[illegible] R.P. [illegible] of Covenant, [illegible]. The letter left out the list of documents not admissible as regimental books. It went on to enact that the documents as listed and the statements described in R.P. 45 (b) as well as certificates of apprehension and of the cost of apprehension shall, as of December 1st 1944, on production thereof in any proceedings or Court Martial under the Army Act and in any Standing Court-Martial be admissible in evidence without further verification of such facts, or the necessity of their production through a witness, or identification of the person charged as the person referred to therein. Such documents shall constitute prima facie evidence of the facts thereby stated and that such facts refer to the person charged." Unquote. but still quoting from the J.A.G. Letter:- "Even though the document tendered in evidence misdescribes the accused by an error in his name, rank, regimental number or unit, it is still deemed to refer to the accused, unless disputed by him." I submit that ruling covers a case such as this. There is an error in his name, but that document is still deemed to refer to him, until it is disputed by him.

Q. PRESIDENT: Mr. Copeman, have you any objection to this document or do you dispute the fact that the document refers to this accused ?

A. No, sir. The accused is aware of the typographical error in that document, and is willing to waive it.

Q. And you are not objecting to its admission ?

A. No, sir.

(PERTINENT PARTS ARE READ SO THE ACCUSED DOCUMENT IS MARKED "H" SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT AND ATTACHED TO THE PROCEEDINGS)
