ONTARIO POLITICS.

MR. MEREDITH'S PROTEST AGAINST GRAND TRUNK DICTATION.

Distribution of Representation on the General Council of the Imperial Institute—A Minister takes the Stump for Equal Rights.

TORONTO, Ont., May 27.—A feature of the Ontario election campaign is the declaration of the Hamilton managers of the Grand Trunk, railway that all employes of that railway have orders to vote for the Ontario government.

At Stratford last night Mr. Meredith attacked this and said: Notwithstanding the fact that Sir Joseph Hickson has received his knighthood, the free men of this country are not to be dragooned into voting against their principles at the bid of any railway magnate. Who gave Sir Joseph Hickson and the board of directors of the Grand Trunk railway company the right to control the franchise of the free men of Ontario? The men in the employ of that company give their services for the pay received, and it is an insult to their intelligence that the head of that railway should dictate to them the course they should pursue.

Thursday is nomination day in Ontario, and in every constituency, two and in some cases, three candidates are ready. The government party will not allow any election to go by acclamation. The Empire says: The lieutenant governors of the different provinces have been invited to nominate representatives to a permanent governing body on the general council of the Imperial institute. The organizing committee has considered the matter very thoroughly and it has been decided to allocate thirty-five representatives to the different colonies of the empire of which number ten are given to Canada. The Ontario government will name two representatives; the Quebec government two and each of the other Provincial governments one, including one for the territories.

PRINCE ARTHUR'S MASH.

A YOUNG AMERICAN LADY REQUESTS A SHAKE.

He Smilingly Accedes and a Pleasant Conversation Ensues.

DONALD, B. C., May 24.—The Duke and Duchess of Connaught celebrated the seventy-first birthday of their royal mother in feasting on the grand and rugged mountain scenery of the Selkirk and Rocky Mountain ranges. The vice-regal train left Sycamou, at the head of Shuswap Lake, at four o'clock this morning, arriving here at half-past nine this morning, after making a rapid run through the Illecillewaet, Beaver and Columbia canyons. The run from Vancouver to Sycamous, a distance of 334 miles, was made in fourteen hours.

The Duke and his party were welcomed at the station here by Lieutenant Baker, M. P., with whom His Highness and the ladies of his party chatted while the engines were changed and a new crew taken on. Conductor Engley relieved Conductor Irwin, who piloted the party through from Vancouver, and the locomotive was in charge of Driver Carey.

In the course of a chat on the platform His Highness said he had enjoyed the trip so far very much, the scenery being more grand than he had been led to expect from the accounts of those who had gone before. He was also delighted with the climate, which, he said, could not be surpassed by that of any part of the empire.

At Glacier a short stop was made to allow the party to inspect the great ice glacier, one mile and a half distant. Rogers Pass was reached about nine a. m. and the Canada National Park at Banff shortly after noon. Here the Duke will remain until to-morrow morning, inspecting the beautiful surroundings.

After lunch the party took carriages for Devil's Lake, returning in the evening, when the Hot Springs were visited. Dinner was served at the Mammoth Hotel of Canadian Pacific, located in the park, no one but members of the party being present.

The Duke and Duchess and Sir John McNeill all expressed themselves as highly delighted with the trip over the mountains. At the stations along the line the Duke inquired kindly of officials as to the character of the country and the habits of the natives. Many wild flowers and relics were gathered en route.

At Kamloops a large number of natives gathered to witness the passage of the train. The Duke remained gazing in silence at the crowd for a few minutes, when the monotony was relieved by a young American lady visitor at Kamloops stepping up to the Duke and requesting a shake of the hand. The Duke smilingly acceded and a pleasant conversation ensued.

The weather to-day was not very favorable for viewing the peaks surrounding Banff, but nevertheless the party seemed to thoroughly enjoy themselves.

At many points along the line buildings are handsomely decorated in honor of the Duke's visit and flags were flying in celebration of the Queen's birthday.

WINNIPEG, May 27.—The Duke of Connaught and party arrived at 5.25 last night and is the guest of Sir Donald Smith. The party leave for the east at noon to-day.

WAS IT A MURDER?

The Body of a Man Found in a Catch Basin.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE.

CHICAGO, May 27.—The body of a large man, who had apparently been choked to death was discovered yesterday in the catch basin, at Sixtieth street and Wallace street. The police endeavored to extricate the corpse, but it washed into the sewer and disappeared from sight. Wagon tracks leading to the basin have been found and there is every reason to believe a foul murder has been committed. The police are investigating.

CHICAGO, May 27.—The police now state the body seen in the catch basin could not have been that of a man, or it could not have passed into the sewer as the aperature is but nine inches wide. They suppose it was that of an infant.

An English Murderer Surrenders.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE.

