STEALING A WIFE.

Mr. Bougs' Novel Method of Securing a Girl Who Doesn't Want Him.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 7.—Samuel Bougs, a farmer who lives eight miles north of Columbus, has chosen a novel way of getting a wife. On a farm, about a mile north of Maxtown, resides a family of five orphan children named Bennett. There are three sons, all grown, and two daughters. Lela Bennett is a beautiful girl, 16 years of age, and quite a favorite in the neighborhood. One-half mile from Bennett's live the Bougs. Young Sam Bougs has been in love with Lela Bennett for some time, but has not made much headway. The latter's family were bitterly opposed to the match, but Sam announced that "he was going to marry the girl even if the king of shoel opposed."

Watching for the time when all the male members of the Bennett household would be away from home, he with his brother Ed and Quincy Van Tassel went to the Bennett residence bent on kidnapping the young lady. Lela and Mrs. Bennett, wife of the elder brother, A. E. Bennett, were in the house. The young men inquired for Lela, and by their actions and words revealed the purpose of their visit. The girls were frightened, but succeeded in closing the doors and locking them. Edna, the elder sister, at once procured the family shotgun, and the three scared girls prepared to defend themselves. Samuel Bougs was not to be thwarted, however, and procuring a ladder, mounted to the second story window. The girls ran up stairs to the room just as the three men were entering, and Edna, who held the gun, fired. The load entered the shoulder of Quincy Van Tassel, inflicting a dangerous wound, and he retreated. Before the girl could discharge the second barrel, however, the other two young men overpowered her and snatched the gun from her hands. The girls were then powerless, and Samuel seized Lela, dragged her down stairs, and carried her away, all three of the kidnappers escaping.

The girls at once gave the alarm, but the deed had been accomplished and Lela was safely secreted. The brothers were soon notified, and went to Westerville and swore out warrants for the three young men. Constables left immediately to find and arrest the three men, but as yet they have not been found.

Fine Autumn in the West.

REGINA, N. W. T., Oct. 7.—Phenomenally fine weather is being enjoyed in the territories at present. At this point no frost has yet seriously injured vegetable growth and the weather is hot. In the western parts of the territories, near the Rocky Mountains, slight snowstorms are reported.

A Wife's Awful Deed.

COATSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 7.—The wife of William Sharp poured coal oil on her husband's bed clothing yesterday while he was asleep and applied a match, burning him to death. Sharp endeavored to extricate himself, but the woman resisted his efforts and was herself severely burned. It is thought she will also die.

Crow's Nest Pass.

REGINA, N. W. T., Oct. 7.—Grading is almost completed on the new C. P. R. line into the Crow's Nest Pass. Gangs of graders are scattered at intervals along the route of the proposed railway for over 80 miles, and will grade at least into the mouth of the pass. When this point is reached work will cease, as it is understood no rails will be laid this year.

WEST NISSOURI.

THORNDALE, Oct. 6.—A very successful fair was held here yesterday. Notwithstanding the bad weather hundreds were lured from their homes by the attractions presented by the energetic directors of the West Nissouri Agricultural Society. All the different classes were well represented. As usual, the horse ring was the most popular attraction. In the free-for-all Mr. Annett's Bill McKinley won, with the horse of Mr. J. M. Creighton, of Embro, a good second. The 3-year-old race was won by Randolph, owned by E. Langford, of Biddulph, and she had a good second in Minnie D., owned by G. H. McRoberts. Another Randolph colt, W. R. Brown, secured first place in the farmers' trot, G. Bakerville second, with J. Routledge third. The gate receipts netted nearly $100 (the admission being 10 cents each), notwithstanding a liberal disposal of free tickets to members.

PARKHILL.

PARKHILL, Oct. 6.—The fair opened on the 4th with rain, which threw a damper upon the success, but the 5th appeared bright and fine and the fair was a success beyond all expectations. Thousands congregated and everything went off well. The grain and root crop was one of the best that was ever shown in Western Ontario on a small scale. There is no fair west of Toronto, except London, that shows to such advantage as the Parkhill fair, for the reason that Parkhill is in the center of the best agricultural section in Western Ontario.

HURON CENTRAL.

CLINTON, Oct. 6 --The Huron Central Exhibition opened here to-day. It promises to be fully as successful as any previous exhibition. The display of all varieties of fruit is simply magnificent.

CHATHAM—LAST DAY.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 6.—The first conviction ever secured in Philadelphia for docking a horse's tail was the result of a suit before Magistrate McCarthy, brought by the women's branch of the Society to Prevent Cruelty to Animals. The defendant was Mrs. G. M. Brooks, a society leader. She was fined $25. To-morrow, before the same magistrate, Dr. Wm. L. Lane, president of the Boston Merchants' Association, presided, and President Jerome Jones, of the Associated Board of Trade, President L. G. Burnham, of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, Collector A. W. Beard and other prominent men were present. All the speakers expressed themselves as in favor of the movement from a business standpoint and willing to assist individually.
