"August Flower"

Perhaps you do not believe these atements concerning Green's August Flower. Well, we can't make ou. We can't force conviction into your head or medicine into your throat. We don't want to. The money is yours, and the isery is yours; and until you are illing to believe, and spend the one r the relief of the other, they will ay so. John H. Foster, 1122 rown Street, Philadelphia, says: "My wife is a little Scotch woman, irty years of age and of a naturally elicate disposition. For five or six ears past she has been suffering from Dyspepsia. She became so bad at last that she could not sit down to a meal but she had to vomit it soon as she had eaten it. Two ottles of your August Flower have red her, after many doctors failed. e can now eat anything, and enjoy and as for Dyspepsia, she does not now that she ever had it."

BRUCE.

Lieut.-Col. B. B. Boyd, commanding officer of the Thirty-second Bruce Battalion died in Port Elgin on Sunday. He had been suffering for months with a cancer in the stomach, and his death was expected for weeks. Col. Boyd was born in Markham in 1848, and was a son of the late Rev. James Boyd, who was an esteemed Presbyterian minister at Cross Hill for some 30 years. The deceased taught school at one time, subsequently being engaged in mercantile pursuits in Clifford, Walkerton and Port Elgin. Seven years ago he assumed the management of the Port Elgin brush factory and for these years represented that institution on the road, handling its wares. At a very early age Col. Boyd entered the militia service of the country, serving in the Waterloo Battalion at the time of the Fenian raids. He occupied nearly every office in the service till his appointment as commanding officer of the Bruce Battalion. As an officer he commanded the respect and affection of all his subordinates; as a man he was greatly liked by all who came in contact with him. He leaves a widow and one daughter.

Two daughters of a Mr. Smith, of Inverhuron, were carried away in a lean-to of the residence during the recent flood while sleeping. Their cries alarmed their parents, who could do nothing in the darkness to aid them. About two acres of land were carried out by the water at the point where the grief-stricken family's home once stood.

DUFFERIN.

They also reside now in Michigan.

LINCOLN.

The impressive ceremony of dedicating the handsome marble altar presented to St. Catharines Roman Catholic Church by the relatives of the late John Scott, took place Friday morning, his Lordship Archbishop Walsh, of Toronto diocese, performing the ceremony, assisted by Vicar-General McCann and Vicar-General Laurent.

Mrs. J. T. Groves, wife of the popular bank cashier, of St. Catharines, entertained Miss Jean Voorhees and a few members of her "Only a Farmer's Daughter" Company at supper at her elegant residence after the performance on Thursday last. A few prominent citizens were invited and the occasion was a most enjoyable one. The toast of the evening was "Miss Voorhees, our beautiful guest," who, by her talent, beauty and accomplishments, has won our friendship and esteem." The young lady's response was as unique as it was characteristic. Among other striking things she said was, "If she did belong to the best blood of Indiana, she did not feel that it would float her to success. Although of well-known Democratic antecedents, and her party now in power, she realized that on the stage it was coupon tickets and not ballots she had to depend upon. And although the popular Indiana Senator could steer the political ship, he could not carry her Thespian banner to the temple of fame. She relied on her personal exertions and the natural gifts God had given her. If she always met as kind auditors as those who had so generously showed their applause with their flowers, her pathway was a sure and pleasant one."

LAMBTON.

One evening last week a tramp unceremoniously walked into a widow's house in Lucan and demanded something to eat. The good lady gave him his supper. After supper Mr. Tramp took a chair, with the intention of "making himself at home." The woman told him he must go, but the visitor was not willing to take his departure, when the woman and her grown-up daughter took hold of him and put him out by force.

Stratford is about to lose one of its ablest young preachers in the person of Rev. J. P. Gerrie, of the Congregational Church. Mr. Gerrie has received an invitation to the pastorate of the East Toronto Congregational Church, which he has accepted.

Mr. Lander, of Toronto, is now running the Royal Hotel at Mitchell as a trustee for Mr. Whale.

Wednesday was the last day of the Stratford Model School term. The occasion was taken advantage of by the students in training to show their appreciation of the efforts of J. R. Stuart, the principal, and Mr. Freeland, professor of music. Each was presented with a complimentary address and a tangible token of esteem.

The balance of the season's make of cheese—259 boxes—from the Silver Corners factory was shipped from the Atwood station the other day. The factory made 61 tons of cheese during the season now closed, which is four tons in excess of last year's make.

His wheat crop this year was over 40,000 bushels, undamaged by frosts or gophers. He and his family intend to winter on the Pacific coast.
