Wise and Otherwise.

THAT LITTLE IMP—PROPRIETY.

We girls might have a deal of fun
As one may well suppose,
For if one is but jolly, one
Can have a score of beaux.
But then there is that little imp,
That meets you in society,
The one your mother holds o'er you,
The little imp—Propriety.

There is a very nice young man
Who'd take you for a drive,
And when he says: "What time, dear
Nan?"
You say: "Call round at five."
You tell your ma, she lectures you
On your duty to society,
And when he comes she dresses too,
And goes, "just for Propriety."

A jolly crowd of girls and boys
Wish a lark some Winter's night,
They think that naught can mar their
joys,
All heart[illegible], gay and light;
But [illegible] stern parent interferes
[illegible] a 'grim old piety,"
To go along and spoil their fun,
And banish "Impropriety."

A beau of yours perchance may call
Some evening about eight—
You think your mother ought to go;
She hints it's getting late;
You're tired of your sister's voice,
You're wearied to satiety,
Yet there they sit and grimly smile
And play the Imp—Propriety.

THE PROPER PLACE.

A foolish young man who wanted the late Henry Ward Beecher's assistance in procuring a situation, stipulated that there should not be too much work. "Young man," said the noted divine, "I know of no place for you but the grave."

NEW MUSIC.

The Hamilton S. Gordon firm, of 139 Fifth Ave., New York City, has recently issued some very pretty instrumental and vocal pieces. Of the former, "The Dance of the Cupids," by Warner Crosby; "In Old Kentucky," a rollicking schottische, more catchy than "The Darkest Dream" was, and "In the Garden," a polka, by Chas. D. Rockwell, will speedily become favorites.

The well-known Felix McGlennon has excelled himself in the piece "Two Locks of Hair, Silver and Gold," the words of which are by John Birrell, chorus is:

"Two locks of hair,—silver and gold,
One from the girl he loved,
One from his mother, old;
One silver-gray, one golden brown;
And he kissed them both
[illegible] the sun went down."

[illegible] and sure-to-be-popular [illegible] When we were 'Mollie' [illegible] to be Lovers again"; [illegible] Home again"; "'Twas Only a Simple Ballad"; and "The Love of a True Woman's Heart."

A FIN DE SIECLE FORTUNE TELLER.

"How do you take your tea? cream and sugar?" interrogated my hostess the other evening, when I dropped in for a quiet chat and a cup of tea. "No sugar, thank you; but plenty of grounds, as I want my fortune told." So after sipping the greater part of the tea, pouring out the remainder, turning the cup three times from east to west, and then shaking it to "get the tears out," I handed it to her without even looking at it, as that would break the charm.

Then came the fortune! And such a fortune as it was! No grim-visaged fate presided over that fortune; no Clotho, Lachesis, or Atropos had any share in it. In their stead was a bright-faced, cheery, modern dame, whose roguish eyes were quite out of keeping with the solemn, fateful, utterances that fell from her full, red lips.

"I see a letter," she began slowly, "and a square parcel; it is coming quite a distance. And here is another letter; and, yes, there is your wish, but it is very faint. It is a long way off, but it is surely coming.

"I see a bargain, nearly closed; a false friend; a few tears and, oh! here is your fate. See? Right there."

"Now, "There," happened to be a long, dark, crooked tea-stem, and how the "fortune-teller" could make "he" out of it, passes my understanding. However, there "he" was, together with quite a bit of information concerning "him" that was furnished gratis.

Then came another turning of the cup, another wish, and another reading of the future.

"Your wish is plainer; you are to get some money; you will never know what it is to want for money; and you will always have true friends.

Here is some little trouble, but here is also one who will stand between you and all trouble. But your cup is too much settled, turn it again.

So, amidst a good deal of laughter, it is turned again; this time it is scattered enough to suit the most exacting.

"Your wish is very prominent—I see great happiness for you, and a journey. Your cup is more unsettled." Still, in spite of the unsettled state of the cup, she makes a very promising fortune of it. It creates a vast deal of fun, and, if ever you feel in a "blue" mood, just get yourself to that cosy sitting-room, warm your feet by that glowing coal fire, and sip a cup of deliciously brewed tea, and get the charming hostess to unveil the future to you.

