TORONTO ONT.

M. HILTON WILLIAMS, M.D.

PROPRIETOR.

Al diseases of the respiratory organs treated by "Medical Inhalations," combined with proper constitutional remedies.

CHRONIC BRONCHITIS.

Bronchitis is an inflammation of the mucous membrane of the bronchial tubes, and is one of the most common of the pulmonary affections. Chronic Bronchitis more often occurs later in life. When a cold settles on the lungs, the disease either ends in bronchitis or pneumonia. If it ends in bronchitis, it usually passes off as a cold on the chest, and still the patient does not feel entirely well. He feels tired and languid, and is incapable of taking his usual amount of exercise, and experience a shortness of breath, with more or less warmth in the palms of his hands. Soon after this a cough appears accompanied by an expectoration of thick mucous, followed by a hectic flush, loss of flesh and strength, and night sweats continue, when the patient assumes all the appearance of having a genuine case of consumption. But this is simply catarrh of the lungs, or chronic bronchitis.

In the later stages of the disease the mucous membrane of the larger bronchial tube softens, while in the smaller tubes and air cells of the lungs the mucous membrane becomes congested and inflamed. There are no cavities nor tubercles in the lungs, but merely a wasting away of the larger bronchial tubes, and death takes place from obstruction of the bronchial tubes and air-cells of the lungs. The patient dies from exhaustion and suffocation, being unable to expectorate the mucous which accumulates in the passage leading to the lungs, which in some cases is sticky and small in quantity, but more commonly copious, of a light straw or yellowish green. Oftentimes streaks of blood make their appearance in the mucous, and at times there is a disagreeable smell. Persons thus afflicted are very liable to take a cold, at which time the mucous becomes clear and frothy, and it is not uncommonly the case that the patient dies in one of these attacks.

Inhalations are applicable in all diseases of the respiratory organs, including catarrh, throat diseases, asthma, bronchitis, consumption; and thousands of cases can be cured by this mode of treatment when nothing else can reach them.

Those who desire to consult me in regard to their cases had better call at the office for an examination, but if impossible to visit the office personally, may write for "List of Questions" and circular, both of which will be sent free of charge. Address

DISCUSSING CLOTURE IN THE ENGLISH HOUSE OF COMMONS.

How the Business of the Country is Obstructed—The Tax on Tea and Coffee—General Cable News.

LONDON, March 20.—In the house of commons to-night the debate on the cloture proposal was resumed.

The Marquis of Huntington declared the proposal was nothing more than a modification of the existing restrictions on debater. The effect the resolution would have was greatly exaggerated. The government were unable under the present system to carry on the business of the country with dignity and effect. If other persons thought they could do so the ministry would with pleasure resign.

Sir Charles Dilke said the government was awaiting from the British minister at Washington to see what bearing the bill before congress for the abolition of differential duties on tea and coffee from the Netherlands' possessions would have on tea and coffee of British possessions.

COMMUNISTIC DISTURBANCES.

ROME, March 20.—There have been serious disturbances at Ravenna owing to the collection of a number of people to celebrate the anniversary of the Paris commune. The people refused to obey the summons of the authorities to disperse and a collision ensued in which a soldier was killed and another wounded. There were many arrests.

DIPLOMACY IN TURKEY.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 20.—The sultan yesterday and to-day requested the attendance of Dragoman of the American legation and asked him for particulars concerning the administration of the government affairs of the United States.

AFFAIRS IN IRELAND.

DUBLIN, March 20.—Five suspects have been released from Limerick jail.

Crawford, rate collector and agent, was dangerously shot while driving to church with his family near Clonmelton yesterday. Some members of his family were also injured.

Police Sub-inspector Doherty was fatally shot in a street disturbance at Tobbercum.

A wounded man, found on Tighe street, has died. The murderer was arrested.

CAPTURING PROVISIONS.

VIENNA, March 20.—The insurgents captured a large provision train berween Mostar and Nevesinji.

GOOD NEWS FOR HUGO.

PARIS, March 20.—While Victor Hugo was entertaiuing the staff of the Rappel newspaper this evening a telegram was received from St. Petersburg announcing that the czar had spared the lives of five nihilists in whose behalf Hugo pleaded. Hugo drank to the toast of the czar.

