THE Directors have the pleasure to announce to the public, that all is now completed of the eighteenth year of the Institution, humbly and thankfully acknowledging the gracious Providence of God.

The health of the Institution has been an exception; and the results of the last year have been realized. It is hoped that the advantages which the Institution offers to the Directors hope that the Institution will be able to impress on the minds of the pupils so as to have the desired effect.

The Directors have the pleasure to announce that the Government, and the Board of Directors, have visited of three months.

While the general feeling of the public, and the Building Fund, have been a great help to the Institution, remind those to whom it is wanting to pay their Building account, that they may not be able to do so. While the contributions are many other objects. Why might not the Churches in every town and village in behalf of suffering human beings. "The Bible, and the Bible, and the Bible."