ABOUT TOBACCO.

Items of Interest to Growers of the Weed.

There is Good Profit in Growing it—Farmers Going Into it Extensively.

One of our prominent farmers placed an order for 50,000 tobacco plants last week.—Kingsville Reporter.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of the Ragland Seed Co., of South Boston, Virginia. This is the oldest and most reliable firm of tobacco seed dealers in the United States.

We have received from the Ragland Seed Co., of Virginia, a copy of "Tobacco; How to Raise it and How to Make it Pay," by R. L. Ragland. It contains thirty-two pages, with many illustrations. It tells all about tobacco culture, and should be well worth the price, 25cts., to growers of the weed.

The number of cigars consumed in Canada last year was 113,276,000, compared with 108,300,000 in 1896. There was an increase of 350,000 pounds of tobacco from foreign leaf used, and the consumption of tobacco from Canadian leaf very largely increased, the figures being 7,600,000 pounds in 1897 and 468,000 pounds in 1896.

Statistics received by the Ontario Department of Agriculture go to show the cultivation of tobacco in Ontario have proved more profitable to the few engaged in it than the general growth of any of the ordinary cereals. Some time ago tobacco was experimented on in the Leamington district, in Essex county, but not until the last year or two have the results been very noticeable. The marvelous crop which was raised last year proves without doubt that tobacco can be grown with much success. According to the latest report 800,000 pounds were grown in the county of Essex during the year 1897. An acre generally produces about $100 worth of tobacco. Lewis Wigle reports that from 14 acres he took $2,500 worth of tobacco.

Lewis Wigle shipped a carload of tobacco from Harrow station to the Empire Tobacco Co., Granby, Que., on Tuesday, and another carload on Wednesday. The tobacco was all grown in Colchester South, and the prices ranged from 11 to 12 1-2 cents per pound. The heaviest seller was Walter Atkin, who had 6,158 pounds. Arthur Wright sold 4,000 pounds, and C. S. Patton will have in the neighborhood of nearly 10,000 but it is not all ready for shipping yet. Mr. Wigle will have nearly another carload to ship from Harrow. A car averages about $2,300. Jas. Neal, Leamington, is looking after the shipping at Harrow for Mr. Wigle. From the townships of Mersea, Gosfield and Colchester, over 20 cars have already been shipped by Mr. Wigle, aggregating 700,000 pounds.—Echo.

A LIVING DEATH.

Shattered Nerves—Appetite Gone—Digestion Deranged—Discouraged to Death—South American Nervine is Hope and Health in all Such Cases.

Mr. C. J. I purchased five bottles of [illegible] American Nervine, and when [illegible] was but three bottles I was [illegible] than ever I was. I attribute my [illegible] entirely to this great remedy. Miraculous Results

A SUFFERER FOR 35 YEARS CUREDBY PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND.

A Terrible Case of Dyspepsia is Overcome by the Great Compound

Had Failure After Failure With Other Medicines.

Mr. Budd says: "From a Condition of Helplessness I Am Now Well and Strong.

New Life and Health Await All Who Use Paine's Celery Compound.

Wells & Richardson Co.

Gentlemen,—For the benefit of sufferers I gladly give my experience with Paine's Celery Compound. After suffering from dyspepsia for thirty-five years, and meeting with many failures with other medicines, I decided to use Paine's Celery Compound, having heard of so many cures effected by it. The Compound, after I used it for a time, produced miraculous results and banished my troubles.

From a condition of helplessness—being unable to sleep or eat—I now feel well and strong. I am astonished at the results, as my trouble was an old and chronic one. I have recommended Paine's Celery Compound to some of my neighbors and in every case it has given satisfaction. I will always strongly recommend its use when I have opportunity.

Yours respectfully,
AMBROSE BUDD, Shanty Bay, Ontario.

A VIEW.

Here is the hill-top. Look! Not moor or fen,
Not wood or pasture, circles round the steep;
But houses upon houses, thousand-deep,
The merchant's palace and the pauper's den.
We are alone—beyond all mortal ken;
Only the birds are with us and the sheep;
We are alone, and yet one giant's leap
Would land us in the flood of hurrying men.
If e'er I step from out that turbid stream
To spend an hour in thought, I pass it here;
For good it is across our idlest dream
To see the light of manhood shining clear;
And solitude is sweetest, as I deem,
When half a million hearts are beating near.

