Joe Bayley and Billy Allen All Ready for Championship Battle

Participants in Mill for Lightweight Championship of Canada Have Finished Training; Will Rest Today to Prepare for Tomorrow's Event

All is in readiness for the Bayley-Allen battle for the lightweight championship of the Dominion tomorrow morning. Each of the principals put the finishing touches on his training yesterday and each will rest today without doing any physical exercise. The men are in the pink of condition, and will enter the ring at about 130 pounds. Billy Allen has taken off the extra two pounds of flesh which he has been carrying around of late, while Bayley, who has been doing but light training, is right at his very best.

The arena was finished on Saturday and provided that good weather is on tap, the biggest crowd which ever attended a ring argument in the history of the sport in Canada will be present. The advance sale of seats was a little over five thousand dollars. These seats were bought with the knowledge that the weatherman might call a sudden halt to the bout, but the purchasers wanted to be sure of getting the very best places. It is expected that over twenty thousand people will be at the arena at 10:45 tomorrow morning when the first six round preliminary will be fought between Jack Tinsley of Edmonton and Alf Boyd of Los Angeles. These men will weigh in at 122 pounds.

Following this there will be a six round mill between Jack Feeney, Billy Allen's sparring partner and Cyclone Scott. These men will weigh in at 133 ringside.

The wind-up will be between Kid Lucas and Kid Lewis, the two lightweights who gave the Bassano fans their money's worth and then some.

The main bout will start at 11:30. Tommy Burns will referee.

The Car Service.

In order to assure the spectators of good transportation accomodation, Tommy Burns has leased eight of the municipal street cars for the exclusive use of the eight fans tomorrow morning.

These cars will make trips to the ground at intervals of ten minutes. The cars will leave Victoria Park and will take the spectators within about four hundred feet of the arena. A special fare of twenty-five cents will be charged. This i snecessitated by the expense of leasing the cars outright from the city. In addition to these cars, the two regular city cars which run on this line, will be in use. The regular fare of five cents will be in vogue on these cars. Superintendent McCauley figures that he can accomodate about te nthousand people with this service, so it will behoove intending spectators to get out early and avoid the rush.

Reserved Seats.

The seat plan for the battle may be seen at Harold Harvies' cigar store on Eighth avenue. The best seats are already taken, but those that are left are far from bein gpoor ones. Every seat in the arena is elevated and the bleacher seats, which are not reserved, will provide a splendid view of the battle. All reserved seats which have been spoken for but not paid for, will be put back upon the plan at eight o'clock tonight, if not called for before that time.

The management has made arrangements with Superintendent Dean of the mounted police for adequate police protection. As the battle is being held outside the limits of the city of Calgary, the local police will have no jurisdiction. This is unfortunate in view of the fact that the Stampede crowd which is in the city at the present time will be rather hard to handle. Superintendent Dean has issued instructions to his men to arrest all intoxicated persons who are likely to raise a disturbance. No one who shows signs of over indulgence will be allowed inside the arena and there must be no cheering or edging on by the spectators.

The bout is to be one of skill, rather than brute strength, and will be awarded to the man who wins on his merits.

CORNWALL KIDS ADDED ANOTHER VICTORY

Montreal, Sept. 2.—The Cornwall team, undisputed champions of the N.L.U., added one more victory when they defeated the Shamrocks on the North End grounds by a score of 8 to 4. For the first part of the game the Shamrocks held their own, but once settled down, the champions fairly romped away from their old time rivals. At the end of the second quarter the teams had each scored two goals, and while from then on it was all Cornwall, who assumed the lead and were never again headed.

A unique feature turned up in the third quarter, when Doran, one of the Shamrock players, forgetting that the team had changed ends, scored a game against his own team.

Shortly after pulling off this trick he was replaced by Aiman.

