THE COURIER.

MONDAY, MAY 12, 1851.

Our London Correspondent's letter was received yesterday, and will appear in this evening's issue.

The present month was certainly ushered in without any of its usual agreeable accompaniments. So far, since its unwelcome and unseasonable advent, it has been anything but "the merry month of May." The clouds and vapours of ambiguous April retaining their wintry influences, seemed unwilling to retire before the approach of a more genial and brighter atmosphere. It would have been impossible for our chilly population to have found sufficient sunshine and verdure on the 4th instant to have even prepared, and offered to the Mother of Mercury, the customary "Floralia," or Festival of the ancient Romans, common to that day.

To the progress of those city improvements, common at this period of the year, and the necessary arrangements, preparatory to the business season, the weather for the last two weeks has been singularly inopportune. Families and householders have suffered no little inconvenience in their unavoidable removals through the rain and disagreeable state of many of our streets. The breaking up of old Winter seemed premature, and Boreas protested loudly against the encroachments of a more refined and agreeable influence. This temporary inconvenience, however, we are glad to observe, has in no way checked the public spirit of our citizens. Extensive stores for business, private residences, and public edifices of an imposing character, are everywhere being erected for the requirements of the city and its anticipated prosperity. The return and speedy movements of our various steamers—the arrival of several foreign vessels at our wharves, and the busy population which now daily enliven the banks of the St. Lawrence, are gratifying evidences of the commercial enterprise of our merchants and shippers. Many of the Dry Goods and Fancy Establishments, occupied by our most eminent merchants, are being enlarged, decorated, and rendered both attractive and convenient. There are some in Notre Dame and Great St. James Streets that would not suffer in comparison with those of a like character in older and more populous and wealthy cities. Active arrangements, and increased facilities connected with the travelling world and the Summer and Fall visits of our wealthy neighbors to Montreal, are also being made by our Hotel-keepers, and form the daily employment of industrious mechanics, artizans, and laborers. It is but natural, in contrasting the early settlement and privations of the aboriginal inhabitants of the ancient city of Hochelaga with the present condition of Montreal, to anticipate for it, under a liberal, just, and active Municipal legislation, an increased state of prosperity, commensurate with its resources, the improvements of the age, and the intelligence of its inhabitants. We are gratified to witness the zeal and activity too of our present City Corporation, and the valuable suggestions, embracing new improvements and the removal of public nuisances, prompted by our worthy Mayor. The City Square is beginning to assume a pleasant aspect, and, under the revival of vegetation and the care of an experienced horticulturist, will prove an agreeable Summer resort, enlivened by the evening efforts of some of our Military Bands.

THE NEWLY ARRIVED EMIGRANTS AND THE CAPTAIN OF THE STEAMER "CRESCENT."—In the rage of party feeling, and that sort of impulsive sympathy which is inseparable from national identity and the rights of an individual, it is difficult to ascertain on which side lie the claims of justice. The statements of the difficulties which occurred on Friday morning last between the newly arrived Emigrants and the Captain of the Crescent have been given by one or more of our city papers, and furnish all the information which could, under the moment of excitement, have been obtained. We forbear to offer any comments on the proceedings, as we understand the matter will be subject to legal investigation. We regret, however, to see on such occasions the necessity of a personal intervention on the part of our Chief Civic Representative. The City Police, with its constituted officers, is the proper force to quell such disturbances, and to readily afford prompt protection to the injured and oppressed. There may be instances when the presence of the chief and most prominent officer of our Corporation would produce a beneficial influence on public turmoils and insurrectionary movements; and we feel assured our worthy and honored Mayor is ever ready to interpose his authority and influence as a conservator of the public peace.

THE PROPOSED EXCURSION TO NEW YORK.—The inducements held out by the contemplated arrangements of the above visit to the neighboring City of New York, are worthy the consideration of those who have never yet seen the "Empire City of the Western World." The memorable occasion selected for this visit, the delightful season for the proper enjoyment of such a trip, the facilities afforded for ease and convenience in travelling, and the varied and picturesque scenery viewed from the Hudson River, all combine to render such a tour exceedingly delightful.—Those who have never been on board of those Steamers which ply between Albany and the City of New York, in viewing the elegance of construction and the costly finish of these magnificent floating palaces, will be somewhat astonished, at the same time gratified, by the exhibition of that Steamboat Aristocracy which has been displayed by our wealthy relatives, the Knickerbockers. We feel assured the people of New York will hail the arrival of their honored and numerous guests with every demonstration of respect and attention, and, cheerfully, during our pleasant Summer months, reciprocate the civility thus shewn them.

NOTICE TO GAS CONSUMERS.—Pay your Gas rent for this quarter on or before the 14th instant, (Wednesday,) or you will not be entitled to the discount.

O'MEARA'S RESTAURANT.—It will be seen, by a reference to our advertising columns, that Mr. John O'Meara has opened a Restaurant at that popular and well-known city location, formerly occupied by Mr. Compain, Place d'Armes. We looked in a few days since, and found the rooms and bar neat, convenient, and well arranged. From the knowledge and experience, as a caterer, which Mr. O'Meara must have acquired under the tuition of our incomparable "Dolly," we predict for him a liberal and generous patronage.

