded in pulling in one. After Clymer, first up, was out on Francis' throw to first, Courtney bounded one towards second, which Falkenburg was just able to pull down with his mitt and throw to Rapp, who missed the catch; the throw was a little wide and in front of the runner. Then Atherton secured a single to deep right field. Bruce, who was playing far back, up a beautiful throw, caught Courtney at third, trying to make two bases on the hit. This was Bruce's first work of the day, and it provoked unstinted and well-merited applause. Then Grimshaw came along with a high one to the left territory, which White missed, letting Atherton score.

In the second, Falkenburg passed LaPorte and then Nattress, and only fast fielding prevented damage. Rapp's good throw caught LaPorte at second, and Falkenburg nipped Nattress, who was napping at first.

Falkenburg fielded his position well in the third; he assisted two out and struck one out, thus rendering Carr's low throw of Clymer's bounder to Rapp unavailing. Wiedensaul quickly returned the ball to second. This is Carr's first bad throw in some time. In the fourth, after one was gone, Delehanty drove a high one to right; Bruce slipped and fell, but recovered himself in time to stop the ball. No score resulted, as Harley caught LaPorte, and Nattress fanned. Buffalo got their last run in the fifth; McAllister was hit by Falkenburg and went to second on Rapp's miss of Falkenburg's throw to catch him off the initial base. Kissinger then neatly sacrificed McAllister to third, and the latter came in on Clymer's slow brief hit over Francis. The Buffalo team as a whole played snappy ball and were out to win; they claimed everything. But it was not their day, and they went out 1-2-3 in the sixth, Francis doing some fast fielding and excellent throwing. In the seventh, after two were passed, Kissinger was passed and Clymer dropped one over short. But Courtney was easily assisted out by Falkenburg, and his bluff that the ball had hit his foot didn't go down with Umpire Egan, who unpired impartially thruout. Buffalo tried by hook and by crook to work in the tying run, but could not do so; Falkenburg, backed up as he was by excellent and opportune fielding, held them safe. Scores were prevented in the eighth and ninth by fast double plays.

Toronto did little in the first three innings, getting one hit and a charity. The Bisons' fast fielding prevented dangerous situations. The score was tied in the fourth. Harley came up and was passed; Wiedensaul scientifically sacrificed; Bruce's out, McAllister's passed ball and Rapp's opportune drive to centre tallied the run.

The game was won in the seventh; LaPorte's high throw to Grimshaw of Rapp's bingle left the latter safe; Francis sacrificed and Rapp came home leisurely on Falkenburg's three-bagger over first. Carr's high long fly to Atherton tallied Falkenburg.

Buffalo secured more hits, but they were widely separated; besides the Bisons' errors came opportunely for the Torontos. Falkenburg handed out magnificent ball, barring a tendency to wildness, and deserved to win. Bruce was given a popular ovation on his first appearance at the bat. Francis is certainly fielding well for Toronto; he took everything easily. The score:

Bruce on the Rubber To-Day.

Louis Bruce will pitch for Toronto at Diamond Park to-day in the final game of the series with Buffalo, and if he has his old-time success against the Bisons another victory will be chalked up to Toronto's credit. This will be the last championship game on the home grounds this month. The Torontos leave to-night for a trip around the circuit and do not return until Labor Day. The Bisons are very anxious to win to-day. Manager Stallings will likely pitch Green, his left-hander.
