SNOW PROTECTS WINTER WHEAT

With Fear of Damage Removed, Prices Declined at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—Snow acted as a blanket for winter crops, and went far today toward removing dread of threatened injury by a cold wave. Largely as a result the wheat market closed weak, 1-8c to 3-8c under last night. Corn finished 1-2c to 3-4c down and oats off a shade. In provisions the outcome was an advance of 7 1-2c to 15c net.

It was not until near the end of the session that the bulls lost control of wheat. The fact had then become apparent that over wide areas of autumn sown grain snowfalls were preceding the expected drop in temperatures. Buying enthusiasm, however, was already on the ebb because of signs that the cold would not be long continued or unusually severe, and because of disappointment at the stoppage of export enquiry.

Corn Receipts Large.

Big houses which have been active buyers of corn switched to the selling side in the last hour today. Receipts were much over the estimate, and there were asertions that damage in Argentine had been vastly exaggerated.

Oats cased off with corn. Reports that the yield of oats in Argentine would be small and of poor quality had a bullish influence, however, during the first half of the day.

Provisions developed strength in consequence of a falling off in receipts of hogs. Packers seemed inclined to help nurse the market.

LIVERPOOL CLOSE

Wheat futures closed at Liverpool today unchanged. Corn ½d to ¼d lower.

SOLD LARGE BLOCK OF O'KEEFE STOCK

Sixty Per Cent. Interest in Brewery Transferred From Hawke Estate.

MILLION IS INVOLVED

Cawthra Mulock, Charles Millar and Sir Henry Pellatt Now Owners.

Charles Millar and Cawthra Mulock acquire a 60 per cent. interest in the O'Keefe Brewery by a transfer of the stock held by the Widmer Hawke estate announced yesterday by W. H. Garvey and W. T. Kernahan, executors of the Hawke estate.

The remaining 40 per cent. of the brewery stock is held by Sir Henry Pellatt. It is expected that Millar and Mulock will both become members of the board, but their choice for the presidency is not known.

W. T. Kernahan, managing director of the brewery, declared that the transfer of stock would involve no material change. The management which had directed the business for years would continue to be identified with it.

The O'Keefe Brewery is capitalized at $2,000,000. The price paid for 60 per cent. of the stock is over a million dollars, with a large payment down.

SUING U. S. GOVERNMENT.

MISSIONS IN CHINA WILL STILL FLOURISH

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—(Can. Press.)—Political, rather than religious, significance is attached by officers of foreign mission organizations here to the Chinese administrative council today prescribing the worship of heaven and of Confucius by the president of the republic. The news, brought from Pekin today by despatches to the Associated Press, caused regret that Confucianism should receive state recognition, but no alarm for the prosperity of the missions maintained by the American churches in China.

American missionaries regret the dissolution of the Chinese Parliament and recent monarchical tendencies shown by President Yuan Shi Kai, but they retain confidence in repeated assurances the president has given of his friendliness toward the Christian religion. Recent letters received at headquarters here from Christian workers in the Chinese field testified to this belief.
