TEAMSTERS' PICNIC ON MONDAY

Citizens—You have spent a day with the circus, now spend a day with the menagerie. At the teamsters picnic the finest procession ever seen here, consisting of bears, lions, buffaloes, deer, etc., will leave the market at 11 o'clock. Do not fail to see our menagerie in parade.

Several fine attractions have been secured since the programme was printed. Our fine evening entertainment this year beats anything ever seen on the fair grounds.

The procession will not go around the ring in park. Tickets will not be sold for the stands till 12:30.

The stands will be cleared soon as afternoon programme is over so as to make arrangements for the evening.

Persons wearing guests' badges must keep to the stands, as the ring will be kept clear at any risk.

Special constables have been sworn in to keep the ring clear. Persons trespassing inside ring are hereby warned against jumping fences.

Mr. C. F. Colwell, official issuer of marriage licenses, has presented the couple who are to be married on the grounds with their marriage license. Evening procession will leave the market at 7:30.
