THE BOYD MUSICALE.

A High Class Entertainment at Senator Boyd's Residence, in Aid of Lady Tilley's Hospital Nurse Scheme.

The musicale held in the palatial residence of Senator John Boyd last evening was the most brilliant and successful entertainment of the kind ever held in St. John. Notwithstanding the fact that several hundred people were present, all were comfortably accomodated in the spacious and elegant rooms of this large and tastefully furnished residence. Mrs. Boyd, who is well known for her kind and charitable disposition, had organized this grand entertainment herself, in aid of Lady Tilley's praiseworthy scheme for the establishment of a staff of district nurses at the general public hospital, and the providing of suitable quarters for them to reside in there.

The musical talent, which contributed to make the entertainment such a rich treat to the guests of the evening, included a good proportion of the best players and singers in St. John. The programme contained twenty numbers. It opened with a chorus by the choir of St. David's church, after which solos were given by G. S. Mayes, Miss Jennie Young, Mrs. Gilchrist, Miss Pidgeon, Miss Clara Quinton, Miss Hancock, A. H. Lindsay, Tom Daniel, Miss Godard, (instrumental), and L. W. Titus; duets by Mrs. J. R. Armstrong and G. L. Robinson, Mrs. W. S. Carter and L. W. Titus, Misses Gertrude Allison and Agnes Thorne (instrumental), W. H. and Mrs. Horne, Mrs. Gilchrist and L. W. Titus, W. A. and Mrs. Ewing (instrumental); violincello solo by Miss Bowden; selections by the Treble clef and the Emergency quartette.

During an intermission Sir Leonard Tilley made a few remarks in regard to the object of the fund which Lady Tilley is engaged in raising, and he thanked Senator Boyd and Mrs. Boyd for their valuable assistance in the movement.

Dr. William Bayard, who was afterwards called upon to speak by Senator Boyd, thanked the ladies for the good work they were trying to do for the advancement of the usefulness of the hospital. Dr. Bayard, being a hospital commissioner, was also able to tell some interesting reminiscences concerning the hospital and its work.

At the close of the concert light refreshments were served by a committee of gentlemen. Mrs. Boyd's musicale will be long remembered by all who enjoyed the privilege of being present.

He was standing on a ladder about twelve feet from the floor when it slipped from under him, and he fell to the floor. He was conveyed to his home on Duke street in a coach and Dr. D. E. Berryman was summoned. On examination it was found that three ribs were broken and that he had sustained other injuries.

"I'D TRIED A BLUFF."

A Newcastle Man Fails to Work the Pharmaceutical Examiners at this City.

As everybody knows the pharmaceutical examinations were held January 29 and 30, and as we all remember there were several of the candidates "plucked." Among the number failing to reach the required standard was a young man from Newcastle. He keeps a little drug store up there and is a graduate of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy. It was necessary for him, however, after graduating, to pass registry examinations at St. John so that he would be permitted to practice in New Brunswick, and so this young man presented himself before the N. B. examiners on the 29th of January last. He handed in an excellent paper in English and was to have taken chemistry in the afternoon. But at noon he rushed excidedly into the hall and drew out a telegram which read as follows:—

"Come home at once. Charlie very low."

On first thought the examiners were lenient but as one of them, noticed the name of a "well known" physician at the bottom of the telegram he became suspicious and put the Newcastle young man under a series of interrogatories which led to his being requested to continue his examinations. He waited over but failed to pass. And to probe the matter still further the examiner telegraphed to Newcastle and received word back that while the Charlie in question was sick with rheumatism, he had been rapidly recovering during the previous few days.

The examiners immediately wrote to the Philadelphia college to enquire if a diploma had been won by such and such a man, and a day or two ago they received answer that he had passed very creditable examinations. To them, therefore, there could only be one conclusion, that the Philadelphia college of Pharmacy does not amount to much, and in view of this and another important consideration, that the drug business is a dangerous one for an inexperienced hand to engage in, they will take legal proceedings against the Newcastle man whose establishment at that place is still in operation.

This Year's Exhibition.

The exhibition association directors met yesterday afternoon. Several communications were read and referred to committees. Messrs. W. F. They Have Strength.

The strong man, C. P. Blatt is in town, and he favored the GAZETTE with a call this morning and an invitation to visit his exhibition to-morrow afternoon which is given for the special benefit of newspaper men. Mr. Blatt is not large to look upon, but he has a record heavy weight lift to his credit of 1125 pounds of iron. He has also put a 250 lb dumb bell up from the shoulder three times with his right arm, and 150 lb bell six times with his left. He can break iron horse shoes with his hands as easily as though they were made of wood, and this feat he does in such a manner as would be impossible to deceive the audience. The strong man is worth seeing and he performs nightly at the Bijou theatre. He shows a magnificent arm, swelling with muscles and can perform everything he says he can. With him is Miss Woolford, the strongest woman in the world, who weighs 215 pounds, and can lift over eight hundred weight.