Boosters' Star Twirler Mobbed By Excited Edmonton Fans

Eskimos and Boosters Break Even in Double Header Fixture

Northerners Turn on the Ex-Edmonton Battery, Clayton and White, and Win

Edmonton, Sept. 2.—The doubleheader today afforded the biggest kind of a contrast in games. The first game was won by Bassano by a score of 21 to 1. The second was won by Edmonton by the score of 3 to 2, after the wildest and most exciting contest that has been seen here this year. Police interference was required at one time to remove Harry Hayes, a Bassano player, from the field. Edmonton won the game in the ninth, securing three hits from the new Boosters' battery, Clayton and White, released by Edmonton Saturday. Box scores follow:

TORONTOS GRABBED GAME FROM TECUMSEHS

Toronto, Sept. 2.—Toronto and Tecumsehs met in their final game at Hanlan's Point today, and again the Blue Shirts were victorious, the score being 5 to 3. About 2,500 attended, and despite the slippery grounds, saw a good game. Toronto was without the services of Harshaw, their clever point player, whose dislocated shoulder prevented his playing. Tommy Fitzgerald, of St. Catherine's, took Marshaw's place admirably. For the Tecumsehs Whitehead played the first half with a sore hand, but retired at half-time in favor of Don Smith.

Tecumsehs have been beaten every time they have played against Torontos this year. Querrie took many chances, but the heavy checking of Buck Marshall slowed him up somewhat. The rest of the home were too bent on scoring in the first half, and lost many chances by failure to pass the ball.

In the third and fourth, however, they played a better combination game.

Torontos did not play up to their usual good form, especially the home, who did not get their quick passing game to work except in the second, when the Tecumsehs' defence took a little baloon ascension and Torontos scored four goals.

F. KRAMER BIKE CHAMPION

Newark, Sept. 2.—Frank Kramer, the national sprint champion, won the one mile professional bike championship of the world at the Newark Velodrome this afternoon, defeating Alfred Brenda of Australia and E. Perchicot of France in the final event. Less than half a wheel separated the riders at the finish of the race, the time of which was 2.00 flat. Marcel Dupuy and Amiel Friel of France were eliminated in the semi-finals.

Eastern Rugby Gossip

Rumor has it that the Hamilton Tigers may jump to the Ontario union and that the Argonauts may drop out of rugby this year, thus causing the disbanding of the International union, better known as the "Big Four." Most rugby fans discredit the rumor, however, and point to the fact that every team last year had a good season—at any rate the various teams are preparing for a strenuous season excepting the Argos, and they will likely be cut shortly.

Elliott Greene of last year's Toronto Varsity team, and McSweeney, a Halifax youth of promise, will line up with the Montreal A. A. A. Greene was a halfback with ability to kick and to tackle. McSweeney is young, but is said to be a fast wing man. The club have had several practices already and the players are turning out well.

The Hamilton Tigers are building up a strong aggregation this year that should give their rivals lots of trouble. Mallett of last year's Argos, and Tommy Stinson of Montreal are living in the Ambitious City, and will strengthen them considerably. Difficulty has been experienced in securing a competent coach, but it is hoped that before the end of the week one will have been secured.

The Argonauts, last year's champions, suffer more than any other team from the loss of players. Smirlie Lowson is in New York and is not certain about returning. Mallett is in Hamilton, and Binkley is among the missing—thus demoralizing the back division. Murray, who was at outside wing, is in New York, and Moore, his partner, is likely to turn out with Parkdale. Whether or not the Argos can pick some juniors to fill their places, remains to be seen.

The proposed amalgamation of the Rough Riders and the Rowing Club in Ottawa, if it materializes, will strengthen the capital city representatives wonderfully. Considerable opposition has developed against the amalgamation, some of the players claiming that the football club earnings will be used for the purpose of providing trips for the oarsmen. A meeting is to be held this week to decide the matter.

Watching the Scoreboard

NATIONAL.

Boston, Sept. 2.—The biggest crowd at a National league game in this city in several years saw the Giants take both games today, thereby increasing their lead in the pennant race while Chicago loafed.

Philadelphia, Sept. 2.—Brooklyn defeated the home team in the first game of eleven innings 4 to 2. The visitors tied the score after two were out in the ninth on a homer by Erwin, a pinch batter, and they won the game in the eleventh on Miller's double with two on bases and two out.

Philadelphia won the second game in one of the best pitching battles seen here this season. Rucker weakened in the thirteenth, when the home team scored the deciding run on four singles. Rucker did not give a base on balls, and only three passes were given by Rixey.

Cincinnati, Sept. 2.—Cincinnati won both games here today from St. Louis, at the close of which one of the most remarkable sights ever seen in the local park was witnessed. It was almost dark and the crowd had been calling for a called game. When Umpire Eason refused to listen to the cries, bonfires made of programs sprang up all over the park, and in a few moments thousands of them were in evidence.