Wild With Eczema

Hands and Limbs Covered with Blisters, and Great Red Blotches.

Scratched Until Almost Wild. Burned Like Fire. Sleep Impossible.

Cuticura Brings Speedy Relief, and a Permanent Cure at a Cost of $2.

I was a sufferer for eight years from that most distressing of all diseases, Eczema, but can now say truthfully that I am entirely cured. I tried some of the best physicians in the country, but they did me little good. The palms of my hands were covered, and would become inflamed; little white blisters at first would appear, then they would peel off, leaving a red, smooth surface which would burn like fire and itch; well, there is no name for it. On the inside of the upper part of both my limbs, great red blotches, not unlike hives, would appear, and as soon as I became warm, the burning and itching would begin. Night after night I would lie awake all night and scratch and almost go wild. I heard of CUTICURA remedies, got a box of CUTICURA (ointment), a bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT (blood purifier), and gave them a thorough trial, and after a few applications I noticed the redness and inflammation disappear; before I had used one box there was not a sign of Eczema left. I can truthfully assert that $2.00 worth of CUTICURA REMEDIES cured me. Any one I meet who has Eczema, I do not hesitate a moment in recommending your remedies.

THAMESVILLE.

Feb. 12.—The enterprising editor of our local paper has given in this week's issue, a very fair account of our industries, schools, churches, business places and business openings but made some very important omissions such as our public library which out rivals any institution of the kind in the province outside our larger cities, and there is our oil prospect. We know judging from present appearances Thamesville is yet to be the oil town of the west. Here we have many rigs pounding away in adjacent territory. The results of which will be known in a few days. The Sinclair well is said to be a gusher. A local company is forming and will commence operations at an early date. The famous syndicate company which was supposed to be defunct, are mustering their forces and may come to the front any day. Our four hotels will be kept busy accommodating the crowds that are sure to throng our town and things will boom in good shape. Have we not already in our midst the oil king, Carman, and A. Fraser, A. Davis and many others interested in the oil business.

The laying of the corner stone of the new Methodist church will take place on the 24th May. A tea will also be served by the ladies and a sacred concert will be given in the evening. The firemen have hitherto taken this day for their celebration, but have given place to the Methodist congregation and will have a monster celebration on 1st July.

L. M. Appleford is in Blenheim this week making arrangements for a trip to the Klondike.

A number of our young men drove over to Wallaceburg to a party on Wednesday evening and report a very enjoyable time.

SAVE THE MOTHERS

Dodd's Kidney Pills Their Only Safety in Female Diseases.

You have seen a flower nipped by frost, fade and die in the flush of its beauty. That is how women die when attacked by any of the diseases peculiar to their sex.

Woman's burdens are woefully heavy. Her sufferings are agonizing. Her patience is grand. Disease preys upon her. The light dies out of her eyes, her steps become slow and dragging; she loses flesh; grows sallow, listless, droops like a flower. Then she dies. Her family is left to the cold mercy of the world.

"Mother's dead!" What a piteous phrase. What sufferings have been endured before it was used. Why should mothers, wives, sisters suffer so? They need not. Dodd's Kidney Pills will quickly and thoroughly cure all cases of Female Weakness. They never fail. They give health, strength, courage: a new lease of life.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I am fifty years of age and have been troubled with the spinal complaint more or less since the war. I had to resort to opiates to stop pain and in that way I formed the habit of taking morphine. I had taken it for eleven years when I entered the Monroe Improved Gold Cure at Windsor. I was taking twenty grains of morphine and thirty grains of quinine per day. Had slept in a chair for five years. I can say I am free from opiates, and do not even have any desire for anything of the kind. I advise all who are addicted to the use of the drug, not to hesitate about going to the Cure and improve the first opportunity afforded to receive treatment at this institution. All those concerned with the Institution are gentlemen in every respect, and it seems more like home than it does like a Sanitarium. Am ready to answer letters on the subject.
