Working Out at Dufferin Park for the Christmas Meet.

There was fast work yesterday at Dufferin Park by the horses getting ready for Christmas Day matinee.

Trainer Kennedy has the track record so far. He worked his new purchase, the pacer, Bob L., five heats better than 2.50, the fourth mile in 2.27, the best work of any of the horses over ice this season. He also worked Mr. Chantler's Harry S. four miles, putting the third one in 2.35.

Mr. Lowerree's trotter, Dixie Boy, also worked, going a nice mile in 2.30.

Riley B., Mr. Scott's entry for the $1000 stake at Ottawa, worked along with Black Joe, from Mr. Montgomery's stable, the fastest mile in 2.34.

Mr. Nesbitt's Roger was right on edge, and stepped the last half in one of his miles in 1.12.

Nat Ray worked Silver and Prince Greenlander. The latter horse looks as if he could trot as fast as he likes. He stepped a mile in 2.30, the last quarter in 34 seconds, a 16 clip. The free-for all horses will know they have been to the races when they beat this horse down the ice circuit this winter.

Mr. Hennis, the president, gave Gipsy Girl slow work with Little Dick.

Reflect worked three miles, as also did Jack Smith from the Montgomery stable, each mile better than 2.50.

The president of the Toronto Driving Club, Ald. Sam McBride, had Sam Kelwick, his green pacer, worked with Little Sandy and Little Hector. The alderman's horse worked to the outside of the track, but he always held the other horses safe and did his work easily. Keep a line on this fellow when he goes down the circuit.

The club will have a splendid card for the Christmas matinee, and three of the best races ever pulled off at the track are expected to take place.

NEW AMSTERDAM REPEATS CITY PARK STEEPLECHASE

Charawind Was Second and Lord Radnor Third—Nicol Set Down, Rode Three Winners.

New Orleans, Dec. 20.—Seven races and a steeplechase were on the card for to-day. The management last night declared that the latter would probably be declared off, but decided to let the race stand after looking at the course to-day. The field was covered with water from the heavy rain of yesterday, and when the race was being run it could be seen that the horses had all they could do to pull their feet out of the slush. "WORTH THE PRICE"

This is the verdict of every discriminating purchaser of sectional bookcases after a comparison of the "Macey" with every other line. The best article in any line of goods is naturally a little more expensive, but the satisfaction in possessing a worthy bookcase more than compensates for the slight difference in cost.—No bookcase possesses the unique features of the "Macey"—no line is so complete and nowhere is such a large stock carried for immediate delivery as at Gossip of the Turf.

J. B. Haggin's Watercress, for whom he paid $71,000 at the recent sale of the Rancho del Paso stud in New York, is ill at Lexington, Ky., suffering from a fever.

It has been decided by the directors of the Washington Park Club, at Chicago, to sell the property and go out of business as a jockey club. Seventeen races for the American Derby have been run over the course since it was built in 1884. The most valuable 2-year-old stake in the country was run there in 1903. The full value of the stake was $60,000, of which Boundless won for his owner, J. E. Cushing, $50,000. Garrison rode the winner.

While being loaded at Lexington, Ky., last night for shipment to Mexico City, imported Gansalvo, by Ferdinandez, dam Cherie, winner of the Carersteich Handicap, dropped dead. He had just been bought by Cavanaugh Brothers of St. Louis, and was going to Mexico for stud service. He was winner of the Goodwood Cup and Alexandra Plate in England.

San Nicholas, 6 years old, by Reggie, out of Virginia Dare, is now the holder of the Pacific coast record at six furlongs, having run that distance at the Oakland track recently in 1.12, carrying 118 pounds. San Nicholas ran to the east in 1904, and was able to hold his own with sprinters.

Improvements are being made at Brighton Beach. The six furlong chute is being straightened, and 200 modern stables are to be built near the carriage entrance at Neptune-avenue.

The Brighton Beach Racing Association has announced its lists of the stakes to be run at Brighton Beach during the season of 1906. The entries will close with John Boden, jr., racing secretary, Jan. 2, 1906. In addition to the list offered, the invincible Handicap, for 3-year-olds and upward, with $7500 added, has been placed on the program. Like the Brighton Handicap, it is at one mile and a quarter, and it is meant to be a sequel to that event.

Count Fassilo Festetics, who has been racing horses in his native country, Hungary, for nearly 40 years, heads the list of winning owners in that country and Austria this year, with $81,000 to his credit. Charles Dunker comes for Count Festetics, as well as for Count Rathyany, Duke Texis, Count George Festetics and Count Csekonics, and for these five gentlemen he has won this year $235,000, an amount only exceeded by M. L. Blanc's trainer, Denham. Up to this year the American trainer, J. R. Dyer, had the best record on the Austro-Hungarian turf.

