Grand Falls St. Andrew's Society

BURNS NIGHT.

The Grand Falls St. Andrew's Society celebrated the Burns Anniversary on Jan. 27th in the Town Hall, which was gaily decorated for the purpose.

To Mrs. McPherson, and the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary Society, great credit is due for the excellent catering arrangements and the tasteful table decorations.

The supper was followed by the usual toasts, interspersed with musical items, suited to the occasion. The songs proved to be happily selected, and were thoroughly enjoyed by an appreciative audience.

"The Immortal Memory" was proposed by Rev. W. C. Morrison in a scholarly address. He gave a brief but interesting sketch of the Poet's career, incidently comparing the reward received by Burns during his lifetime with the sums now realized for his manuscripts and the early editions of his works. The kind of reward that is too often the lot of genius.

On the completion of the musical programme, dancing was carried on until a late hour, a feature being the reels and Scottish dances. The Society has as one of its aims the revival and cultivation of the old dances, an aim which appears to be well on the road to attainment to judge from present examples.

The success of the whole evening is of good augury for the future of the Society, which is now entering upon its third year of existence.

Health and Vitality for Women

Health and Vitality can be yours without narcotics or drugs. Keeping well is largely a matter of keeping at bay those dread ailments peculiar to women as evidenced by headaches, nervousness, dragging-down pains, backache and irritability. For fifty fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been overcoming such conditions and restoring sick and ailing women to health. It surely pays every suffering woman to try it.

Anita Stewart at Star Movie To-Day

The man who loved her called her faithless. Gossipers said she trifled with life. Yet it was life—her life—that she risked to win back the love of the man who condemned her.

"A Question of Honor'" is a baffling problem that even Edison overlooked.

It's a chapter of the new West. Punctuated with action and romance.

"A Question of Honor" brings up the question of whether Anita Stewart will ever again surpass it for daring and dramatic talent.

A society "deb" finds a strange love and a rapid succession of thrills on the scene of a gigantic engineering work.

You'll find the answer to "A Question of Honor" in the heart of loving womankind.

Since "Old Kentucky," Anita Stewart has never appeared in more daring scenes or thrilling situations than in "A Question of Honor."

There is only one answer to "A Question of Honor"—it is stunning—surpassing anything Anita Stewart has ever done.

She scorned convention—risked her life—and her reward was to be called faithless by the man for whom she had made every sacrifice.

A real-life story of a girl who made every sacrifice and the reward it won for her.

"Recoil" Story of Thrills and Int

A PICTURE THAT PLEASES MOST CRITICAL.

"Recoil," a new Rex Beach produced by J. Parker Read directed by T. Hayes Hunter shown in St. John's last the first time at the Nickel It proved to be quite differe other Rex Beach pictures, it had in common with them drama and strongly indivi characters which have come associated with this author's ings.

The story is intriguing and ing. It tells the love story don Kent, an American multi aire, and Norma Selbee, an can girl stranded in France are married upon very short tance and develop incompat which cause Norma to seek tection of Laurence Marchm reality a famouus crook been following her about. Ke them down and gives orders shall be compelled to live tog the rest of their lives. Hi and the influence of his fri head of a detective bureau him to carry out his purpose. husband, whom she suppose dead, is discovered in New Y a new twist is given to the st he is killed by Marchmont through this melodramatic that Kent becomes convinc Norma really loves him and her to South America.

Betty Blythe has in the Norma Selbee one of the b that has recently fallen to She acts the part vividly and to it the wealth of her motio experience. Mahlon Ham seen as the American millio acts with his usual debonai and convincingness. Others cast are Clive Brook, Fred Ernest Hilliard.

An Artful Archit

One of the most remarkab of an architectural joke may by any visitor to Windsor. H the hill so well known by vi the Castle stands the Tow which has often been ascribed Christopher Wren, the archite Paul's Cathedral. But Wren ished it, for it was designed than half built by another who died before his work w plished.

The Mayor and Corporation time were not satisfied that was safe, for it is built over Corn Exchange, through whi estrians pass daily. At first supported only by great bea they requested Wren to ev pillars in the Corn Exchang to give the beams on which structure rests additional

It was in vain that the arc tect assured them these pilla not necessary, so the four pill erected and, to all appearance their quota to the security of above. Now it has been d that Sir Christopher left a sp inch at the top of each, so four pillars have never given Town Hall the least suppo space between the pillar and was hidden by a thin crust of and now that this has fallen spaces are clearly revealed.