CHICAGO, May 27.—John Williams of Leeds, England, aged 31, has given himself up to the police here, and confessed to the murder of Emma Roberts in Leeds in 1879. The girl refused his attentions and he pounded her to death with a hammer. The girl's parents, he says live in Harpery near Winchester. The Leeds authorities have been telegraphed to.

ENGLAND AND GERMANY.

DIFFERENCES OVER THE EAST AFRICAN AND EGYPTIAN QUESTIONS.

The Emperor Seeking to Cultivate England's Friendship.

BERLIN, May 24.—The negotiations with England concerding territory in Africa had almost reached the point of an exchange of a protocol conceding to Germany a sphere of influence extending from the east coast to the Congo Free State, when Lord Salisbury, the British Prime Minister, sent his envoy, Sir Percy Anderson, emphatic orders to suspend communication and await instructions. Since then Sir Edward Malet, the British Ambassador at Berlin, has intimated that the negotiation will only be resumed on the basis of a recognition by Germany of English rights on the west coast of Lake Tanganyika and the territories north of Tanganyika, including Uganda.

The Foreign office here interprets the changed attitude of Lord Salisbury to the public clamor in England over the threatened dispossession of the English from the territories connecting the British Empire in South Africa with the sources of the Nile. Whatever is Lord Salisbury's motive it has evoked an energetic protest from Chancellor von Caprivi, which the Emperor either inspired or indorsed. Only strong State combined with family reasons determines the Emperor to persist in his cordial relations with the English government.

The North German Gazette, whose director recently had several interviews with Chancellor von Caprivi, obtained a semi-official communication advocating a continuance of the English occupation of Egypt as essential to the prosperity of that country. The article obviously pointed out that the German government was ready to support a permanent occupation of Egypt by the British. The Gazette did not state the terms, but suggested that if Germany obtained a hold in the districts in Central Africa claimed by England the British army would be confirmed in the occupation of Egypt.

The Emperor, as if desiring to mark the strength of the entente with England, is celebrating the Queen's birthday with unusual ceremony. Sir Edward Malet and the whole British Embassy banqueted to-night at the royal castle. The Emperor toasted the Queen as the head of a great family, the ruler of a friendly nation and commander of the First German dragoons.

In conclusion he said:—"May God preserve and protect and bless her for many years to come." The British Ambassador responded and offered a toast in honor of the Emperor, who afterward proposed the health of Chancellor von Caprivi, calling him his trusted Minister and valuable servant of the country. The English flag is displayed on every government building.

It is improbable that this effusive display of desire to cultivate the friendship of England will induce Lord Salisbury to concede the demands of Germany, even if Egypt should be thrown into the balance. General von Caprivi will not abate his claims and the issue will be an indefinite suspension of negotiations, which will leave both parties to proceed with the game of territorial grab until the complications arising therefrom become more critical. The newspapers commenting upon Lord Salisbury's utterances on the situation concur in the opinion that warlike complications are impossible, all the territory acquired by Germany in Africa not being worth a European war. At the same time it is felt that the German acquisitions will probably be a source of trouble with England in the near fntnre.

LONG AND CAUSTIC LETTER.

Mr. Stanley Replies to Lord Salisbury's Recent Utterances.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE.

LONDON, May 27.—The Times this morning prints a long and caustic lette from Mr. Stanley, in reply to the recent utterances of Lord Salisbury. Mr. Stanley declares that he has nothing but a sentimental interest in any part of Africa, but he says that, on finding that many of his friends have embarked their money in an African enterprise on the strength of a charter not worth a counterfeit sixpence, unless the terms of the understanding with Germany are rigidly adhered to, and there being every indication of a disposition on the part of the government to help Germans, instead of Englishmen, he has urged his friends to discover the exact limits of their territory. He wishes to quarrel with neither Germany nor England, but says boldly that if the German colonial demands be granted it would be more economical to make Germany a gift of the whole British sphere, Then British investors might obtain so many shillings for the pounds they so credulously have been victimized out of. In conclusion, he declares that the German sphere is the finest in Africa, and adds: "Still their cry is 'Give, give!' If you think they are better adapted than the English to civilize the African, do nothing half-heartedly. Yield all, including Egypt. Never a word of protest shall you hear from me. Excessive amiability may become an infirmity, and the infirmity of negligence, like other diseases, grows until it ends in chronic senility."

ALMOST A PANIC IN THE NEW YORK MARKET.

The Bears Trying to Cover Their Interests.

NEW YORK, May 27.—There is every indication of a corner in the present month's crop in the cotton market and the bears are climbing over each other in their efforts to cover. The May, June, July and August options advanced 18 points in the first hours. Just after noon they had reached an advance of 40 points above last night's close.

A GREAT RAILROAD SYSTEM.

The Lines Embraced Comprise Nearly 8,000 Miles.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE.

