A Frenchman was in [illegible] resentment [illegible] against [illegible] but had forgotten the English word. So he got around the difficulty in the following way:

"Pattens, my dear, talking in de yard?"

"Cook, sir."

"All! and are you call de cook a rib?"

"The cook, sir!"

"And yet you call de chicken of de cook [illegible]?"

"Cockerel, sir."

"Yes, yet you call de stickens before say [illegible]?"

"Sage, sir."

"Sage and tea."

An External Tonic Applied to the Skin Beautifies it as by Magic.

THE DISCOVERY OF THE AGE

A Woman was the Inventor.

Many preparations intended to beautify the complexion have failed, since they do not produce a tonic effect on the skin. Because the Misses Bell's Complexion Tonic has stood all tests, it succeeds where all mere cosmetics invariably fail. This great remedy, discovered by the Misses Bell, the famous complexion specialists, of No. 78 Fifth Avenue, New York City, carries off all imperfections which the blood forces to the surface of the body. It is exhilarating and [illegible] wherever applied. Freckles, pimples, blackheads, moth patches, wrinkles, liver spots, roughness, oiliness and sallowness disappear, and the skin becomes soft and clear as a lily's.

The Misses Bell will this month give to all who call at their [illegible] a free trial bottle of their Complexion Tonic. Those who live at a distance may have a free bottle by sending 25 cents in silver or stamps to cover the cost of packing and delivery. The price of this wonderful tonic is One Dollar a bottle.

The Misses Bell's new book, "Secrets of Beauty," is sent free. It tells how a woman can gain and keep a good complexion. Special chapters to the care of the hair; how to preserve its color and lustre, even to an advanced age. How to get rid of superfluous hair on the neck and arms without injury to the skin. The valuable book will be mailed to any address on request. Correspondence cordially entertained. Address,

The Misses Bell, 78 Fifth Ave., New York.
