

off in the number of families attached to the Church. The evidence as far as I can learn is altogether in the other direction.

My own opinion is that there are many people who are attending St. Paul's whose names and addresses are unknown to the Clergy.

There can be no doubt I think, but that there is a growing interest and an increasing attendance at the Church services, and every month we are able to chronicle in the Parish and Home new additions to the Church List.

STATISTICS OF WORK.

A brief statement of our clerical and pastoral work may be of interest.

THE RECTOR—I have conducted or participated in Services.	213
“ preached Sermons.....	63
“ delivered Addresses.....	111
“ attended Meetings.....	148
“ paid Parochial Visits.....	1063
“ “ Sick Visits, (included above)....	201
“ “ Social, (Extra).....	200
“ celebrated Marriages.....	6
“ “ Funerals.....	18
“ “ Baptisms.....	24
THE REV. LEO WILLIAMS—Services.....	85
“ Sermons.....	18
“ Addresses.....	48
“ Meetings.....	63
“ Visits.....	530
“ Weddings.....	1
“ Funerals.....	1
“ Baptisms.....	1

The Rev. Leo Williams assumed his duties as Curate of the Parish on the first Sunday in December, 1897, and has discharged all his parochial work to my entire satisfaction. I feel sure that his labours are thoroughly appreciated by the whole congregation. He is paying special attention to the younger members of the congregation, and to the work of the young men's Bible Class, of the Young People's Society, and of the Band of Hope.

He is now engaged in his first parochial visitation.

It is very gratifying to me to note the success which

Mr. Williams in connection with his work. I trust his great usefulness.

There are former Rectors who he removed to fully and energetically and the salvation of the

In the six

Sermon
Took part Attend
Paid v

Mr. J. A.

Visits—

“

Meeting

“

Bible C

Men's M

Other m

Service

Number

Ab

Number

Situatio

“

“

Women

I bear very much of the same character as the work carried on with the Winfield. The work is a standing witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ. It can be no question but that its simplicity and its reach to the regular service of the first step at the work is also of