Eason insisted on the game being played out, however. McLean was hit in the head with a bat in the first game and retired. The opening contest was featured by great fielding.

INTERNATIONAL.

Rochester, Sept. 2.—Dumb work on the part of the infield lost a great game here today for the champions, the league leaders walloping the three-time winners into submission by a count of 5 to 1. Quinn pitched splendid ball, but the infielders allowed five outs to drop safe for hits. The game puts Rochester entirely out of the running for a fourth consecutive flag. Rain in the afternoon prevented the second game, which will be played tomorrow.

Providence, Sept. 2.—Newark won today's game from Providence 4 to 3. Rain postponed the second game.

Buffalo, Sept. 2.—Buffalo lost both games to Montreal today. The first was played in the rain until it was impossible to continue any longer, and ended in the first half of the sixth. The afternoon game was a no-hit no-run battle for McTigue up until the eighth, when he became wild and Smith finished the game for him.

Baltimore, Sept. 2.—Jersey City lost both games of the opening series, the last of the season, to Baltimore today. Errors by Purtell and McHale gave the Birds the first game.

The second was won by the Birds by swatting Mains' offerings to all four corners of the lot.

AMERICAN.

New York, Sept. 2.—New York lost both games today at the Polo grounds, the home of the Giants, by a score of 2 to 1 and 1 to 1.

Washington Sept. 2. — Philadelphia started in today to win second place in the American league by defeating Washington 3 to 2 in the first game. They bunched hits well and compelled Washington to use three pitchers.

Chicago, Sept. 2.—Detroit batted Chicago's pitchers all over the landscape this morning, and won a one-sided game, 12 to 4. Sixteen players were used by the locals.

Cleveland, Sept. 2.—By bunching hits off Kaler, with Cleveland's errors, St. Louis scored enough runs in the first two innings of the morning game to win, 5 to 4.

The second game was a pitcher's battle, and went to St. Louis.

Washington, Sept. 2.—Philadelphia won the afternoon game in a desperate contest, by a score of 9 to 7. Walter Johnson was hit hard and timely. Crabb was driven from the box in the fourth, but Brown finished the game in good form.

Bronks Winning Streak Broken at Last by Hurley's Red Deers

After Winning Ten Straight Games Locals Drop First Game of Double Header; Big Bill Barenkamp Pitched Evening Victory

After winning ten straight games, the Bronks finally went down to defeat in the first game of the final series with Red Deer yesterday, the score being 12 to 11, but in the evening they started off all over again and defeated the men whom they have to battle for the miniature world's series by the score of 5 to 2.

The Deers in each game evidenced more of the fighting spirit than they have since they cinched the first series. Strengthened by the addition of Jack Brennan, late of Edmonton, they made a battle of words, if not of baseball. Bill Hurley was on the warpath, and in the heat of the fray used some language which sounded like a Sunday school golden text. There is some satisfaction in seeing the Hurleyites fighting their way again, but it must be confessed that the language used will not tend to draw the lady fans to the park.

Although it relieved the monotony to see some other team than Calgary on the win side of the column, the Bronks must blame stupid baserunning for their defeat. After fighting an uphill battle all the way, they at last got to Dickie Dickenson in the seventh round. The Bronks got seven safe hits in the inning, had the bases drunk most of the time, and scored six runs. Six runs should be enough to satisfy any team under ordinary circumstances, but it so happened that the visitors were 8 runs to the good at this time. Pete Standridge was the first to use poor judgment, and came home only to be tagged out, when he should have stayed at third. But Pete's poor running was cast in the shade by an exhibition given by Bobby Wells a couple of minutes later, when he walked all over his feet and back again in trying to get from second to third, only to be tagged out in a helpless fashion.

But the real feature of the matinee performance was the little playlet entitled "The rejuvenation of Phil Lezie." Philip came to see the Stampede, leaving the grain buying business to take care of itself. But the call of the diamond was too much for him, and before he knew what had happened, he was in a Broncho uniform. Phil didn't win his game last night, but demonstrated that he still had the same old curves. His twisters were unhittable, but he got in bad holes very often, and had to lay 'em in the groove. On these occasions the Deers walloped them unmercifully.

