St. John, N.B., March 27th, 1855.

Mr. STEVENS:

DEAR SIR,—It is with pleasure I make known to you the opinion of myself and many others of the MELODEON purchased from you a few months ago. This instrument manufactured by Mason & Hamlin, has given the greatest satisfaction, both in Tone, Touch, and Power, and I do freely, and cheerfully submit it is the best I have ever seen. Since the introduction of this instrument in our Choir Practice we find a great improvement, thereby sustaining the Voice, and procuring a perfect Tone to every Note.

I am dear Sir, yours truly,
R. D. McARTHUR,
Conductor of St. Andrews' Church Choir.

Dr. Rollo's Invigorating Balm.
THIS admirable preparation is the most effectual and speedy remedy for Baldness and falling off of the Hair, gives it a thick glossy appearance, unaffected by anything of the kind. It contains no alcohol or alkaline substances, (as all the washes for the hair are now made,) and will restore the natural growth after these articles have deprived the roots of it. We can take numerous testimonials, both old and young, some of whom to be have been bald several years, and have had their hair restored by this preparation. It can be by inspecting nature and will in no way prove injurious. Prepared and Sold by FELLOWS & CO.

Poetry.

ELEGY.

BY A SUBALTERN OFFICER IN THE CRIMEA.

In these dark, wretched and unfurnish'd cells,
Where many a suffering half-starved hero dwells,
And, ever musing, I pensively ponder
Why, when the dawn of morning first invades yonder,
Why, when the first sunbeam is on Sebastopol's towers,
Why hence come those groans, those sighs, those prayers?
Is it cruel heat, or disease's cruel sway,
Which causes anything my thus tormented say?
Fancies it seems on curiosity thus?
Who shudders, groans? are sent to speak with one,
So cold, so comfortless, so worn-looking?
Whose claim, from brave comrades, to know good cheer,
Manner in front—and distraction in the rear,
Night's cable shackles now wrap Nature up,
Now Backs do dance me, now sits to day;
Dooly hot in sleep around my comforts move;
I always working my hard face deplore;
Groans to the "Nightes dull cap," my lonely grief,
And sigh for England and her far roast beef
Oh, precious England! Comfort's dwelling place!
Where by thy well-fed, glossy John Bull fed!
Black to the land of Andromache pomelion,
Of dish rich crusty turtle, gorgeous venison haunches!
Immortalized by good starved ardor,
Why did I ever quit thy well-stored larder?
Why, do I with hundred fever, in all count,
Come hard to Sebastopol and serve in this accursed clime:
Its vicious dust, I only dance prepared,
And nothing land, like peace, as this air,
My days big footing, as lemons wrung,
And night no comfortable and refreshing sleep,
Yet that appears I with all I cannot feel deep,
Wrapped in rotten rags, I lie on a wet bed,
Which, as I shivering, I am down Arcadian's bedded,
Fancies I see, and hear, and feel their hoofs move,
Yea even as Cadmus I see, and feel their hoofs move,
Yea even as Cadmus I see, and feel their hoofs move,
Yea even as Cadmus I see