NEW YORK, May 27.—The annual report of the Pennsylvania Railway company says its income for 1889 was $10,992,747.33 as compared with $9,809,160 for 1888. After deducting from this sum the amounts properly chargeable thereto, there is a balance of net income for the year of $8,655,911, as against $7,040,962 for the year 1888, out of which there was paid a dividend of 5 per cent., leaving $3,328,647; after deducting the extraordinary expenditures necessitated by the June floods, amounting to $2,609,324.85, there was a balance remaing to the credit of profit and loss at the end of the year of $20,068,055. The lines embraced in the system, both east and west of Pittsburg, comprise 7,844.23 miles, over which were moved 122,164,118 tons of freight and 78,126,957 passengers, as against 110,843,574 tons of freight and 74,000,686 passengers in 1888. The gross earnings of these lines for the year were $122,917,337, as compared with $116,509,292 for 1888, thus showing an encouraging increase over the preceding year.

A BANK CASHIER'S SHORTAGE.

He is Non Committal But Threatens Exposure.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y. May 27.—In the judgment of leading citizens there is a shortage in the accounts of C.A. Thompson cashier of the Owego National bank to the extent of $75,000 but more conservative estimates place the amount at $20,000. There is great excitement in the city.

Thompson's speculations which are the cause of the bank's failure, appear to have been confined to dealings with the "Big Four." He is non committal except to declare that if he is pushed to the wall he will expose two of Owego's most substantial citizens who are implicated in the affair.

The Equity Court.

A number of matters came on before His Honor Judge Palmer in the Equity Court this morning.

Re Aretas W. Y. Desbrisay vs Robert Ellis was an application to take bill pro confesso in a foreclosure matter. Ordered that the bill be taken pro confesso. G. G. Gilbert Q. C., makes motion. When this order was made, His Honor stated that the Court in foreclosure matters required two things: First, that affidavits must disclose the amount, if any paid, and second, that it must be shown that no benefit has accrued to the mortgagees in that the parties are in possession.

In re James H. Peters plaintiff vs. Charles H. Harding and Silas Alward defendants. In this case on a previous occasion the bill was ordered to be taken pro confesso against the defendant Silas Alward for want of appearance, and the application today was to take the bill pro confesso against the defendant Charles H. Harding for want of a plea, demurrer and answer. Order made to take bill pro confesso against the defendant Harding. There is a claim of $2825, 78 in this case but no order was made as to assessment. J. R. Armstrong for plaintiff.

Re Wm. J. Gilbert vs Allen Murray: Hon. D. Hanington moves for an order that the administration of the plaintiff shall either revive this suit or that the injunction granted in this suit be dissolved and the bill dismissed with costs. Ordered that the suit be revived within thirty days. G. C. & C. J. Coster for plaintiffs Hon. D. Hanington for defendant.

In re Clarke vs Clark, Mr. Wilson of Hanington and Wilson moves for costs for notice—Ordered as moved.

In re Henry G. Fowler vs Jasper Beatty and Sarah Devlin, his wife, a foreclosure suit, the bill was ordered to be taken pro confesso on motion of Mont. McDonald.

In re Wright et al vs Wright was taken up and considered briefly when an adjournment was made till this afternoon. L. B. Tweedie for plaintiffs and R. R. Ritchie for the defendant.

The Anning estate, and a large array of lawyers connected with it, in one interest or another, were before His Honor. Some expression of opinion, was indulged in by counsel, as to what the nature of the decree to be made by His Honor, should be, but it was generally understood the trust deed would be set aside, and the real estate vest, at once, in the Annings and the legacies also pro rata among those for whom intended. The question of compensation to trustees came up and indications were that satisfactory figures would be arrived at in this particular. Counsel, with permission of the court, adjourned to discuss and draw up a decree and submit it to His Honor later.

Police Court.

James Ross, Alfred Logue, and John Carson, drunks, were fined $4. Bertie Crowley for the same offence was fined $8. Peter Paul and Frank Gallagher, lodgers, were allowed to go.

The case of Jos. O'Brien against Samuel W. Belyea, W. Peters, Albert N. Harned and Wm. Brayley for keeping their fish weirs open on Sunday was disposed of this morning. Harned was fined $10 and the others $5 each.

LOCAL MATTERS.

LATEST GLEANING'S BY THE GAZETTE'S REPORTERS.

The Inquest on the Body of Samuel Torrie.

It was 2.30 p. m. when the adjourned sitting of the court of enquiry was opened to-day by Coroner Berryman.

A good number of interested spectators were present. The Solicitor General occupied a seat with the coroner and Magistrate Ritchie, and watched the case in the interest of the Crown.