A Soiree, for the praiseworthy object of aiding in paying the debt on the Wesleyan Sunday School, lately erected in the St. Lawrence Suburbs, will be held in the basement story of the Wesleyan Church, Great St. James Street, this evening, (Monday,) May 12, when the Rev. J. Caughey, and other Ministers and Friends, are expected to address the meeting. Doors open at half-past six o'clock; Chair to be taken at half-past seven.

ROBBERY OF A BULL.—A few days ago two persons priced a bull belonging to a farmer at the Bord au Blouffe, and the night before last the same bull was found to be gone. The farmer gave notice to the police, and on Friday the two customers were found in town by the police selling beef on the Viger Market. The skin and feet were found in other places. The two men, Lescarbeau and Jany, were committed for trial.—Herald.

MOVEMENTS OF TROOPS.—On Friday night the Cresent took down to Quebec one company of Artillery under the command of Captain Asbury, together with twenty-six invalids, chiefly from the 20th Regt., and one deserter from the 46th Regiment. A great number of soldiers of the Garrison, accompanied their comrades to the boat, and the Band played "Auld Lang Syne" as they embarked.

The troops destined for this station, who arrived at Quebec in the Birkenhead, reached Montreal on Friday morning.—Ib.

A company of the Royal Artillery, arrived in the steam Transport Birkenhead, landed to day, at two o'clock, and were marched up to their Barracks, preceded by the band of the corps.—Quebec Mercury, May 8.

We are sorry to have to state that the Honourable Robert Baldwin has had another severe attack of illness. He was considerably better yesterday.—Toronto Colonist, May 6.

CHURCH ROBBERY.—The Roman Catholic Cathedral in this city, was forcibly entered on Thursday night or Friday morning last, when property, consisting of three large gilt brass candlesticks—a large brass crucifix—a silver do, about twelve inches long—a small brazen gilt figure taken off a wooden cross—an eight-day clock—a pair of silver-plated branch candlesticks—three large silver-plated candlesticks and several other articles were taken away. Information was given at the Police Office, about six o'clock on Friday morning, and before nine o'clock, John Hinds, Alexr. Evans, James McKever, Robert Stewart, and Mary Stewert, were in their custody, together with some of the stolen property. The prisoners were brought before his worship the Police Magistrate on Saturday, most of the property being in the meantime found by some boys, under a bridge in Bond Street, in the vicinity of the Cathedral, and under another bridge in Cruikshank Street the large crucifix and one of the large candlesticks were found. After a lengthy examination before the Police Magistrate, in which several witnesses were sworn, his worship remanded the prisoners for further examination. Mr. Skelton appeared for the prosecution. To much praise cannot be awarded to the Police, for their energy in this affair. Yesterday, Hinds made a confession, by which he threw the whole burden of the robbery on Evans. Evans, per contra, made a confession, in which Hinds was put down as the leader in the affair. Through their information, the remaining property was found. Hinds and Evans were committed for trial, the others were discharged.—Toronto Colonist, May 6th.

James Archer, porter to Mr. Alexander McDonald, Auctioneer, Yonge Street, was accused yesterday before the Police Magistrate, of robbing his employer. He gave bail for his appearance today, since when a number of hams and other pieces of bacon were found in his house, as also 914 in money, all of which are claimed by Mr. McDonald as his property. The bail is thought to be worthless. The Police last evening were endeavouring to re-secure Archer, who, it is thought, has effected his escape. His wife is in jail, she having asserted that she bought the bacon.—Ib.

Arrival of the Europa.

NEW YORK, May 8.

The steamer Europa, Capt. Shannon, reached her dock at 9 o'clock this morning, in 11 days and 16 hours from Liverpool.

Cotton has declined at Liverpool, and has been sold ⅛ to ¼ lower than at the sailing of the last steamer.

Corn and Flour also lower.

The Canada arrived at Liverpool on the 21st in 11½ days from Boston.

The steamer Hermann left Southampton on the 25th instant, with between 50 and 60 passengers.

FIREARMS.—The following news was posted up on the 29th April:—

NOTICE.—All exhibitors are requested to complete their fittings on or before next Monday; on that day, no [illegible] will be admitted, except it be absolutely necessary for arranging the goods.

LIVERPOOL CORN MARKET FOR THE WEEK ENDING 29TH APRIL.—Market depressed. A further reduction in Wheat and Flour has been submitted to, without leading to activity. Decline on the week, 2d to 3d on Wheat, 6d to 1s on Flour; Indian Corn, 2d per quarter lower.

The Liverpool Times contains an article which is a sort of a resume of a speech lately delivered by Sir Wm. Molesworth, in the House of Commons, on the policy of allowing the Colonies to govern themselves. In the course of the article, the Times uses the following language:—"The days are gone for controlling a Colony to be loyal. The attachment which can only be enforced by fear is not worth preserving. If Canada or any other portion of our Colonial Empire desires Annexation or Independence, far better, far more wise, and more liberal to concede it than to attempt the expiring policy of coercion."
