FRANK RAPP MAKES AUSPICIOUS DEBUT

The Latest Addition to London Heaving Staff Blanks Leaders.

HAPPY RICH PUMMELLED

Slammed for Eighteen Hits, and First Goes to Visitors, 17 to 5.

Two games of baseball, advertised as a double-header, but widely different in every aspect, were staged at Tecumseh Park on Saturday afternoon before a crowd of 1,500 raving bugs, the opposing forces being Berlin and London, the two leading teams in the Canadian League. The first contest, after giving promise of an exciting affair, developed suddenly into a German picnic, with Deneau's men serving all the enjoyment at the expense of Jo-Jo Keenan's pets, and when the final session had been concluded, to the great relief of the fans and fanettes, the score stood 17 to 5, with Berlin on the large end.

As before mentioned, the game started out like a real ball game should. Rich and Chaput were the opposing twirlers, and for the first two innings Berlin was held scoreless, while London counted three runs.

Then something happened, something entirely unexpected. In the second inning Rich received one of Chaput's fast ones on the head. It looked like a knockout, but Happy came back and went in the box again.

Rich Was Poor.

Perhaps it was expecting too much from him to pitch the game after that. Berlin got one in the third and three more in the fourth, Brant helping things along with a nice throw about a mile over Lane's head. Then London tied the score in the fourth, and a lull came in the fifth and sixth, neither team scoring. But, oh, that awful seventh!

Cameron started it with a single to centre, and stole second. Deneau singled and Cameron came in. Deneau was forced on Templin's bunt, but Bullock singled to right. Then, with second and first occupied, and only one out, Dinsmore sent up a pop fly that landed in front of second base, and just out of the reach of Brant and Nichols, who were playing in for a bunt. Properly, Dinsmore was out by the infield fly rule, but Johnson was not umpiring the game according to rules, apparently, and the matter was passed by. Then it happened. Brant, who fielded the ball, threw to catch Bullock at third, and once more heaved away wide, Templin scoring and Bullock reaching third, while Dinsmore was safe on second. Cambria walked, and filled the bases, and Miller's bunt forced Bullock. This should have been the third out by the rules.

Giving Overtime.

Then Chaput walked and another run came in. Burns hit to right, and when Hynes threw to catch a runner at the plate, the ball struck a bat that had been left lying there, and bounded over McWhirter's head, three runs counting, and Burns reaching third. Cameron scored Burns on a hit, and the proceedings ended when Cameron was caught stealing. After that the game was a burlesque, London scored once more, and Berlin had another picnic in the ninth, when they added six more. Long before the end of the ninth the fans were yelling for the end of the game, and it was 6 o'clock before the last man was out.

Rapp a Real Find.

The second game was a real exhibition, and London came out on the right end of a 4 to 0 score.

Frank Rapp, the latest addition to the local pitching staff, was on the mound, and he had the Berlin batters looking foolish. Rapp is a southpaw and looks like a real pitcher—a very scarce article on the London payroll until he came.

He has splendid control and some fast-breaking curves. He is also a great fielder, and made some nice pickups of difficult grounders. At the bat he looks promising, and is altogether a likely addition to the London team.

Teed undertook the heaving for the Dutch Companee, and although pitching good ball, was touched up in the fifth and sixth innings for a total of four hits and as many runs. In the fifth Nichols walked and Green sacrificed. McWhirter singled and Nichols scored. Rapp and Kyle were easy outs. Three runs were gathered in in the sixth, when Barrett walked and stole second, but was nipped at the plate trying to score on Brant's hit to right.

Lane Hitting Heavy.

Lane came across with a three-bagger, however, his second one for the afternoon, and Brant scored. Nichols walked, and Green hit to left, scoring Lane and Nichols, the latter making a great spring from first base. Berlin was unable to do anything in the seventh, and Umpire Johnson announced that the game was called on account of darkness.

There is not much to be said on the playing of either team. "Scotty" Cameron gave a good exhibition and justified his being drafted into faster company. Dinsmore, the local boy with Berlin, made a nice catch in left field and played a pretty fair game in both sessions. Big Bill Lane had a couple of nice three-baggers, and made some nice stops at first base. The real feature of the afternoon, though, was Rapp's pitching, and it looks as if London had at last found somebody to take Sammy Smith's place. Umpire Johnson was—but what's the use?

