the address in reply to the speech from the throne. The motion for the address, however, will not be formally made until Monday, to which date the house adjourned.

Sir Wilfrid's Amendment. After the adjournment of the house the Liberal members now in the city a long conference with Sir Wilfrid Laurier and it is understood that Wilfrid will conclude his speech on the address next Monday by offering an amendment to the address.

This amendment, it is believed, will express regret that the speech from the throne contained no reference to the alleged scandals in consecution the alleged scandals in connection with war contracts and no announcement as to what policy the government intends to pursue hereafter to prevent the repetition of such abuses. In government circles it is confidently asserted that the resolution providing for an extension of the parliamentary term will be introduced and given precedence over all over business as soon as the debate upon the address is disposed of. *

It is also reported that the budget speech will not be brought down for some weeks but that assurances will be given to the opposition that tariff changes of importance are be proposed at this session.

Speech From Throne. The speech from the throne was as

Since I last addressed you the war in which we are engaged has been continued with unabated vigor asd varying fortunes.

The empire's part therein has been amply maintained at sea by the inspiring achievements of the navy and on land by the distinguished valor of the great armies which have enrolled themselves in all parts of his matence of our liberties.

In a spirit of splendid loyalty and unfaltering devotion, India and the overseas dominions have view with each other in co-operating with the mother country to achieve this great Canada's Part in War, The call to service has evoked a widespread and notable response in Canada. Already 120,000 men have crossed the seas, an equal number is now being actively trained and equip-ped for service abroad and a call extending the authorized enlistment to half a million men has been received with warm enthusiasm.

At the front, our gallant soldiers have met the enemy in repeated contests, and by their pre-eminent courage and heroic endurance have lustre upon their country and upheld its traditions.

Equally praiseworthy and impres sive has been the self-sacrificing and loyal spirit shown by all the Canadian people, who have freely dedicated their manhood and substance to the common defence of the empire,

Would Avoid Election.

The life of the present parliament expires in the autumn of this year, and under extense legislation a disand, under existing legislation, a dissolution and election would be necessolution and election would be necessary in the early future. My advisers, however, are of the opinion that the wishes of the Canadian people and the present requirements of the war would be best met by avoiding the distraction and confusion consequent upon a seneral election so so crucial a time. That purpose can only be effected thru the medium of legislation by the parliament of the United Kingdom. A resolution authorizing and requesting the enactment of such legislation as applications can therefore be considered.

A wedding took place yesterday afternoon at the house of Mr. George H. Gooderham and Mrs. Gooderham, St. George street, when their eldest daughter, Evelyn Grace, was married to Dr. W. Berkeley Stark, only son of the late Dr. T. H. Stark and Mrs. Stark. The Ven. Archdeacon Cody performed the ceremony. The house was lovely with flowers, large brass vases of roses being used in the drawing-room, and an alcove of banked ferns and flowers being arranged where the ceremony took place. The dining-room and other rooms were decorated with large bowls of fragrant flowers. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore an exquisite gown of thread lace and Georgette crepe, the gown begin short and draped over a petiticoat of the same lovely lace, which was used on the corsage. Her girdle was of shiver and sprays of orange blossom caught the bouffant draping of the gown. Her table veil was held in place with a wreath of white heather and Myrtle, the orange blossoms and the wreath both having been worn by her mother when she was married. She carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses and illes of the valley. Miss Jessie Gooderham, her sister's maid of honor, wore a quaint frock of pink pompadour silk over a skirt of Georgette crepe, trimmed with silver lace. She carried an old-fashioned round bouquet of pink rosebuds with a lace friill. Mr. John Galbraith, lieutenant, C.E.F., was best man. Mrs. Gooderham received, wearing a graceful gown of pale gray crepe de chine trimmed with gray lace. Mrs. Stark, mother of the bridegroom, wore a black gown of silk and Georgette crepe, and a black hat. The wedding was very quiet, only relations and intimate friends being present. Dr. and Mrs. Stark left later for a trip to Klirkfield, the bride traveling in a smart tailormade of African brown hat with wings. Mrs. Stark will go to England with her husband when he leaves for the fron: to join the Medical Corps.

The marriage of Miss Verchoyle Cronyn to Major Crerar, 11th Battation. C.E.F., will take place this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock in the Church of St. Paul,

At the meeting of the Historical Society yesterday afternoon Mrs. W. H. T. Jarvis read a very interesting letter, just 100 years old, written by Mrs. Robert Hazen, Hazen Castle, St. John, N.B., to her brother, Mr. James Edmund Jarvis, who was in England. She sends him £100, and what she does not want him to bring her from there is not worth r'entioning: Trifle glasses, curtains, satin and stuff gowns, satin slippers, trizettes, jewelry; etc., and her directions as to prices, fashions, etc., are most minute. She also wishes him to reli two pairs for spectacles that are of no use to her, some hair, and a pair of epaulets (which used to be made of heavy silver gilt), on which he was to realize the sum of £20. She tells of an evening rarty at Judge Sanders, and a "jigger" at another I ouse. At the close of the meeting tea was served, for which a small charge was made, which went to the sock fund, the society having up to the present sent over 500 pairs.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY FOR SEVENTY-FIFTH

Relatives and Friends of Members of Battalion to Look After Their Needs.

A meeting will shortly be held to perfect the organization of a women's auxiliary to the 75th Battalion. The object is to provide an organization which will serve as a base from which the needs of both officers and menwill be supplied by their relatives and friends in Toronto. From time to time the quartermaster of the battalion will send a report as to what articles will be most needed and appreciated and these needs can be supplied much more promptly and accurately thru an organization than thru individual effort. There will be an overseas branch in England, thru which close touch will be kept with all officers and men of the battalion, and by this means news can be sent to Canada, information obtained and comforts of various kinds be sent to the prisoners and wounded.