LABOR AND WAGES.

Strikes Extending All Over the Country—At Troy, Albany, Lawrence, Chicago and Other Points—The Latest Labor Notes.

The Chicago carpenters have decided to demand an advance after April 1, from $2 75 to $3 per day.

It is reported a cut will soon be made in the Washington mills at Lawrence, Mass., which employs 2100 operatives. Trouble is expected.

The Omaha labor troubles are unchanged, but there are no signs of violence and the governor has ordered part of the malitia home. The remainder will probably follow soon.

The Albany Typographical union has ordered a strike of compositors on the Evening Journal against a reduction of five cents per thousand, which goes into effect to-day.

The messenger boys employed by the Western Union Telegraph company in Boston struck yesterday, the alleged cause being a reduction of wages. They returned to work during the day, concessions having been made on both sides.

The telegraphers of the United States convered at Pittsburg yesterday, for the purpose of organizing a national protection association. The convention was the largest ever held, ninety-three delegates being present. M. W. Shaw of St. Louis was elected chairman.

The employees of the Glen Cove starch factory at Flushing, L. I., struck for an increase of wages on Saturday. On Sunday they took possession of the establishment, turning out the proprietors. The sheriff yesterday sent twenty-five officers to arrest the strikers.

A mass meeting at Chicago on Sunday under the auspicies of the Trades' assembly adopted resolutions declaring that an emergency had arisen which demand the interference of the collector of labor to bring about social, economical and industrial reform, and it is the duty of every working man to join a labor union.

The Troy, N. Y., moulders went to the foundaries yesterday morning and worked a short time, when the union committee appointed to act with the shop committees to equalize wages called on the superintendents, who refused to treat with them and work was immediately suspended.

Later—A committee of the stove manufacturers met with a committee of the moulders union in the evening to ascertain if a compromise was possible. The manufacturers refused to accede to the demands of the union, and the latter have called a meeting for to-day to decide definitely whether to strike.

Over 140 worsted weavers of the Pacific Upper mill, Lawrence, Mass., struck yesterday, making the total accessions to the strikers 400. The spinners meeting appointed a committee to ask the mill superintendents on what terms the strikers will be received. The meeting unanimously voted not to return to work under the proposed reduction. Mayor Breen and others have gone to Boston to consult the treasurer and directors of the Pacific mills. Over 1000 looms of the Upper Pacific mill and the entire worsted department were closed last night, throwing 3000 persons out of the worsted department. The lower Pacific mill probably will be closed to-day. Superintendent Lower of the Pacific mill informed the strikers' committee that the old wages would not be restored. There is great excitement, but no disturbances.

Later—The number of operatives affected by the strike is now not less than 3000. The mill superintendents yesterday afternoon informed the strikers' committee that the operatives could return to work any time under the proposed schedule. The result was reported to a mass meeting of strikers, who angrily voted to continue the strike. Another meeting was held at night, when it was resolved to express by ballot to-day whether to return to work or not.

The Telegraphic Rumors.

NEW YORK, March 20.—Jay Gould's representatives say there is nothing in the rumors of the amalgamation of the Western Union with opposition lines, although a working arrangement with the wires of the Baltimore and Ohio company has been agreed on.

The Weevil Scarcin Chicago.

CHICAGO, March 20.—Two hundred thousand bushels of corn in the Danville elevator, was posted on 'change yesterday as heating and containing weevil, The posting created far less excitement than the first r p rts of Saturday. The prices of corn were about a cent higher for No. 2. Posted corn sold at 60½c. No report was made on the other elevator said to have weevil.

Persecuting Christians in Norway.

PHILADELPHIA, March 20.—At a meeting of Baptist ministers to day a resolntion was adopted protesting in the name of christianity against the arrest of Godfrey Herbert, Baptist pastor at Skiem, Normay, who was recently sentenced by the courts there to pay a fine of $30 for baptising a convert both of whose parents were members of the church. It was resolved to request the secretary of state to instruct the American minister to Sweden and Norway to inquire into the case.

The Southern Floods.

