Senior League Games To-Day.

This afternoon's Senior League series at Old Upper Canada College constitutes the principal attraction for the fans. A good deal of interest is centred in the meeting of the St. Mary's and Crescents. Both teams are putting up the fastest kind of ball, and no doubt an exciting and well-played contest will be seen. The teams are about equal in the field and with the stick, so that the pitchers will have the issue in balance. Manager Sheppard will work Frank Scott, while the Saints will decide between Molson and Read. The Park Nines and Night Owls furnish the other game. A monster crowd is likely to be on hand.

Intermediate Baseball League.

The following games are scheduled in the Intermediate League for to-day: North Toronto at Cadet on Don flats, umpire Curran; Marlboroughs at East Toronto, umpire Larkin; Ontarios at J. D. Kings at St. Catharines, umpire Barnes; Vic-Thuros at Maple Leafs, umpire Bathgate; Atlantics at Monarchs, umpire Grier; Queen City bye.

SUGGESTION FOR MEMORIAL

Perpetuate Queen's Memory By Building Consumptive Sanitarium, Says Dr. E. J. Barrick.

EXPLAINS HOW IT CAN BE DONE

And Maintains, if Scheme is Taken Hold of, That It Can Be Successfully Accomplished.

Secretary T. L. Church of the Victoria Memorial Committee has received the suggestion from Dr. E. J. Barrick that a rural sanitarium for consumptives within 10 miles of Toronto and easily accessible by electric cars, would be a suitable form for the citizens' memorial to the Queen to take.

It should be able, he says, to accommodate at least 100 patients, and they should be admitted in all stages of the disease. Those who are able to should pay and those who are not should be admitted free. There should be 50 acres, preferably 100, of land, close to a running stream and several sites are available.

The construction of the buildings would be provided by a government grant of $4000 and the Local Board of Health agreed to submit a bylaw for $50,000, to be available when a similar amount was raised from another source, or if say $25,000 were raised, the same sum would be available from the bylaw and these two sums, together with the government grant, would make $54,000, which would purchase land and erect buildings to accommodate at least 50 patients.

How to Maintain It.

To maintain the institution, Dr. Barrick says there is a government grant of $1.50 per week for each patient treated and the City Council has been, and is now paying patients recommended by the Medical Health Officer in the various hospitals and is willing to do the same for consumptives, but no hospital in the city will open its doors to such cases.

How It Would Work Out.

Taking a group of five patients, Dr. Barrick works it out this way:

Of these five, say two are able to pay the full charge arranged by the trustees. On each of these should be a small margin of profit, over running expenses. This profit would be available to help out the three who cannot pay for themselves. Again, the $3 received from the government for the two who are able to pay would also be available for the three who are poor. Again, of the three who are unable to pay, one or perhaps two, belong to some church, or lodge or society, who ought and no doubt would contribute enough to make up the deficiency of $1 or $1.50 over the amount contributed by the government and the Council.

Bylaw Would Pass.

The management of the sanitarium is provided for by an act of the Legislature. Dr. Barrick does not think the ratepayers would pass a bylaw for a Victoria square or art museum, but would approve of one for a sanitarium, which is of such importance to the public health.

After pointing out how necessary such an institution is, Dr. Barrick asks: "Is it not a disgrace to this city of churches, this centre of legislation, education, finance, commerce, of missionary effort, of philanthropy in every shape and form, that no hospital or sanitarium is open to such cases?"