Hands Across the Sea.

The interest in this play continues unabated, and that a crowded house will attend each performance is a foregone conclusion. Miss Olive West last night increased the favorable impression she had already made by her smooth and artistic work in her role of Lillian Melford. The work of the other ladies, Miss Edwards and Miss Celeste, was equally satisfactory and equally efficient in respect of their roles.

Messrs. Lytell, Edwards, Smith, Morton and Beebe all gave admirable interpretations of their individual roles. The last evening performance of this popular play will be given this evening, and the opportunity should be availed of by everyone who appreciates a good play where not only the scenic effect is admirable, but where each member of the cast does his or her work in a conscientious manner and with an evident desire to win approbation.

A special matinee performance of "Hands Across the Sea" will be given to-morrow afternoon, in order that ladies and children who are unable to attend the evening performance may have an opportunity to see the play. The matinee will begin at 2 o'clock sharp, and the doors will be open at 1.15 o'clock.

SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

Skating.

AT THE PALACE.

The first races of the N. B. A. Skating Association were not as successful as the entries warranted. And the reason for this was that Gibson of Marysville, Pattison of Dartmouth, and Carroll of Picton didn't materialize. T. Irvine the speedy St. John skater was sick and so was Geo. Brown who had a match on with Kearns. Carson took four of the events and proved himself still to be a good one.

The events were as follows:

220 yards,—Starters, Carson, Condon, Hefferon. (1) Carson; (2) Hefferron. Time 25 sec.

One mile boys,—Starters, W. Dunbrack, J. McCormick, O. Irvine, J. Clancey. Dunbrack fell towards the end and knocked down Irvine, Clancey winning in 3.54½; Irvine second.

Carson won the three miles as he liked in 11.14 1-5; Davidson second.

Chas. Gillespie took the half mile backward from W. Lockhart in 1.40.

The 3-mile race between G. A. Brown and A. Kearns did not come off, owing to the illness of Brown.

Carson won the half-mile from Davidson, Condon and Hefferon in 1.36 3-5.

Clancey won the 2-mile boys race from Dunbrack by a body, McCormick was third. Time 7.44.

Carson and Heffron jumped the hurdles, the former winning in 29 2-5.

Chas. Gillespie defeated Condon in a half-mile race in 1.39. The officials were: R. A. Watson, C. E. O'Reilly and A. Walker, judges; H. H. Ring referee; T. Roderick and L. Berryman, timers; H. H. Pitt, starter.

AT VICTORIA.

This evening the big tournament is on at the Victoria rink, and Lamb and Breen will contest for the three mile championship and $50 a side. Other interesting events have been arranged.

DALTON ACCEPTS.

E. Dalton accepts the challenge of Earle Scovil to skate a one or two mile race in Victoria rink, for the next tournament, the prize to be a silver medal.

The Ring.

GOSSIP OF THE BOXERS.

Little faith is taken in the challenge of Jim Hall, the Australian, to Bob Fitzsimmons. It emanates from Parson Davies.

Champion John L. Sullivan, after loudly proclaiming that he would give Slavin $3,000 to stand before him six rounds, recedes from his position when the Australian accepts, and announces that he has "quit the ring."

Mick Dooley, the big Australian, is on ship bound to Frisco, with the end in view of matching with Bob Fitzsimmons in a finish fight. He will hardly secure a battle with the middle-weight champion though, as Bob refuses to fight anybody over the 154-pound limit, and Dooley can't fight 165.

One week from to-night the California Athletic Club will reopen its doors with a star event in the meeting between George LaBlanche and John L. Herget (Young Mitchell). Both men have trained hard for the meeting and a stiff contest is certain to result.

Jim Corbett's friends are anxious about his physical condition. His stomach has been troubling him considerably of late, and they fear he may not be right when he faces Jackson in May. The colored man is in far from good shape though, and the men may break even on that score.

Lovers of science glove fighting will be greatly pleased to learn that Dixon and McCarthy are to meet. Wednesday the Hudson County Athletic Club, telegraphed Tom O'Rourke that McCarthy had accepted the club's offer of a $4,000 purse for a meeting under the conditions of the Puritan Club on the night of the 20th. O'Rourke accepted for Dixon, and the colored boy has resumed training.

Liberal-Conservative Committees.

This evening the Liberal-Conservative committees of Lorne and Lansdowne wards will meet at 8 o'clock sharp in Temple of Honor hall, Main street.

The Dufferin ward committee will hold forth at Bostwick's hall, and as a grand rally of this ward will be made, all the electors are specially invited to attend.

PELEE ISLAND Co.'s Grape Juice is invaluable for sickness and as a tonic is unequalled. It is recommended by Physicians, being pure, unadulterated juice of the grape. Our agent, E. G. Scovil, Tea importer, No. 13 North Wharf, can supply our Brands of Grape Juices by the case of one dozen.