Ferdy Manning finished the game for Red Deer and did not allow the contest to be lost, although his defeat was only postponed until evening. For he went in after supper and while he pitched a very fair article of ball, Big Bill Barenkamp was too much for him and his teammates.

During the whole evening game only one visitor connected with Bill's offerings, and it is unnecessary to add that the Deers didn't win. The box scores:

Boat Race Postponed

Huntingdon, N. Y., Sept. 2.—The second day's program of the international motor boat races for the Harmsworth cup was called off this afternoon by the international committee and the race committee. Howling wind, with dashes of rain, had lashed the waters of Huntingdon Bay into seas, in which no motor boat could live.

SPORTING - FACTS - AND - FANCIES

BILLY ALLEN, former lightweight champion of the Dominion of Canada, and the gentleman who hopes tomorrow to regain that title, is adopting different training tactics than he did when he prepared for the Bassano battle at which he lost the honor. When he came here before, he weighed something like 125 pounds and so had to "build up" for the scrap. This time he is weighing over the 133 pound mark and is having to "train down". That is, he weighed over 133 when he came to the city but now he tips the scale at just an even 130.

Whether this different method of training will make any difference in the result will be interesting to watch. Last time he was a little overtrained; this time he is right in the pink. Overtraining is the worst thing than can happen to an athlete; it is far worse than lack of condition. Billy sure does look better than on his last appearance but the question is: Can he come back? If he does succeed in regaining his title he will be the first man in the annals of pugilism who has ever regained a title after he has once lost it.

IN the eyes of our Toronto friend, Thomas Flanagan, Billy Allen is still the lightweight champion of Canada. Tom, it will be remembered, gave a championship belt which he said would represent the lightweight championship. He gave it to Billy Allen and although Billy lost the title, he still holds the belt by virtue of a clause in the deed of gift which stipulated that all battles for the championship must be held in Toronto in Flanagan's old gymnasium. No matter how many times Billy is beaten elsewhere, in the eyes of Tom Flanagan et al. Billy can't be licked except in Toronto. Which is a very good illustration of the "sport hog" spirit of the East—the same spirit which says that there is no such place as Western Canada as far as rugby football is concerned.

THE nightmare which has been disturbing the sleep of the National Hockey association magnates, with the threat of organizing another league turns out to be none other than Lol Solman, of the Tecumseh Lacrosse club, and thereby hangs a tale. There is a Toronto Pro team in the N.H.A., but Solman is anxious to organize another team to be called the Tecumsehs. He realizes that the lacrosse following of the two teams will be likely to follow the hockey aggregations.

Last season when the Renfrew franchise was for sale, Solman endeavored to purchase it but Eddie McCaffery beat him to it. Eddie bought it with the idea of putting another team in Toronto, and has since repeatedly refused to sell it. Now Solman is one of the chief owners of the new Arena and says that McCaffery's team will not play on his little rink, and furthermore that if McCaffery wil not sell the franchise to him, or if the N.H.A. will not transfer it to him, he will organize another league to oppose them. He claims to have teams in Cleveland, Hamilton, the M.A.A.A. and Nationals in Montreal, a team in Ottawa financed by the street railway and his own Tecumsehs. Just what the N.H.A. will do is hard to ascertain, but if Solman is not appeased the prospects for a hockey war are bright.

DO some of the Eastern colleges start training for the rugby season too early? The two successive victories of Toronto Varsity have set some of the trainers discussing the merits and demerits of long training seasons.

Varsity does not start training until September 15th, and by that time, McGill will have had nearly four weeks of active practice, Otawa college and Queens' two week each. At first thought this would seem to give them an advantage over the Torontonians but the experience of the last two years has proved otherwise, for Varsity have won both the Inter-Collegiate and Eastern Canada championships. Some claim that a long season is liable to let the men get stale, but whether the other advantages of the long practice offset this or not is open to discussion. At any event, the short, virogous training season of Varsity has been successful in their case.

The team that won the championship for Varsity last year was the lightest that ever did so. Speed and skill were given the preference over weight and this policy is being adopted gradually by others.

Father Stanton of Ottawa college is one who is encouraging the lighter men this year. He expects all of last year's team back excepting Quilty, Heffernan, Kennedy and O'Leary. Cornellier, the 19-year-old half-back, who created such a sensation last year will return to college again. Lazure, another youngster who is said to be Cornellier's equal, will also line up with the college.
