PROROGATION WEDNESDAY

That is Present Outlook in Provincial Legislature—Government in Executive Session all day Saturday.

Fredericton, March 16.—If the present plan is carried out—and it is believed it can be—the Legislature will be prorogued on Wednesday. It may be that prorogation will not be reached until that evening, but the present proposal is to make it possible for the members to leave for their homes by Thursday morning's trains.

The committees of the Legislature have their work so well along that there is every reason to believe that the plan for prorogation on Wednesday can be carried out. The Corporations Committee have all their work cleaned up except three bills, the Municipalities Committee have but four bills still to be settled, the Law Committee have two bills still awaiting decision and, the Committee of the whole House had all its business done at ajournment Friday evening.

The Provincial Government was in session here Saturday, and in the morning heard delegations. W. A. Ewing, of St. John, appeared on behalf of the Union Club, St. John, and asked that the Liquor License Act be so amended as to provide for the issuing of licenses for clubs. J. Willard Smith of St. John, appeared on behalf of the Dominion Alliance branch in New Brunswick, in opposition to the proposal, and Hon. John E. Wilson is in receipt of a telegram from the officers of the Dominion Alliance endorsing Mr. Smith's position. No decision was announced. The Government also heard the members for Gloucester regarding several matters affecting their county.

TO OPEN CREAMERY IN ALBERT COUNTY

Meetings Held Throughout Section to Argue Point with Farmers—Other Items from Hopewell.

Hopewell, Morch 14.—L. C. Daigle, provincial dairy superintendent, and Nelson Eveleigh, of Sussex, addressed a public meeting at Hopewell Hill, last evening on the subject of butter factories and dairying. A. S. Mitton occupied the chair and a good sized audience was present. The addresses which were of much interest, emphasized the importance to New Brunswick communities of creameries or butter factories, which the speakers claimed were unquestionably more profitable to the farmers than home dairying.

Mr. Eveleigh told of the great advancement in wealth and prosperity of sections of Kings county since the establishment of creameries.

The speakers considered Albert Co. especially well adapted for dairying and hoped to see a factory established in the near future. Should this not be accomplished at present, Mr. Daigle said he strongly advised the improving of the quality of cows by better feeding and breeding. Both the Holstein and Ayrshire were good breeds, according to conditions.

Messrs. Daigle and Eveleigh spoke at Waterside on Wednesday night and were at Albert tonight getting the opinion of the farmers in regard to establishing a factory for Hopewell and Harvey. At least 300 cows would be necessary for a start and it was considered $3000 would be sufficient to equip a creamery suitable for the purpose.

Quite a number of Waterside farmers have signed, but the men at the Hopewell Hill meeting seemed disposed to hold off, though there was considerable feeling in favor of the scheme. Should it be decided to build this year, it was explained action must be taken at once, in order to have ice secured, and the establishment ready for the season. Tonight's meeting at Albert would be likely to make a decision. If a creamery were built it would probably be erected at Albert or Riverside as a central point.

The funeral of the late Peter J. McClelan took place this afternoon from his home at Albert, and was largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. Thomas Stebbings, pastor of the Hopewell Methodist church, assisted by Rev. J. M. Love, pastor of the Baptist church.

The hymns sung were Rock of Ages, Beautiful Isle of Somewhere, and Asleep in Jesus. There were many beautiful floral offerings.

The pallbearers were Morrison Wright, John McLaughlin, Percy Russell and Solomon Prosser. The interment was in the Hopewell cemetery.

Miss Leah Crocker, of Hopewell Cape, is visiting at the Hill the guest of Mrs. Alberta McGorman.

A crew of men have been working for some days trying to get the working engine of the Salisbury and Albert Railway on the track. It went off several days ago a short distance above Daniels Station.

The recent session of the Hopewell parish Sunday school convention at Riverside was one of much interest. The evening meeting was largely attended and excellent addresses were given by Rev. Mr. Ross, the field secretary; Rev. Thos. Stebbings, and Principal Seaman.

The afternoon session was devoted to routine business, reports from different schools and a round table discussion on the qualifications of the Sunday school teacher.

W. O. Wright, of Hopewell Cape, was re-elected president for the year with J. M. Keiver vice-president, and Miss Evelyn R. Bennett secretary-treasurer. Superintendents of primary, missionary, temperance departments, etc., were also appointed.