The first witness called this afternoon was Philip Ready, who stated that he had been drinking slightly on Sunday. He spent the greater part of that day home, but visited Torry's place before dark, staying there until 6 or 9 o'clock. During that time he had something to drink, but was sober when he left and went home. Witness stayed home until Torry called for him, and wanted him to go up to a wake at Frank Duff's. Neither of them went, but, instead, proceeded to Torry's house. Witness remained there until 10.30 o'clock. Met his brother Robt. at this place and Geo. Palmer had joined them on the road. There were, therefore in the house, Torry, Torry's wife and child, Robt., and Philip Ready and Geo. Palmer. Torry and Palmer had more liquor while in the house. It was not a usual thing to meet at Torry's. He had not been there for six months previous. After Torry, who went out for some liquor, returned there came a knock at the door which was answered by Torry. One of the the prisoners came in and asked for a drink of water. It was Grey. Hadn't seen anyone else with him, but believed there was some one, because he had heard his voice in conversation with Grey. Torry said he had no water and he didn't want them in there and he shut the door. Grey tried to force it in again. Palmer went to open the door to order them away, but Grey forced his way in, Torry went to shove him back, and with that he called out that he had been stabbed. The men remained outside and the door was closed. Witness heard threats before the stabbing occurred. The threat was "If he don't open the door we'll cut his guts out." Could'nt say who spoke the words. Could'nt say if it was the same voice that asked for the water. After the stabbing took place, Torry walked back about three feet to a chair; said he was done. Witness saw where the deceased was stabbed; saw the blood which came from the left breast. He then went to the station house. He saw officer Codyre and told him there was a man stabbed across the street, Sam Torry. He pointed to the two men who did it. Codyre said he couldn't do anything without a warrant. Witness described what was further done that night as far as he knew. In his cell below he had had conversations with his brother and Palmer, but not about that affair.

POINT LEPREAUX, 3 p. m., May 27.—Wind south, calm; light showers. Therm. 52. One schooner outward.

DRILL SHED.—A small building is being erected on Fort Howe to be used as a drill shed by Portland battery of the N. B. B. G. A.

HARRY LINDLEY and his company opened to quite a large audience in the Mechanic's Institute last night. To-night "The Castaway" will be the bill.

THE CIRCUIT COURT.—His Honor Sir John C. Allen this morning adjourned the session of the Circuit Court until 3 o'clock this afternoon when the cause of Morrison vs Masson was resumed.

IN EVERY RESPECT APPROPRIATE.—Chief Police Clarke is wearing a handsome gold badge. It is in the form of a shield surmounted by the city coat of arms, with enamelled lettering. The badge is an appropriate insignia of the office.

THE CIRCUIT COURT.—When the court sat this afternoon to resume the trial of Morrison vs. Masson, the cause was settled and as also was the cause of Masson vs. Morrison. The court was again adjourned until ten o'clock to-morrow morning.

GOOD FOR ST. JOHN.—Both Sir George Stephen and Mr. Van Horne said yesterday, without the slightest hesitation, that they considered St. John far superior to Halifax as a winter port. One of them added that the Andersons were also of the same opinion.

NEW BRUNSWICKERS IN COLORADO.—We observe by the Aspen, Colorado, Daily Times that Mr. J. F. MacMillan, formerly of this city, is a resident of that state where he is engaged in the real estate, mining and loan business. Judging by its newspapers Aspen must be quite a lively town.

ESSAY PRIZES.—Two ladies, Mrs. and Miss Murray, informed the Grammer and Victoria schools this morning that a prize of $5 and a Royal Society diploma (S. P. C. A.) would be given for the best essay on the "Effect of kindness to Animals." A prize of $3 will be given for the next best. This competition is open to scholars in grade 8 and upwards. All essays must be sent to Miss Peters, Wright street, by September 1st. 1890.

HOUSE MOVING.—The tall narrow house next Union Alley on Union street is being moved by Mr. Andrew Johnston. The house is 16 feet front by 58 feet. Mr. Johnston has taken the lower story out of it, silled it and let it down to the ground safely and is now engaged in working it along the street. The house will be moved along Waterloo, Richmond and Exmouth streets and be placed on a lot on the latter street about opposite the Methodist church.

THREE LEGAL GENTLEMEN of this city who are about to be examined for the degree of B. C. L., which they expect to receive from the University of New Brunswick, were ordering the proper hoods from the establishment of Messrs, Manchester, Robertson & Allison to-day. The fact that all those who were examined for this degree last year were plucked does not seem to have influenced them in the least in postponing their order until after the examinations.

of Personal Interest.

Rev. L. G. Stevens left last evening by the western express.

Geo. F. Gregory was in town to-day.

Mr. N. L. Newcomb, General Manager of the New York Steamship Co., is in town and stopping at the Victoria.

Keenan, the Exile Surrenders.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE.

NEW YORK, May 27.—John Keenan the exile from the twelth assembly district who fled to Canada, arrived in this city about noon. He drove to the District Attorney's office and surrendered himself. He will be released on bail.
