THE LIVE STOCK MARKET

Oats Were Very Scarce on the Square This Morning—A Little Fruit Offered.

There was a very fair showing at the market this morning, especially in the case of hay. Upwards of 25 loads were offered. The price remained firm at $16 for the best quality, though one or two sales were made at $16 25, and a few loads of poorer quality sold for about $15 50. The great majority of the sales, however, were made at $16.

Oats were very scarce this morning, and prices inclined to be a little dull, although there was a fairly good demand; $1 25 was the maximum price paid. There were no other grains of any sort offered; though there is still a very good demand for almost all varieties.

The market for live hogs was fairly brisk, and the supply very good, despite the fact that the prices were a little easier; $7 40 was the going price on the market this morning.

The only other commodity offered was fruit, and it was very slow of sale. Grapes are still being offered at 20c to 25c, but the sale is anything but brisk. Quinces are still fairly plentiful, and are selling mostly at 40c. Other quotations remain as follows:

GRAND TRUNK BRAKEMAN FELL FROM HIS TRAIN

W. Sneath Way Very Painfully Injured Near St. Marys This Morning.

Brakeman W. Sneath, of the Grand Trunk, whose home is in Wingham, was very painfully injured near St. Marys this morning, when he fell from his train while it was going around a curve. Some of the passengers saw him fall and notified the crew, and the train was stopped. It was found that Mr. Sneath had sustained a bad scalp wound, and he was hurried to St. Marys, where a physician put a number of stitches in his head. Later Mr. Sneath was taken to his home in Wingham.

THE HIRED MAN TO BE ORGANIZED

Cause of the Unskilled Laborer Taken Up by Labor Federation.

Toronto, Nov. 15.—At the American Federation of Labor this morning a proposal to organize "The hired man" on the farm was indorsed, after considerable discussion. Delegate Flaherty scented trouble. They were infringing on the Farmers' Union, he said.

"There is no class of labor in use so overworked and underpaid as hired men on farms," said O. P. Smith.

J. B. Connor, Chicago, said it was ridiculous to expect hired help to join the Farmers' Union.

Declaring that the fruit crop of California is largely gathered by Japs and Chinese, W. A. Lexton wanted to know if they would be taken in.

"We haven't heard anything about organizing farmers' wives and hired girls," said Robert Crampton, of Chicago.

President Gompers—"We can't organize them all at once."

Crampton—"No they haven't voices."

By voting 71 to 63 the convention approved of banding together the hired men and unskilled laborer in small towns.

A Great Killer.

High Constable Hughes, who has just returned from the woods of the Parry Sound district, reports that the hunting season has been a very poor one this year. Still hunting, the most popular form, has been greatly handicapped by the mild weather. It is usual at this time of the year to have quite a heavy fall of snow, which deadens all noise. This year, however, there hasn't even been a frost some nights, and as a result the still hunting has been very difficult, despite the fact that game seems to be very plentiful. Similar complains are heard from all quarters.

WINTRY WEATHER COMING

Washington, Nov. 15.—Rain, snow and disagreeable weather throughout the country generally and cooler east during the next week or ten days, is the prediction of the weather bureau today. Two disturbances are approaching the east. The first will reach the Atlantic states about Thursday or Friday. The second storm is due about Monday next.

EAST LONDON

FORTY HOURS DEVOTION IN ST. MARY'S CHURCH

Impressive Sermon Preached Sunday Night by Rev. Father McMenamin.

The forty hours' devotion opened at St. Mary's Church yesterday morning immediately following the high mass at 10:30, when the celebrant, Rev. Father Howard, of St. Peter's Cathedral, deacon, Father McKeon, rector of St. Mary's, and sub-deacon Assistant Rector Father Tobin, carried the Blessed Eucharist around the interior of the church in a procession, composed of a number of acolytes, twenty litle girls in wreaths and veils, and six boys who acted as torchbearers.

The procession returned to the centre altar where the sacrament will remain exposed until the forty hours are concluded. The practice of holding forty hours' devotions was commenced over seven hundred years ago in the Catholic Church by one of the popes as an act of reparation to Christ, who was left alone in his tomb for that time, from Good Friday until his resurrection.

Rev. Father Laurendau, of St. Augustine, Ont., and Rev. Father J. P. Brennan, of Bothwell, will speak at the church tonight and tomorrow evening, respectively.

Father McMenamin's Sermon.

Rev. Father McMenamin, of Lucan, was the celebrant at solemn vespers and benediction last evening, and was assisted by Father McKeon as deacon, and Father Tobin as sub-deacon.

Father McMenamin occupied the pulpit, and preached a very inspiring and instructive sermon, taking as his text the words of Christ, "Come to me all ye heavily-laden, and I will refresh you."

"God invites his children who are troubled to come to him for peace," said the speaker. "The world today has a very different message. The rich man has no use for the beggar. He is too busy making money and worrying over what ht has, to be bothered with any person's cares, and these business troubles are the cause of the want of love of God, which in turn brings about the oppression of all others.

The Almighty Dollar.

"Man lingers too long at the altar of the almighty dollar, his greatest curse," said the speaker, "for it teaches him to forget his Lord, and without Christ no man can enjoy peace.

"God in the forty-hour devotions triumphs with peace which is one of the greatest blessings of the services. The Blessed Sacrament, the sunlight of earth which the Lord brought down himself, is exposed on the altar.

"The rich man is far from being at peace. His mind is disturbed