ST. LOUIS, March 20.—A steamer from below reports a large yawl filled with negros was caught in a whirlpool at Milliker's bend and upset a few days ago and all were drowned. A whirlpool struck a church in which several people with stock had taken refuge. The church was torn to pieces and carried away. The people floated around in the water some hours, but were finally rescued.

VICKSBURG, March 20.—A canoe containing provisions capsized at Delta yesterday. Anderson Thomas was drowned. Two negroes were drowned on Friday at Madison parish by the upsetting of a skiff.

Alex. Brownley Discharged.

LONDON, March 20.—In the Ailsa Craig abduction case doubts are expressed as to how a prosecution could legally be carried on against the prisoner. Mr. Hutchinson, county crown attorney, had grave doubts as to whether the case could be prosecuted, in law, as an offence against public morals. The intent of the letter was evidently to accomplish the seduction of the young lady, which is not a criminal offence. From researches he had then made he was inclined to the opinion that the case, according to the information at present, would have to be dismissed. The case was afterwards dismissed accordingly. It is only fair to Brownley to add that he denies all knowledge of the letter, and vigorously protests that he never wrote it. He agreed to relinquish any rights he might possess as guardian of the girl and paid all the costs.

THE TRAIN AND TRACK.

The Northern Pacific will run through trains by September of next year.

The Souris and Rocky Mountain railway will cross the Little Saskatchewan a little below Rapid City.

Iron (London) says that American railroad companies are treating with Austrian manufacturers for 170 locomotives.

Mary Parker obtained a verdict of $20,000 against the Boston and Albany railroad for injuries, $2000 more than the previous verdict, which was set aside as excessive.

A C. P. R. survey party will make a traverse of the south branch from the mouth of the Seven Persons' creek to the mouth of the Red Deer, probably with a view to selecting a railway crossing.

The New York, West Shore and Buffalo railroad has completed a tunnel at Newburg, N. Y., 450 feet long and a change of tracks is necessary to make its crossing with the tracks of the Pennsylvania Coal company.

THE MOUNTAIN CITY.

Reports still continue to come in about the Manitoba boom. A prospective centre of excitement is Mountain city. Chief engineer O'Brien and staff were there a few days since making explorations and surveys with the view of locating the Southwestern into the town and the establishment of a station. Consequently citizens and farmers in the locality are asking absurd prices for their properties.

DEAN GRASETT.

His Death Yesterday—Sketch of his Life—Action of the Council—Funeral on Wednesday.

A man well known to Toronto passed away to his reward yesterday in the person of Dean Grasett. His slender forward figure, the faultless attire of black, the leggings, the clerical beaver, with his refined, clerical features, will exist hereafter only in memory. In all his ways, in voice, manner and method, he was a model of the Church of England clergyman. Beloved of his people, he was respected of all other denominations. A staunch upholder of evangelical principles, he was active in opposing the high church party, and promoting the late church association, and the present protestant episcopal divinity school. He worked earnestly with the other denominations in promoting common christian movements.

The dean was born at Gibraltar in 1808 His father, Dr. Henry Grasett, was deputy-inspector of army hospitals, and was at the time stationed at the Rock. In 1813, after going through the peninsular war, Dr. Grasett came to Canada to act as surgeon-in-chief during the war with the United States, and the dean—then 5 years old—came with him. At the close of the war he returned to England, where he received part of his early education at Southsea, in Hampshire. The remainder of his school life was spent at the grammar school at Quebec, where his father was stationed for a time. St. John's college, Cambridge, furnished the dean with a collegiate training, and in 1834 he graduated in arts, taking subsequently the degree of master of arts and bachelor of divinity, the former in 1842 and the latter in 1853. In 1834 the dean returned to Quebec, and was ordained to the ministry by the late Bishop Stewart, with whom he remained as assistant minister of the cathedral until July, 1835. He then came to Toronto, filling first the position of assistant minister of St. James' cathedral, and then the rectorship from 1847, and the deanery from 1867 until his death. During his long connection with St. James the church grew rapidly, till it now holds the most prominent position of all the anglican churches in Canada. In early life he married the daughter of Bishop Stewart of Quebec, who, with four sons and two daughters, still survives him.