While on a recent trip to Kentucky, Tom Welch said that the best stallion that he saw there was Ben Strome. There is in training at Louisville a yearling bay colt by Ben Strome out of the dam of Cleophus, the mare which won so many races for M. F. Dwyer, which is expected to prove very formidable in the stakes to be run in the year at New Orleans.

Age and the Fighters.

A feature of last night's fight that will interest people generally is the showing made by a man of Fitzsimmons' age. Fitzsimmons was 43 years old last June, and is the oldest man who ever has entered the ring in America in an engagement as pretentious as that of yesterday. Jem Mace was nearly 41 years old when he fought Joe Coburn for the world's heavyweight championship at Bay St. Louis, Miss., and Joe Goss was close to his 40th year when he lost the championship to Paddy Ryan. In general, a man is supposed to reach his athletic prime between 29 and 30. This has been considered especially true of fighters. John L. Sullivan was champion at 23—34; Jim Corbett at 26—30; Fitzsimmons, middleweight champion at 29, heavyweight champion, 35—37, and light heavyweight champion, at 41. Gans was lightweight champion at 25, and still holds the title at 29—McGovern won the bantamweight championship of the world at 20 and the featherweight championship before he was 21, and lost it at 22. Young Corbett was featherweight champion at 21-23; Jimmy Britt at 24-25; Battling Nelson is champion at 23. And so the list goes.

Ball players, as a rule, are out at 40, and so are the representatives of almost all sports, especially those requiring great activity. Whoever heard of a leading tennis player 40 years of age?

Boxing is supposed to call forth a man's supreme physical powers, both in offensive tactics and in defensive powers of endurance. Therefore, the spectacle of a man 43 years of age in the ring against a skillful fighter near his prime affords an interesting illustration of the possibilites of a man retaining his powers in good condition. Fitzsimmons always has been credited with ten percent bathits. He laid the foundation of strength in hard manual labor in his youth as a blacksmith, and has not shattered this foundation by dissipation after attaining fame and money, as most successful fighters have done.

Afternoon Betting.

San Francisco, Dec. 20.—There has been a change in the betting on the Fitzsimmons-O'Brien glove contest, to take place tonight. The volume of money which poured into the pool rooms last night and yesterday morning on Fitzsimmons has made the Cornishman the favorite. Good judges of odds declare that when the men enter the ring Fitzsimmons will be a 10-to-7 choice. Both men are in fine condition. As to result, the opinions of the fistic experts here are as widely different as the two poles.

Those who favor Fitz point to the fine work he did in training, as different from his labored efforts when he fought George Gardner here two years ago. The O'Brien faction, while realizing that the Philadelphian has a big contract on hand, figure on his youth and wonderful cleverness, and that Jack will get the bigger end of the purse.

Both Fitz and Jack predict the fight will end in a knockout before they have gone the ten rounds, and each man is confident the other's head will be on the canvas when Referee Graney counts the fateful 10 seconds.

While the battle will be at catch-weights, there will be only a pound or two difference, if any, in the weights of the men when they enter the ring. Both Fitzsimmons and O'Brien state they will tip the scales between 161 and 164 pounds.

Hockey Notes.

The resignation of Dr. Wood from the secretaryship of the University of Toronto Athletic Association was accepted by the University directorate yesterday, and a recommendation was forwarded to the University Council that J. T. Sherry be appointed to succeed him.

A meeting of the sub-committee of the O. H. A. is to be held at the Star office on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The disposal of business left over from the executive meeting.

W. A. Hewitt, secretary of the O. H. A., has withdrawn notice of his suit for libel against G. F. McKim, editor of The Rideau Record. Mr. Hewitt took exception to statements made in that paper after the annual meeting of the O. H. A. concerning the Smith's Falls-Marlboro trouble last winter. Mr. McKim made ample apology to Mr. Hewitt thru the columns of his paper, and Mr. Hewitt is satisfied with the vindication.

In a game that was marked by fast altho rough play, the hockey club of New York defeated Yale Tuesday night by 4 to 1.

FLEECED RESTAURANT KEEPER OF THEIR BOARD.

A very neat method of obtaining board and lodging free was exposed yesterday when William Jordan and John Ind were arrested upon charges of vagrancy.

Two weeks ago the pair went to the Aberdeen restaurant on Church-street with a note purporting to be signed by A. Brown, foreman of Firstbook's Box Factory, stating that the two men were employed in the factory. Upon this the men were given board and lodgings until Monday. Then they told the proprietor that they had lost their job and left the restaurant.

They were arrested by Detectives McKinney and Miller while trying to get the superintendent of the Salvation Army Shelter to take them in on the same basis.

Wanted in Norwich.

Acting upon information received from the chief constable of Norwich, Detective Kennedy met the train as it came into Toronto and arrested Lorne Catton, aged 18. He is charged with theft.