The young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Robinson, who was operated on a few days ago by Dr. Carnwath, for adenoid growth, is much improved.

Chas. Johnson has moved his family to the residence of Benj. Fales

IMPORT 50,000 EASTER LILIES IN EACH CARGO FROM BERMUDA

IN THE EASTER FLOWER MARKET.

What is Easter without the lilies? Why, very much like Easter without the Bunny Rabbits and the rainbow eggs, I suppose. But let's not think of that kind of an Easter, with a fresh wilderness of the fair white bells coming in every day and enough colored eggs to gladden the heart of every small boy and girl.

Easter lilies, in the larger and more plentiful sense of the word, come from Bermuda. Under the clear Southern sky they grow as luxuriantly as do our dandelions. Any one with lawn mower proclivities will tell you dandelions are the limit of luxuriance. In Bermuda the natives gather lilies by the armful and take them to market, where they sell them for export to "the States." Imagine going out into the field and gathering an armful of Easter lilies. In "the States" we are lucky to have a single bloom.

In order to present them to us fresh and fragrant, the blossoms are picked before they are fully open. The lily spikes are wrapped in a kind of gray moss which keeps them damp and fresh, a hundred to two hundred in a box. Fifty thousand of these flowers of rare perfume are often contained in a single cargo.

NEWS OF INTEREST FROM NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, March 15.—The marriage of Herbert Russell of Nordin and Miss Maud Wood, daughter of Mrs. Christina Wood, of Douglastown, took place at the manse, in Douglastown, last night, Rev. F. C. Simpson officiating.

The bride, who is a most popular young lady and has been for several years saleslady for Joseph McKnight, was handsomely dressed in cream colored cloth. The couple were attended by Willis McKenzie and Miss Emma Morrison. Mr. and Mrs. Russell will live in Douglastown.

At the meeting of the Methodist Mission Circle last night at Mrs. H. H. Stuart's, Miss Lida Copp was elected delegate to the branch convention to be held in Sackville next June, and Miss Florence Price substitute.

Joseph Ryan, who has been visiting his father, Dennis Ryan, returned this week to Seattle.

The Methodist ladies held a social last night at Mrs. Henry McLeod's.

Rev. R. Hensley Stavert of Harcourt, Grand Lecturer of the S. of T., returned home today after a most successful propagation trip up river. Wednesday night he re-organized Red Bank Division with 31 members and the following officers were elected: W. P., Rev. J. F. McCurdy; W. A., Miss Eileen Parks; R. S., Miss Mina Sutherland; Conductor, Daniel Cain; F. S., Miss Hattie Parks; Treas., Miss Martha Sutherland; Chap., Miss Georgie Tozer; I. S., W. Hubbard; O. S., Anthony Cain; A. R. S., Miss Mary Tozer; A. C., Miss Myrtle McLean; P. W. P., Wilbur Matchett; D. G. W. P., Rev. J. F. McCurdy; S. Y. P. W., Miss Annie Sutherland.

Thursday night Mr. Stavert addressed a meeting in the Baptist church at Lyttleton, the large building being full. The people desired to organize but have no hall. A committee of seven, including the two pastors, Revs. J. F. McCurdy, Presbyterian, and W. E. Piper, Baptist, was appointed to inquire into the mater of organizing a division and building a hall.

Red Bank Division will meet on Tuesday nights.

NOT A SINGLE PROTEST AGAINST NEW POLICY

Fredericton, March 15.—"The fact that I have not as yet received a single protest against the provisions of the bill to provide for the new policy for the administration of the crown timber lands would indicate that the bill meets with pretty general approval," remarked Premier Flemming this afternoon.

CATHOLIC CHURCH LOSES CIVIL SUIT

Paris, March 15.—An application by Cardinal Ametta, archbishop of Paris on behalf of the Catholic church, for the title to the Basilica of the Sacred Heart, the new cathedral on the Montmart Heights in Paris, was rejected by the civil court here.

The court declared that the cathedral which is still under construction, was the property of the city of Paris and disregarded the cardinal's contention that it was built from funds raised by a public subscription from Catholics throughout France. About $7,000,000 has been expended already on the edifice.