The city council last night recorded its deep regret at the death of the dean, and the regard and esteem in which he was held by the citizens as a venerated clergyman and christian gentleman. The corporation will attend the funeral which is fixed for Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the cathedral, where the dean will be buried. On Wednesday morning the body will lie in state in St. James cathedral, from 10 to 1, so that the public may have a chance to take a last look upon the face of one who was familiar to all. At 1 o'clock the doors will be closed, and the relatives only will be allowed admittance until half-past two, when the doors will be again opened. At 3 o'clock the funeral services will begin, when a sermon will be preached by Rev. Mr. Sanson, of Trinity church.

THE FIRE BRIGADE.

From a return of the chief engineer of the fire department presented to the city council last night, some interesting facts are gleaned respecting the brigade. There are four officers and fifty fireman in the brigade, told off into eleven sections. Nine sections are branch and hose men and two sections are hook and ladder men. There are nine fire halls in the city. The principal apparatus of the department consists of three steam fire engines, two hook and ladder trucks, one four wheeled hose carriage, eight two wheeled hose reels, and 6900 feet of good hose. Besides the above there are old reels, old hose, an extension ladder, a salvage wagon and other apparatus not in use. There are fourteen horses and eleven drivers in the service, hired by contract, which expire on June 1. Thirty of the firemen were based in Toronto, eight in other parts of Canada, and fourteen in Ireland, the remaining few being from England, Scotland and the United States.

SMOKED OUT.

At 2.15 this morning as Policeman Wallace was passing Mitchell & Ryan's saloon on King street west he heard cries of fire from a window above. He hollered for the people inside to come down and open the door, which they did, a volume of smoke bursting forth at the same time. The officer ran to sound an alarm from the box at York and King streets. In the meantime Mrs. Mitchell re-entered the building to get possession of some valuable papers up stairs. While above the smoke became so overpowering that she was rendered unconscious, as also was her little boy. Two officers arrived at this time and rushing up stairs, carried Mrs. Mitchell and her son down, It was some time before they recoveced consciousness. The brigade lost no time in extinguishing the fire, which started in the basement from some as yet unknown cause.

DEBATING A CONSTITUTIONAL QUESTION IN THE HOUSE.

The New-Fangled Finance Institution from France Wants Unlimited Lending Powers—And Gets a Six Months' Hoist—Pointers.

(Special Despatch to the The World.)

OTTAWA, March 20.—To-day was a private members' day, and as it goes without saying a dull day in the house. There was quite a long discussion over the constitutionality of the bill to incorporate the it being contended by Mr. Blake and Mr. Mills that according to the provisions of the bill it was one that properly came within the provision of local legislatures.

Sir John Macdonald, Mr. Hector Cameron and Mr. Colby took the opposite view, and a lively debate followed on local points, which was kept up till recess and for an hour after. Finally the bill was passed with some amendments.

THE CREDIT FANCIER "FIXED."

The next debate arose on the motion by Mr. Girouard (Jacques Cartier) for the second reading of a bill to extend the powers of the CREDIT FONCIER FRANCO CANADIENE.

When the bill respecting this organization was introduced last year it provided that the rate of interest to be charged was not to exceed 6 per cent., and it was predicted by the promoters that it would bring about a millenium in the matter of money lending. The company now ask for unlimited powers with respect to the rate of interest.

Mr. Bourassa moved the six months' hoist and a number of members on both sides of the house spoke to his motion, not one of them supporting the bill, and several of them denouncing the bill in strong terms. Finally the members were called in, and the motion for the six months' hoist was carried on a division of 106 to 35.

The house then adjourned.

POINTERS.

Miss Romaine's Romance.

OTTAWA, March 20.—Miss Romaine, otherwise known in Montreal as Bridget McGuire, the lady who had such a narrow escape from being married, does not evidently intend to allow her good name to be attacked with impunity. She has entered an action against Messrs. Uglow & McGiffin for sending newspapers containing articles reflecting on her character. Miss Romaine is the young lady who entered the breach of promise suit against Mr. McLean, barrister. It is said that an attempt was made to get rid of her before the assizes came on. She says that a tempting offer was made to her to go to Manitoba as a governess, but with the understanding that she must leave in the first week of April. The offer was rejected.
