FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ROTHESAY

Rothesay, Feb. 4—The "baked beans" supper in St. Paul's church Sunday school house on Saturday, proved a great success. The attendance was good, and the delicious things provided were greatly enjoyed. To Mrs. Bell, Miss Puddington and Miss Domville, who were prime movers in arranging the affair, the hearty thanks of the Red Cross Society are extended. Mrs. John H. Thomson and Mrs. Henry Gilbert poured tea and coffee, and among those who served were Miss Florence Gilbert, Miss Jean Daniel, Miss Dorothy Purdy, Miss Georgie Trueman, Miss Lillie West, Miss Dorothy MacKean, Miss Agnes MacKean, Miss Nan Fairweather and others. Several fine gramaphone selections were put on during the supper hour. About $33 were added to the funds of the Red Cross Society.

On Friday evening a very attractive programme was presented by the junior pupils of Netherwood in their large recreation room, which was filled with friends of the school before the raising of the curtain for the first number, which was a chorus by the whole school led by Miss Walker, and very nicely rendered. A cute little French scene "Les Petite Ours" by such little maids as Millie Hibbard, Florence Puddington, Helen Allison and Syble Frink received much applause. "The Bear Prince" was well done, both the acting and annunciation were fine. The stage too, was most attractive in each of the scenes. Following is the cast of characters:

Snow White ..... Mary Armstrong
Rose Red ..... Elspeth Maclaren
Their mother ..... Margaret Schrle
Little Red Riding Hood .....
Dorothy Brewer
A Princess ..... Alice Heath
The Bear (enchanted prince) .....
Christian Edwards
Hop-o-My Thumb ..... Joan Bruce
Toadstool (dwarf) .....
Frederica Edgecomb
Spiderlegs ..... Eleanor Morris

Tipperary and The Marselaise were well sung, and God Save the King closed the programme. Proceeds for Red Cross work.

Miss Violet McKay was hostess on Wednesday evening at a skating party, it being the occasion of her birthday. After a couple of hours at the rink all the little people repaired to Miss McKay's home, where a tempting supper was served, followed by games, etc. Among those present were Miss Mattie Cook, Miss Jean Simpson, Miss Lily Bateman, Miss Jean Jamieson, Miss Kathleen Delaney, Miss Minnie Powell, Miss Evelyn Lawson, Miss Mary Allain, Miss Charlotte Barberie, Miss Mabel McNeill, Miss Jessy Campbell, Miss Mary Bateman, Miss Laura Franey and Miss Mary McLean (Campbellton), and the Messrs. Everet Harquail, Gordon Mott, Merman LeCouffe, Paul Samson, Robert Coleman, Colan McKenzie, Vaughan Mott and Arthur Coleman.

Mr. Herbert A. Hilyard, who has severed his connection with the Dalhousie Lumber Company, Ltd., and is leaving on Saturday to spend a few weeks with friends in St. John, was dined by his friends at the Royal hotel on Wednesday evening. Hon. C. H. LaBillois presided at the dinner. An address was presented to Mr. Hilyard referring to the good work he had done among the laboring classes of the town, and the regrets of the citizens of Dalhousie at his departure, followed by a presentation of a very handsome set of pipes, a gift of his friends. Mr. Hilyard, while taken by surprise, in well chosen words thanked those present for their generosity towards him, and said that he and his wife would never forget the kindness that had been extended to them by the Dalhousie people during their eleven years in Restigouche's shiretown. Speeches were made by Messrs. Andrew Barberie, William Gallop and E. Rene Richard, and a real good time was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

Rev. R. J. Coleman is in St. John this week attending a meeting of the deanery.