O'TOOLE CLASSY IN ST. LOUIS MATCH

$22,500 Beauty Wins His Second Contest for Pirates.

FANS NINE CARDINALS

Greeted By Great Mob on Forbes' Field in Second of Double-Header.

Pittsburg, Sept. 2.—Pittsburg fans got their first look at the much-heralded Marty O'Toole, in the second game of a double header with St. Louis today, the local aspirants for the pennant incidentally dividing honors with the representatives from the banks of the Mississippi. Bresnahan's followers started out strong in the first game, and Max Carey, in middle field for Pittsburg, failed to connect with a hot one that let in the tally for the inning. Several times a tie was threatened, but it didn't seem "to take," and the game ended four to eight for St. Louis.

A holiday crowd had turned out for the double header and in hope of seeing the O'Toole man.

'Ray For Marty.

Throughout the first game the crowd cried for him, continually, and the hope of seeing the westerner kept many for the second game. When the "big fellow" went into the box at the call of the second game, there was a demonstration that made the pitcher blush.

When he struck out the first man that faced him, he had won the crowd apparently, but when he struck out eight others he could have owned Forbes field for all the fans cared. O'Toole was steady throughout despite the trying situation. Not a single base on balls did he give, and only three hits were scored. The only run St. Louis made in the game was the result of a three-bagger by Mowery, and an out at first by Bliss.

ST. LOUIS LOSES TO HARD-HITTING TIGERS

Jennings' Men Hit Hard on Sunday—Cleveland Mauls the White Sox Twice and Move Up.

St. Louis, Sept. 3. — Detroit walked away with today's game 8 to 3. Moser, who started for St. Louis, was given poor support and was hard hit in the pinches. Willett was chased out of the game by O'Loughlin for throwing his glove on the ground. The score:

CLEVELAND 7, CHICAGO 3.

Chicago, Sept. 2. — Cleveland trampled the White Sox into sixth place today. They beat the Sox 7 to 2 in 12 innings in the first game, pounding out five runs off Walsh in the 12th, and coming back hard, beat them 3 to 1 in the second.

Cleveland beat the Sox on the nicer points of the game in both contests, and incidentally the Naps moved up even with Boston, and looks now to be the best chance for third position in the American League race.

Cincinnati, Sept. 3.—The Reds bunched five hits on Adams in the fourth inning today and earned three runs, which was plenty to win with the way Fromme was pitching. The Red twirler had a great day. Until the ninth not a Pirate got to third base, and the only one who arrived at second did so on errors. In the ninth Byrne's double and Clark's single gave them a run and saved them from a shut-out. The Reds hit Adams hard at all times, but could only bunch in the fourth. The score:

TORONTO MAY HAVE CANADIAN LEAGUE

Movement on Foot To Have Games Played in Toronto When the Maple Leafs Are on Road.

Toronto News: That there will be a Canadian League team in Toronto next season seems to be a certainty. The idea is to place a club in the league made up of the surplus players on the Toronto team, and they will play here when the Leafs are on the road, so that Toronto will have "continuous performance" in the baseball line. President McCaffery is rather favorably inclined toward the project. Mr. Fred Westbrook, of Brantford, is behind the movement. He says that the class of ball played in the Canadian League is better than is generally believed, and that the Toronto public would support such a club.

LEFTY SMITH IN FORM

Brantford Pitcher Shuts Maple Leafs Out With Two Hits, While the Brantfordites Hit Schumann.

Guelph, Sept. 2.—Lefty Smith celebrated the fact that he has been drafted by the New York Americans by standing the Maple Leafs on their heads here today. Two hits were all that were made off his delivery, and the Guelphites did not have a chance. The team behind him made three errors, but Smith pitched brilliantly all the time. Schuman pitched a good game, but he could not win against such odds. The score:

	R.	H.	E.
Brantford	4	6	3
Guelph	0	2	0
